A tip off at the start of the 16 and under championship game between Warm Springs Renegades and White Swan, set a pace for both teams. White Swan took top honors with a final score of 60-52.

State tourney hopes slip away

The Buff girls have a couple of games left but a chance for a state berth are gone down the drain. It was the Baker Bulldogs who pulled the plug on the Buffs last Fri. night beating Madras here 45-41.

In order to get a trip to state they had to get by Baker, but visiting Baker made sure that didn't happen as they held on to nip the Buffs in a hard played game. Handy capped with lack of height the Buffs made a good showing despite the loss which many view as an upset by the Baker Bulldogs. It was just team determination on the part of the Baker to pull this one out.

At the end of the first quarter of play the game was all tied up at 7 apiece, and in that quarter Namenuk sank a three pointer to keep the Buffs in the game. In the second quarter the Bulldogs out scored the Buffs 16-9 and take a 23-16 half time lead.

Leading the way for the visiting Baker Bulldogs was Marie Dixon who scored a total of 13 points for the night, followed by Kathy Duncan with 12, Perry 5, Bloomer and Dewart each had four apiece, and Bell three to round out the scoring for Baker.

For the Buffs, Jenel Wiles had 12 points, Namenuk 11, Ralls and Snow 8 each and Christel Leonard 2, but Christel made a lot of good assists to the open player under the basket for an easy two. One of the big down falls for the Buffs was at the foul line which made a big difference in the point total as the Buffs could only get four out of 12 shots, where Christel Leonard was two of three and Namenuk was two of four. The Buffs held the lead going into the closing minutes of the game when Wiles fouled out. Ralls also fouled out late in the game and the Buffs went into a dead spot and couldn't score a point while Baker kept picking away until they gained the lead and held on to pull this one out for the win.

For the past several years the Buffs have been banging at the door for a state title and each year came away disappointed. This year the Madras White Buffaloes will not make the state tournament where in the past it seemed as though Madras was a fixture there.

Madras comes home with a victory

If it was action you were looking for you should have been at the Milwaukie High School gym in Portland on Sunday, February 20 for some fast action of youth basketball in the Portland Trail-blazer-Fred Meyer 8th graders tournament.

The Madras boys had their hands full with the Holy Redeemers of Portland, before winning the game 82-68. It was nip and tuck all the way and the lead changed hands from time to time as the Holy Redeemer put up a good team effort against a determined Madras team.

It was a battle between the big boys as Jason Tims displayed some outstanding talent for an eighth grader and scored a total of 47 points before fouling out late in the fourth quarter. The battle was between him and Scott Moses who also showed some fine ability at the game by blocking shots, getting rebounds and leading Madras in scoring with a total of 31 points. Not a bad day for him.

Others who contributed points for Madras were Ryan Boyle-14, Ryan Grote and Zeeman Smith—each 13, Tony Fuentes-6, Kyle King-4 and Alan Waldow-2.

Others scoring for Holy Redeemer were Jason Ferguson-8, Luke Stowell-6, Chris Kammerer-4, Aaron Shook-2, Brandon Anderson-2 and Chris Caddell-1.

On Sunday the boys from Madras travel back to Milwaukie for their second game which will get underway at 10:30 a.m. They will be up against the Knappa Hoops. The winner of that game will play again the same day at 6:00 p.m.

White Swan takes trophy

White Swan went up against the Warm Springs Renegades in the championship bout of the 16 and under tournament winning with a final score of 60-52. Eight teams from throughout the Northwest played in the three-day basketball tournament.

In a battle for the third and fourth the Nespelem, Washington beat the Warm Springs Vols leaving them in fourth.

Players named to the all-stars team were: Ryan Sams and Andy Stacona of the Renegades; Chaz Reveris and Doug Tia of White Swan; Stan Spencer and R.J. Moon Nespelem; Roy Spoonhunter and Tim Brown of White Swan; and Craig Tulee and Wayne Miller of the Warm Springs Vols.

Sidwalter Flats team were selected by the referees for the sportsman-ship trophy. Chaz Reveris was given the "most valuable player" award. Doug Tia was voted "Mr. Hustle," for the tournament.

Tourney to feature special events

The community is encouraged to get involved in the two-day, second annual basketball open tournament that begins Friday, February 26 at the Warm Springs Community Center. The tournament is sponsored by the Inter-Tribal Sports team.

Of special interest are two events that will test the ball-handling skills of basketball fans during halftime of the Madras High School JV boys and girls games at the Center. To be eligible you need only buy tickets for $1 each. If your name is drawn, you will be entitled to step up to the three-point line and let the ball fly. If you're successful from the three-point line, you will win one of two $50 prizes. If you sink the ball from the half-court on Saturday at noon, you'll win $100. If no one is successful, there will be free throws for $10 and other prizes.

Aherns and Oregon Embroidery are co-sponsors of the half-court contest. The Sidwalter Flat Rodeo Association and Macy's are sponsoring the three-point shots. Free-throw sponsors are Pietros, Bonanza, Tommy and JoAnn Smith and many others.

Tournament play will begin Friday at 8:00 p.m. immediately following the JV boy's game. The tourney will continue Saturday with the championship game scheduled to begin at 7:00 p.m. Six teams from Oregon, Washington and Nevada are scheduled to play.

Saturday will also feature concessions including a barbeque at which steaks, hamburgers and salmon will be offered. A car wash is also scheduled. You can have your car washed for $2.50 or your van spruced up for just $3. Each of these two events will be held if the weather cooperates.

There is no admission charge for the tourney. KWSI, 96.5 FM, will be present for the half-court shot and will give "On Board" stickers for the first 10 who get their cars washed. Proceeds will go to the Inter-Tribal Sports team.

Buff's to host Baker, Ontario

The basketball season is winding down to where every game is a must if there is any hope of a trip to the state tournament in Eugene for the White Buffaloes.

This Friday night the Buffs will meet the Baker Bulldogs for their second meeting of the year. In their first meeting at Baker, they were able to hold off the visiting Buffaloes for the win. This year the Buffs are lacking in experience and have just one returnee who saw varsity ball last year, that is Steve Cordill. Another senior who played only JV ball is Buster Stoddard.

In asking Coach Joe Blincoe about his chances for a state berth, he said, "Some teams have better records than we do." The boys will have to get right in there and play some exceptional ball this weekend, because there have been times when the boys have played super ball with the team loaded with juniors, sophomores and freshman. The games come one at a time so Friday the Buffs are gearing up to meet the Bulldogs.

On Saturday night the Ontario Tigers come to town and they are boasting an 8 win, one loss record and lead the league standings. Their only loss came from the hands of the Mac Hi pioneers. Blincoe said, "They (Mac Hi) could beat the Trailblazers in their home floor."

The following weekend the Mac Hi Pioneers will be here for their return game and there has to be a lot of "ifs" to make things happen for the Buffs to get a ticket to Mac Court in Eugene.
