Lawrence, Kansas, made the scene this year and scored a total of 358 points in three games, averaging 119 points per game to claim this year's Holiday Tournament Championship.

The championship game was between Kansas and the Pendleton Bucks, which turned out to be a close game most of the way, although Kansas led at the end of each quarter.

Steve Daney led all scorers during the game with twenty field goals and he was two out of four at the free throw line for a total of 42 points. Monte Daney added 33 points, Ken Pamberton 15, Bo Schnieder 10, Steve LaCour 8, and Mike Daney 6, to round out the scoring for the Kansas team.

Merle Smith led the scoring for the Pendleton Bucks with 34 points, Buck Jones added 26, Seymour Reuben 14, Jarvis Yellowrobe 12, Punky Bronson 9, Vic Sohapp 3 and Bub Bronson 2. Lawrence, Kansas was called for 11 fouls while Pendleton was whistled for 13, with no one fouling out of the game. Kansas was six out of nine at the free line while Pendleton was ten out of 11. Kansas held a slim lead at the end of the first quarter 25-23, but extended it to 50-43 at the half time intermission. By the end of the third quarter Kansas led by 82-68, and winding up the game with a 114-100 score.

The game was hard played by both teams as the scrappy Pendleton team kept the pressure on their taller foes throughout the game. Pendleton collected five three point baskets from the outer perimeter while the taller Kansas team relied on their height to get the closer shots.

Merle Smith had 16 field goals one a three pointer and he was one for one at the free throw line to round out a three point play for his total of 34 points during the game. Buck Jones had nine field goals of which two were three pointers and he was six of seven at the foul line for 26 points.

Playing for third and fourth place was the Cal Condors who out lasted the Yakima Bucks to win the game by the score of 108-91. Joe Hutt of the Condors led all scorers in that game with 45 points. He poured in 16 field goals and he was 13 out of 14 at the charity stripe. Team mate Wes Scott added 22 points, Wes Hutt 13, Phil Monatowa 10, Tray Fletcher 8, Jerome Jackson 7, and Willie Hoglin 4, to round out their scoring.

Johnny Lay of the Yakima Bucks had the big guns for them as he ripped the nets for a total of 39 points of which 11 were field goals and he was 17 out of 20 at the free throw line. Others scoring for the Bucks were Gary Pierce 15, Al Doublerunner 10, Gene Bib Back 8, Tom Gone 6, Wally Selam 7, Jim Wabaunsee 4, and Darrel Eastman 2.

The Cal Condors earned the right to play for third and fourth place by beating Santa Clara 82-81, thus giving Santa Clara fifth place for the Consolation trophy. In that game Joe Hutt scored a total of 50 points with 19 field goals and one a three pointer and he was 11 out of 11 at the foul line. Team mate Phil Manatowa added 11, Wes Scott 10, Wes Hutt and Tray Fletcher each scored six apiece. Dave Cortez scored 25 points for the losers with eight field goals and nine foul shots, Vance Sundown added 15, Steve LeDesma 16, Leo Black Bull 12, John Mathias 7, and Ray Penola 2.

There were some pretty close games during the tourney that went into overtime. The host Warm Springs Magpies lost in overtime to the Yakima Bucks in their first game, the final score was the Bucks 94 and the Magpies 92. Johnny Lay led the Yakima Bucks in scoring with 37 points, Tom Gone 15,
