

Artifact collection features various items

A view of Warm Springs shows that our community has changed.

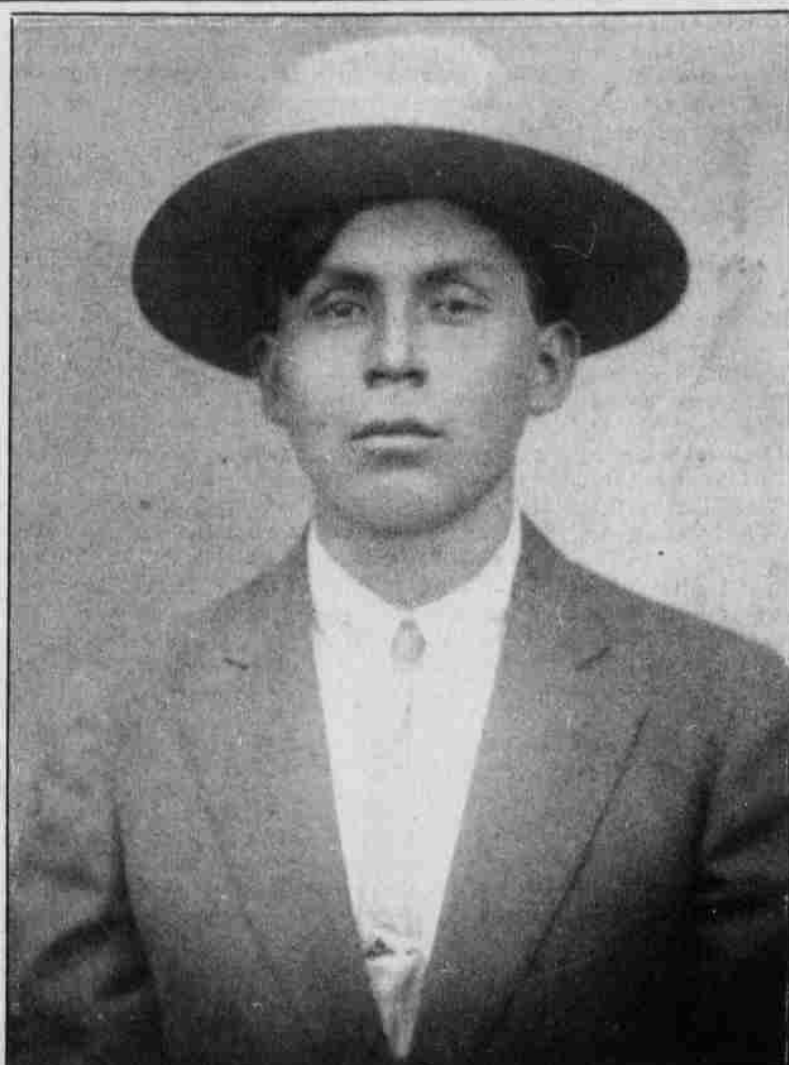

Sulul (Willie Greeley, Ellen Squemphen's father) and Issac McKinley, dressed in full regalia.

Grant Waheneka, as a young boy, with his father Jake Waheneka. They were camped near Mt. Jefferson.

Ancient hide tanning tools were made with bone or antler handles with chipped stone blades.

Sims Hollquilla.

Old-time Wasco and Warm Springs baby boards are part of MOIHS collection.

Front Page Photos:

Top photo: Alexander Tohet, right, with an older gentleman from Yakima.
Bottom photo: Warm-Up dance at Pi-Ume-Sha.