Tournament set

Twelve championship satin jackets, first through fifth place team trophies and a sportsmanship trophy will be awarded at the 12-team double elimination scheduled for January 8 and 9, 1988 at the Toppenish, Washington Community Center.

The championship session is scheduled for January 10 at the Smartlowit Center.

Entry for the tournament is $150.00 per team. Deadline is January 2, 1988.

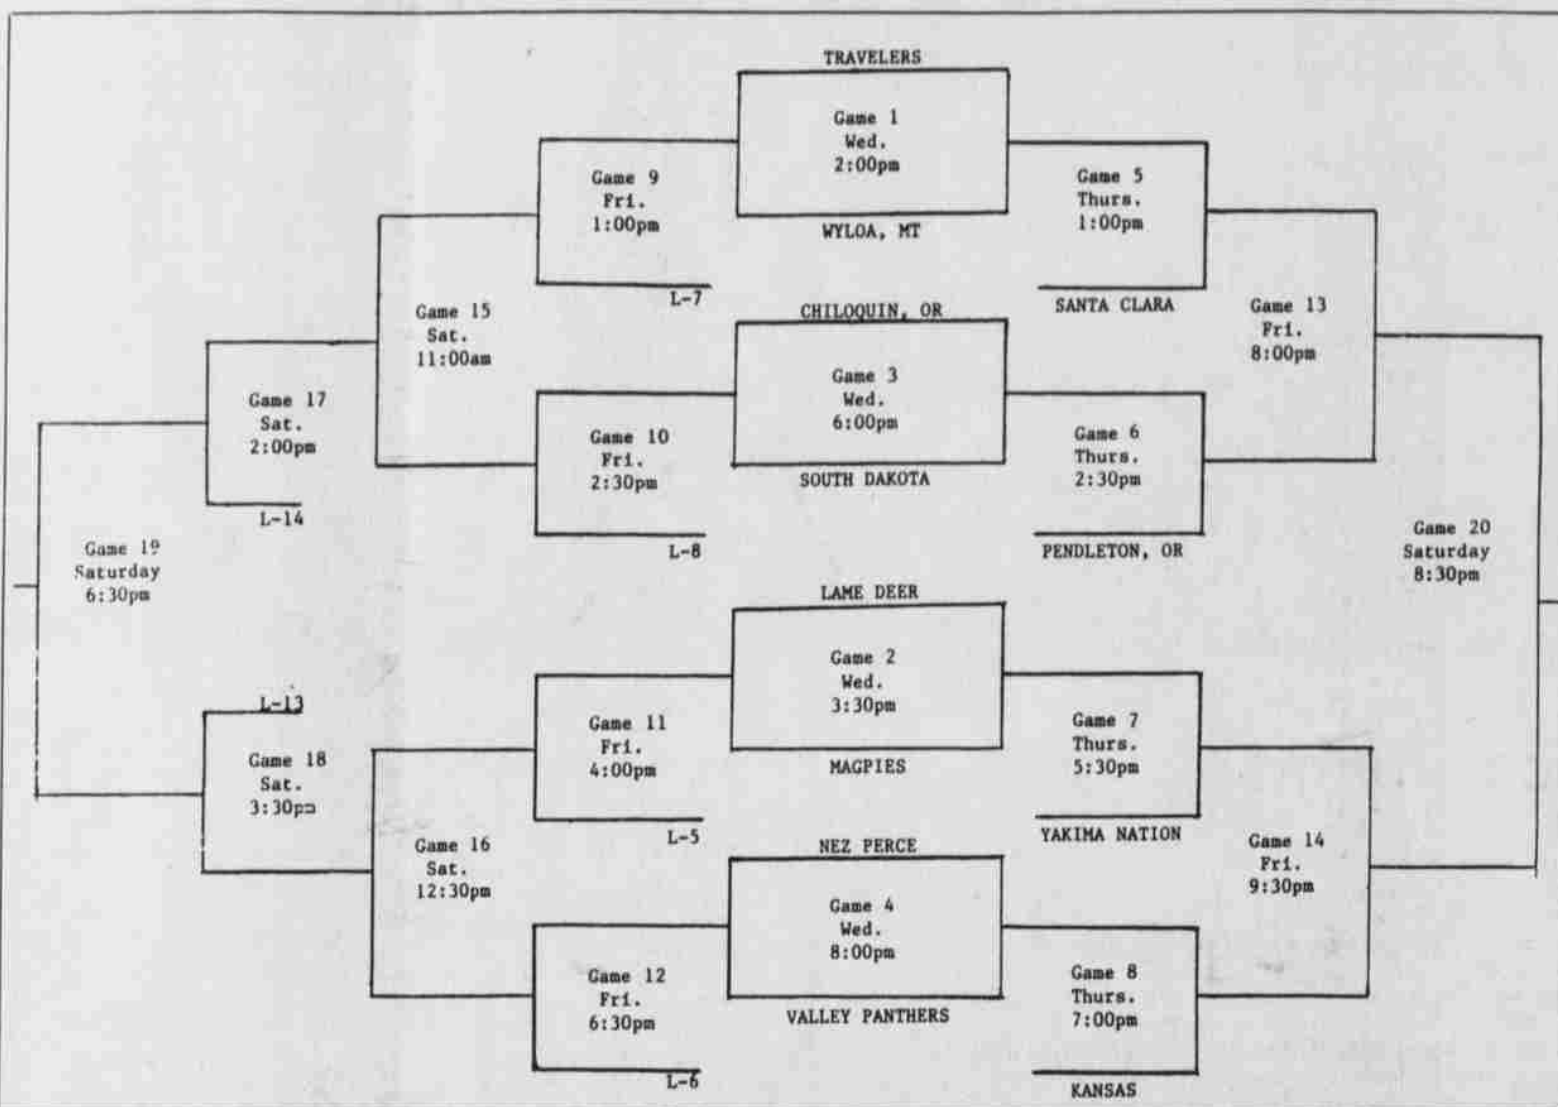

For more information contact Clyde Wallahee, 307 Mamachat Lane, Wapato, Washington 98951, telephone number (509) 865-5121, ext. 537 or Ken Tahkeal at (509) 877-3280.

Last years champions Lawrence, Kansas, will be on hand to defend their title which should prove to be very interesting as there will be some pretty good competition with the addition of some new teams such as S. Dakota, Lame Deer, Yakima Nation to boost the competition a bit providing they all show up. Last year there were some very good games and should be the same this year.

To run down on a few of the past winners, in 1985 it was UTETC of Bismark, North Dakota, 1984, it was South Dakota, 83, S. Dakota, Pendleton, 81 Ft. Peck, 80 Ft. Peck, 79 Ft. Peck, 78 Vermillion, 77 Colville Tribe, 76 Bismarck N. Dakota, 75 Davis, California. All those championship games were good games.

The championship game can be heard on KWSO with game time at 8:30 p.m., there will be pre-game interviews with various individuals who have worked each year making the Holiday Tournament as great as it is today.

Tickets are on sale by the tournament queen candidates who are Missy David, Yvonne Washington and Becky Hunt. The season tickets are going for $15.00, which includes admission to the championship game. The daily tickets are $3.00 and the championship game is $3.50. The queen candidates are out selling as many tickets as they can as the one who sells the most tickets will reign as the tournament queen.

Holiday Bowling tournament help appreciated

To the Editor,

Now that another Holiday Bowling tournament is over its time to say thanks for all the help, use of the Bowling Alley and to all those who participated.

First of all the tournament just wouldn't be such a success if it weren't for people like Cougar, Norene, Satch, Anna, Rudy, Margie, Sandra, Carolyn and the scorekeepers who were willing to sit through the tournament. Cougar didn't have to do too many corrections, but he did make some corrections to keep the bowlers from sandbagging their averages.

Second for the use of the Bowling Alley and their cooperation I thank Jim, Tim, Connie and the rest of the Pelton Lanes staff who spent Christmas weekend at the lanes.

The bowling tournament was moved up a week in order that the committee and bowlers just wouldn't have to decide on which event to take part in—basketball games or bowling! I do hope that this didn't offend anyone and so far I haven't heard of any complaints. The only ones I could think of now is that advertising might not have caught up to all of the hearty bowlers who travel to get into this tournament. It's my fault.

Surprising as it seems—we had people biting at the bit, money in hand and rip roaring and ready to bowl. Just off from the top of my head I'd like to congratulate some of the winners. John Wright for winning the Masters event then coming back Sunday to win the Holiday champ Roll-Off! Then while in the process he and Sandra Greene defended the mixed doubles title for the second year in a row. A few others who grunted, groaned and won were the likes of my partner Jeff Sanders in the Division II Holiday champ roll-off, another pair that humbly won their divisions in the Masters and holiday champ roll-off were Norene Greene and Sandra Greene in winning the Masters and holiday champ roll-off. We even had to turn down Fox in the mixed doubles for lack of a women bowler. Better luck next time. The final results should be ready by the next issue.

Thanks again,
Jerry Sampson

Watch these future stars

To the Editor,

The 2nd annual W.S. volunteers youth basketball tournament was held on December 18, 19, and 20. There were six teams participating in a backdoor bracket set up. I'd like to thank all sponsors for their donations, they were a real big help. I'd also like to thank the referees, bookkeepers, gate attendants, concessions, and my players for all their efforts in making this a successful event.

The results of the tournament were: champions, Warm Springs Renegades, congratulations Kanim Smith and crew; 2nd place to W.S. Volunteers, congratulations troops; 3rd place to White Swan, Washington, thanks for filling in at such a short notice; 4th place to W.S.C.C., you guys played pretty tough for having only five. The sportsmanship award went to Nisqually, Washington, whom by the way played with great sportsmanship. The Mr. Hustle award went to Frizi Runi-son. The MVP award went to a well deserving Ryan Sams. The tournament all-stars were: from the Renegades, Ryan Sams and Andy Stacona; from the Volunteers, David Reese and Frizi Runison; from White Swan, Joseph Skahan, and Shawn Scabybrobe; from the W.S.C.C., Macky Begay and William Suppah.

Walk yourself awake

When it's not even noon and you're nodding off at your desk, it could be more than fatigue that's got you down. Chances are all you need is a fresh air/fitness break. Escape the dry, suffocating atmosphere of the office at lunchtime by bundling up for a brisk walk around the block. Count on the crisp, cold air to startle your senses and give your complexion a healthy glow. Quick strides step up both your heart rate and your circulation, leaving you refreshed, revived and ready to get back to work.
