

Dancers, spectators gather to celebrate treaty

An unusual staff was an important and impressive part of this dancer's outfit.

Socializing is always a part of inter-tribal dances at Pi-Ume-Sha.

Miss Cello Wy'am wore a buckskin dress.

Temporary lodgings of all shapes were placed near the center of powwow activities.

An exhibition hoop dance presentation by Matthew Clements earned the young dancer a few dollars.

Little girls lined up to receive their winnings following the Friday evening competition.