

25¢

OR COLL
E
75
.S68
v. 12
no. 25
Dec 4,
1987

001025
SERIALS SECTION
U OF O LIBRARY
EUGENE, OR 97403

U.S. Postage
Bulk Rate Permit No. 2
Warm Springs, OR 97761

Address Correction Requested

Spilyay Tymoo

News from the Warm Springs Indian Reservation

DECEMBER 4, 1987

P.O. BOX 870 WARM SPRINGS, OREGON 97761

VOL. 12 NO. 25

Coyote News in brief

Wapato named chairman
Columbia River Intertribal Fish Commission executive director Timonty Wapato has been named chairman of the Pacific Salmon Commission. Wapato will be working towards a more efficiently operating commission.

Page 2

Coordinator selected
A prevention/intervention coordinator for the 509-J School District has been selected to serve a variety of duties aimed at reducing student drop-out and assisting students with drug and alcohol problems. Former Madras High School coach and health instructor Bonnie Souers has been named.

Page 2

Photos displayed
Photos of Warm Springs' past are featured.

Page 3

Cattle disease widespread
Brucellosis is a costly disease affecting cattle, swine, sheep, goats, horses and man. It costs the cattle industry $100 million annually.

Page 5

Students recognized
Madras High School and Madras Jr. High honor roll students are noted. Students who attained a 3.00 grade point average or above are listed.

Page 6

Help offered to teens
A new Teen Parent program provides help for students who wish to finish school. Job training, support groups and childcare are provided as part of the program funded by Student Retention Initiative funds.

Page 7

Weather

NOV.	HIGH	LOW
18	51	26
19	49	26
20	47	30
21	52	36
22	54	29
23	49	28
24	48	37
25	48	30
26	41	20
27	39	24
28	36	22
29	36	26

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON LIBRARY
Received on: 12-09-87
Spilyay tymoo.

Mountain View Nursing Home resident Marion Biss makes fry bread for traditional meal Thursday, November 19.

Residents cook traditional dinner

Warm Springs tribal members staying at Mountain View Nursing Home in Madras had a wonderful time while preparing and sharing a traditional dinner November 19, according to nursing home activity director Dyan Shaver. Many of the tribal residents ate much more of the traditional meal, consisting of salmon, roots and fry bread, than they normally eat at other meals. Susan Moses, in particular, "ate four bowls of roots," says Shaver.

The roots were donated by a visitor to one of the residents and the nursing home provided flour and canned salmon. Shaver says she would like to see more traditional Indian meals prepared at the home. Requests have been made in the past for food donations of salmon and other traditional foods but those requests have not been answered, explained Shaver. Hopefully, she adds, that will change so the Warm Springs people can enjoy these meals more often. Residents of the nursing home have many activities available to them during the day, says Shaver. Some of the activities include devotions, old time music, crafts twice a week, baking once a week. Pre-school children and babies visit the nursing home and the "residents love it," says Shaver. Buff Elementary sixth grade readers visit twice a month and Madras Elementary second grade students have begun visits. Monthly birthday parties are held. During a council meeting once a month, residents are able to voice their opinions and concerns. A beauty shop, tended by volunteers, is open to residents several times a month.

Adult volunteers are greatly appreciated at the nursing home, emphasizes Shaver. "There a lot of areas in which we could use help." Many residents just need visitors, too.

Indian music is on the agenda once a week. "We need some tapes for those sessions," adds Shaver. The residents particularly like Warm Springs music.

Fry bread cook, Harold Greene, watches oil temperature.

Season closed on big game

The hunting season for large game animals on the reservation and ceded land is over for the 1987 season. The Tribal Natural Resources department would like all State Ceded and Reservation deer and elk tags returned to their office located behind the Old Administration Building. Deer season on the reservation is for enrolled members only.

The only hunting season open at this time is the Upland Bird Season which opened September 1 and will close December 31. Bag limit by species is as follows: grouse, three per day; quail, ten per day; pheasant, two per person, roosters only; chukars, ten per day; turkey, one per month. The bird season on the reservation is for enrolled members only.

If you have any questions concerning the reservation hunting seasons contact the Natural Resources department at 553-1161, ext. 233 or 234.

All migratory birds and water fowl geese, ducks, and doves are classified as migratory bird which are governed by the Migratory Bird Act and federal hunting regulations should be followed.

Annual Christmas Bazaar set for December 12

The twelfth annual Christmas Bazaar is on tap for December 12, 1987 at the Community Center, and is scheduled to get underway at 10:00 a.m. and run until 4:00 p.m.

There are crafts people coming from all parts of the state, even as far as from Portland, and from the Central Oregon area. There are people expected all over the Pacific Northwest and some from Arizona.

There will be thousands of articles to choose from for yourself or for Christmas gifts. There will be all kinds of food and soft drinks on hand for the shoppers. The annual event is getting larger each year.

Committee seeks candidates for pageant

The first day of winter is just around the corner and that means the Miss Warm Springs Pageant will be held shortly. The Miss Warm Springs committee is seeking young ladies who are enrolled members of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, 18-25 years of age, single without any dependents and never married and a resident of Warm Springs. The pageant will be held at the Agency Longhouse on Tuesday, December 29.

As Miss Warm Springs, candidates must be willing to represent the Tribe by traveling, being involved in other pageants, events intertribal business and social events to participate in public relation events as necessary. It is important that candidates be dedicated and willing to learn.

Candidates will be judged on appearance, poise, personality, a talent presentation, dancing abilities and interviews. Each girl will give a two to three minute talent presentation which can be either modern or traditional. She will also be asked to give a short talk on topics chosen by the judges.

Applications can be picked up from Anna Clements at the Culture and Heritage department located at the Community Center, Trudee Clements at Fire and Safety or Myrtle Adams at the Tribal Council office. Applications need to be turned in to the committee by Monday, December 28 before 5 p.m. If you have any questions contact any of the three ladies mentioned above at 553-1161.

Special events planned for the pageant will be a dinner held by outgoing Miss Warm Springs 1987, Sara Scott. Following the dinner, a give-away will be held. The evening events will start at 6 p.m.

The public is invited to attend to honor the 1987 Miss Warm Springs and to support the newly crowned Miss Warm Springs of 1988.

Christmas activity

Tree cutting permitted

In keeping with the spirit of Christmas, the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs have consented to the cutting of Christmas trees for Bureau of Indian Affairs and tribal employees.

The cutting is limited to one tree per family or church on designated tribal lands only. The designated areas are 1. the area of the Trout Lake Road at the powerline crossing and 2. along the Tenino Road (the paved road).

Trees should be cut away from the main road. Trees should be cut close to the ground, all live branches should be removed from the stump, no topping of trees or cutting of trees larger than 12 feet in height. Trees should not be cut that do not have another tree growing within 12 feet of the tree to be cut.

If you have any question contact the BIA Forestry department at 553-1121, ext. 416-417.

Power assistance funds cut

The good news for low income families has been that the cold weather had a late start this year. The bad news is that the Low Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP) will have a 30 percent cut in funds meaning the program will only run about a month and half, according to tribal welfare worker Olivia Kirk. She said the program at Warm Springs will receive $35,000.

Kirk stated that the program for the elderly and handicapped will start December 1, 1987 and that people eligible need to obtain the necessary documents to qualify. They will also need to bring in their computer printouts from Pacific Power and Light for yearly costs. For computer printouts call 475-6166 to Tammy or Brenda.

Appointments for senior citizens and handicapped people with tribal welfare are being scheduled for November 23, 1987.

In January, 1988, funds will be available for ONLY families with a child under six years of age. People will be served on "first come" basis. Kirk reminded people to have their paperwork ready before coming for appointments.

Appointments will be made for those people who have the necessary documents. If you have any questions contact Olivia at the Welfare office, 553-1161, ext. 291.

Budget finalized

Tribal Council drew to close their work on the 1988 operating budget Monday, November 30. The final budget is more than $410,000 less than the proposed budget posted October 1 and shows an approximate $15,000 reduction from the 1987 operating budget.

Three new positions proposed in the original budget were cut. The assistant juvenile coordinator, assistant prosecutor and accounting supervisor positions were all eliminated.

The workmen's compensation budget was reduced by $125,000. The culture and heritage department budget was reduced $118,820 thus eliminating any increases that were proposed. Mid-Oregon Indian Historical Society (MOIHS) sustained a $52,000 cut. The police department also had a $30,000 reduction. An across-the-board five-percent cut was made in all department travel expenses.