

Proud past reflected in photographs

The annual Hiawatha Pageant was an event in which the entire community participated. This photo has no year, but those in the action were: (seated, left to right) Wesley Smith, Jasper Tufti, Unknown, Unknown, Grant Waheneka, Paymiy Sidwalder, Unknown, Linton Winishut, Walter Wananawit and Ross Kalama, Sr. Those standing were Mac Quinn, Francis Thomas, Henry Kalama, Hilbert Williams, Francis Green, Charley McKinley, Frank Queahpama, Priest Unknown, Naomi Kalama, Isaac McKinley and Urban Brunoe.

This man has been identified as Ida McKinley's brother and the father of Ellen Squiemphen. His last name is Greeley.

These five young men were not all identified. However, second from right on the second step is O.B. Kalama. Henry Kalama is on the far right.

Tillman Holliquilla struck a handsome pose for a photographer in 1913.

This man, enjoying the sunny outdoors, was not identified.

Photos Courtesy of
Mid-Oregon Indian Historical Society from the
Ida McKinley Collection