

Financial Fitness:

It's a family affair

Making ends meet should not be the responsibility of just one family member. All family members spend money, therefore they should all learn the basics of money management.

Included in this special insert, provided by the Warm Springs OSU Extension Service, are various methods as to how to save, spend and account for your hard-earned money.

For further information on these and other subjects, call 553-1161, extension 238 or visit the office on the second floor of the old Administration Building.

The Extension Service provides equal access to all its activities and programs.

Insert contents—

Page 2:

Read information concerning family money matters. Learn the importance of a budget and net worth statement. Financial problems and their warning signals are given as well as the existence of equal credit opportunities for women.

Page 3:

Energy saving tips, as they apply to the home, are given. Learn how impulse buying can prove harmful to your budget. Careful consideration should be taken when buying new furniture. Also, information on new carpeting is given.

Page 4:

Car maintenance is essential for the extended life of your car. Also, when your car needs repair, you should be actively involved in the process. Learn the best time to sell your cattle and what to look for when buying a bull. Electric fences have the advantage over conventional barbed wire fences.

Warm Springs OSU Extension Service Staff:

Secretary
Program Aide
Extension Intern
Extension Agent
Extension Agent

Eraina Palmer
Joni David
Arlene Boileau
Mollie Marsh
Clay Penhollow