Travelers place second at Hoopa

The Oregon Travelers went against Santa Clara in their first game of the 27th annual Invitational Hoopa basketball tournament, March 10-12. "In the first game we had an 'Iron five,' consisting of Chuck Fremont, Cyril Jim, Rich Wells, Sonny Harris and James Scott, stated coach-player Tony "Big Rat" Suppah. He went on to say that everyone had Santa Clara winning the game before it started.

With good team work, hustle and tough defense the Travelers pulled out an upsetting win with a final score of 108-98. Suppah related it was a game that gave the crowd their money's worth.

In the second game they went against Chico, California. "We jumped on them in the second and third quarter, going into the fourth we had a 20 point lead. Then with a lack of rebounding and being allowed one shot on offense we put them back in the game," stated Suppah. The Chico team with Art Hernandez took control of offense and the game went down to the wire with Chico having the ball. In the last 19 seconds of the game the Travelers called time out to set up a three-two pressing defense, not letting the guards get the ball inside to Hernandez, Tucker and Russell. Then with one second left in the game a desperate shot was taken and missed giving the Travelers another upset with a final score of Travelers-78 and Chico-76. "It gave us the win we needed to go into the finals against the Oklahoma Indians for the championship."

The Oklahoma Indians took a third place in the 1987 Nationals, a tournament which the Oregon Travelers won. This time the Oklahoma team was a lot stronger with the assistance of Steve Daney of Lawrence, Kansas. The Travelers lack in height so they put a full-court man-to-man press on them. The Indians quickly jumped out with a 12 point lead. The Travelers called for a time out to settle down and regain their composure. The Travelers came back to get rebounds and won quick outlets they were able to tie the game. From that time on the two teams went basket for basket for four quarters. The teams were tied at 14 different times. With two-and-a-half minutes left in the fourth quarter and a four point lead and 32 seconds left, the odds appeared to be in favor of the Travelers. With turnovers and a foul, it was enough to give the Indians a one-point lead during the final two seconds. The Indians took top honors with a final score of 111-110. Suppah said the Travelers had nothing to be ashamed of in losing to a team that had the experience and composure of the Indians.

Winning the tournament title also entitled the Indians to an all-expense trip to Hawaii for the players and their families.

The Travelers didn't walk away with just second place trophies, they have been invited to travel to Singapore with the Harlem Clowns in August of 1988. Suppah said the players who made the trip to Hoopa will be the team to tour with the Clowns. Team members are Chuck Fremont, James Scott, Sonny Harris, Rich Wells, Clifford Earl, Simon Kalama, Cyril Jim, Captain Ron Rons, and coach Tony "Big Rat" Suppah.

Suppah said the Travelers have been fortunate to have another successful season, thanks to the support of and faith of their sponsors. "We couldn't have done it without them. God bless them all."

Third place went to the Hoopa California Condors with Carson City, Nevada Nighthawks in fourth. The Travelers took the "Sportsmanship trophy." Ralph Dunn of Carson City was named "Mr. Hustle." The "high scorer in a single game" went to Steve Daney with 47 points.

Ken Taylor was selected to "Hall of Fame" Taylor plays for the L.A. Jayhawks. Steve Daney of Oklahoma Indians was selected as the "most valuable player."

Names to the all-star team were: Chuck Fremont and James Scott of the Travelers; Joe Hutt and Darryl Barker of the Hoopa Condors; Steve Daney, Rick Waters and Chuck Tippiconni of the Oklahoma Indians; Art Hernandez of Chico, California and Tiger Martinez and Shawn Shaw of the Carson City Nighthawks.

In the three point contest Steve Daney took first with 78 points, he won $78; Wesley Hutt, Oklahoma Indians had a total of 60 points to win second and $39 and Rick Waters, Oklahoma Indians had a total of 57 for third and $19.
