

Obtain diploma through classes

Adult Basic Education is offered throughout the College's district. It serves approximately 1000 students who are improving basic skills of reading, writing and math, completing an adult high school diploma, preparing for the GED test of high school equivalency or learning English as a second language.

Not only do the students gain the satisfaction of having reached a personal goal of enhanced skills or of completing a high school diploma, each student has new life options available. A number of students have selected full-time or part-time attendance in credit classes to earn a two-year college degree. The students from the ABE program have been successful in earning their degrees, some with the honors of scholarships and distinguished student awards.

The classes are offered in each community during the day as well as in the evening. The highly skilled, enthusiastic teacher, Nancy Jolstead, develops an individual study plan to meet the needs of each student. The students' efforts are enhanced with the aid of the dedicated volunteer tutors who provide additional opportunities for personal instruction.

A student is welcome to enroll in the class any time during the quarter since all instruction is based on individual needs. The skill building classes are free. The high school diploma classes cost $20 and the GED classes cost $10. Books for all the classes cost between $10-25.

The classes are held from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on Tuesday and Thursday, 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Monday and Thursday, and 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday. They are held at the COCC office at the Office of Training Services, 101 Wasco-Old Boys Dorm.
