White Buffaloes stomp Vale

The Buffaloes were still on the prowl after taking care of the Mac-Hi Pioneers and besides it was homecoming and the Vale Vikings were coming to town.

Everyone wants to win the homecoming game because that's where the whole gang comes to see the football game and the crowning of the homecoming queen. The Buffs scored in every quarter to take care of the Vale Viking team. Vale, who for years was known as the Beast from the east was no match for the hard charging Buffs. Well, at this point the entire G.O.L. is not saying "Harris who?" The tailback racked up a whole pile of yardage again, 190 as a matter of fact and scored four touchdowns besides.

His longest, a 55 yard run. While the defense was keeping in on Harris, Joel Martinez added 49 rushing yards.

The defensive unit did their part in holding the Vikings to low yardage. In the fourth quarter the Buffs turned the back up players loose and got some good experience in the game. The Homecoming game is always the best to win.

MHS White Buffaloes blast Honkers

The Buffs invaded the Skyline league and pounded the Lakeview Honkers 28-0. All the scaring came in the first two quarters of the game but that was good enough for the win.

The first score came by a pass from Aaron Schneider to Curt Cosgrove that covered 13 yards to pay dirt and a two point conversion from a Schneider pass to Jason Harris. A fumble recovery set up the second touchdown. As Harris punched over from a yard out, a run failed for 2 points. Another one yard by Harris and a pass for 2 points failed leaving the score 20-0 Madras. The third and final score came on a pass from Schneider to Todd Earnest and Todd Thawley ran in for two to round out the scoring for the Buffs as they led 28-0 at half time.

In the second half the Buffs were unable to punch anything together and were held to a mere 91 yards in total from 66 on the ground and 25 in the air.

The Buffs racked up a total 351 total yardage and were penalized 10 times for 80 yards. It was a good defensive game by the Buffs who wouldn't let go of any ground. They return to G.O.L. action this week traveling to Nyssa Friday night.

Football at Madras Jr. High gives students an opportunity to develop skills. During the football game between the White and Blue teams on October 5 players of the White team drove down the field for a first down. The game was won by the White team with a final score of 6-0.

300 game just a pin away

Of all the trials and tribulations a person faces, what can be more frustrating than to have eleven strikes in a row in bowling and on the last shot leave one pin standing to end up with just a 299 score.

Well, if you have never experienced this you should ask Austin Greene, the feeling of dispare after a moment of near triumph of getting a perfect 300 game. It was on the night of October 12, in regular league bowling action and in the third game when Greene started his string of strikes to what looked like a perfect game. A dream that goes through every bowlers mind, to have a perfect 300 game.

Greene said all during the game

he tried to keep calm and tried not to make a big deal out of it, but after the ninth frame there was some concern because the next three strikes would have to come back to back. His last shot sent the ball right into the pocket and the pins started flying every direction but when the dust settled there was one pin still standing. What a big let down, the pin wobbled a bit and looked as if it was falling but somehow kept standing. What a near miss.

Greene said that if he made that 300 game he was going to dedicate it to his dad Eugene Greene Sr., who was once a top bowler in the Warm Springs League.

Exercise part of lifestyle

Just as some people go to movies, Mollie Marsh, Oregon State University Extension agent in Warm Springs, exercises daily to the point that it has become an important part of her lifestyle. She started her exercise program 15 years ago and usually exercises daily.

Just what motivated her to begin exercising? Her mother had some serious heart problems. Mollie found that if she did not want to be at risk and face similar problems as her mother, an exercise program was necessary.

In the first few weeks she kept at it and after a short time Mollie discovered that she was feeling really good after she exercised. Feeling good was so great she decided she wanted to stay that way.

Exercising has helped her keep her stress level down. It gets her day off to a good start and makes her feel better about herself while at the same time keeping physically fit.

Her exercising has also helped her to maintain low blood pressure and low glucose and cholesterol levels plus maintain a low resting heart beat.

There have been times when she felt it would be easier to skip a session of exercising. When she feels that way she reminds herself of just how much better she feels after exercising. She also has a picture of a runner which has the message, "Not all medicine is meant to be taken internally."

Mollie and her husband, Frank, share a common interest in a number of activities including swimming, running, skiing and hiking.

It helps to keep her exercise program a part of her life. They often spend weekends in recreational activities.

Mollie says she would like to learn to do the butterfly swim stroke, receive training to become a water safety instructor, climb to the top of more mountains and learn to correctly race walk.

Mollie's words of wisdom for others are, "It may be hard to get started at first, but stick with it. You'll soon feel better and you will feel better about yourself."

Exerciser of the month for August is Mollie Marsh.
