White Buffaloes win Holiday Tournament

The White Buffaloes breezed past the Henley Hornets Friday night 95-65, in the first round action of the Madras Invitational Holiday basketball tournament. In the first game the Crook County Cowboys pounded Columbia of White Salmon, WA.

The White Buffaloes went right to work and jumped out to a 24-12 first quarter lead and by halftime the score was 46-28. At the end of the third quarter they ran the score up to 66-46. The Buffs kept up their pace to outscore the Hornets 27-19, in the final quarter to give them the 93-66 win.

Jeff Cordill led the Madras attack with a total of 19 points, while Remo Smith came in from the bench and contributed 18 points for the Buffs with his expert outside shooting getting a few three pointers. Jason Harris also came off the bench to add 11, Paul Williams 11, Aaron Schnider 8, Jesus Garcia 6, Casey McKinsey 5, and Curt Cosgrove 3.

Chad Wilder topped all scorers for the night with a total of 28 points before fouling out of the game. At times it appeared Wilder was the whole Henley team and what ever he put up went into the basket. Other scorers for Henley were Kruger 6, Burnette 6, Hankwitz 6, Blofsky 2, Feedback 4, Mise 4, Prescott 1.

On Saturday night Henley rolled past a young Columbia team from White Salmon, WA. Better watch out for the Columbia team in a year or two because they may be able to spell relief, "T-R-O-U-B-L-E," as they played a 6.5 freshman and a 6.4 Sophomore along with some other young players.

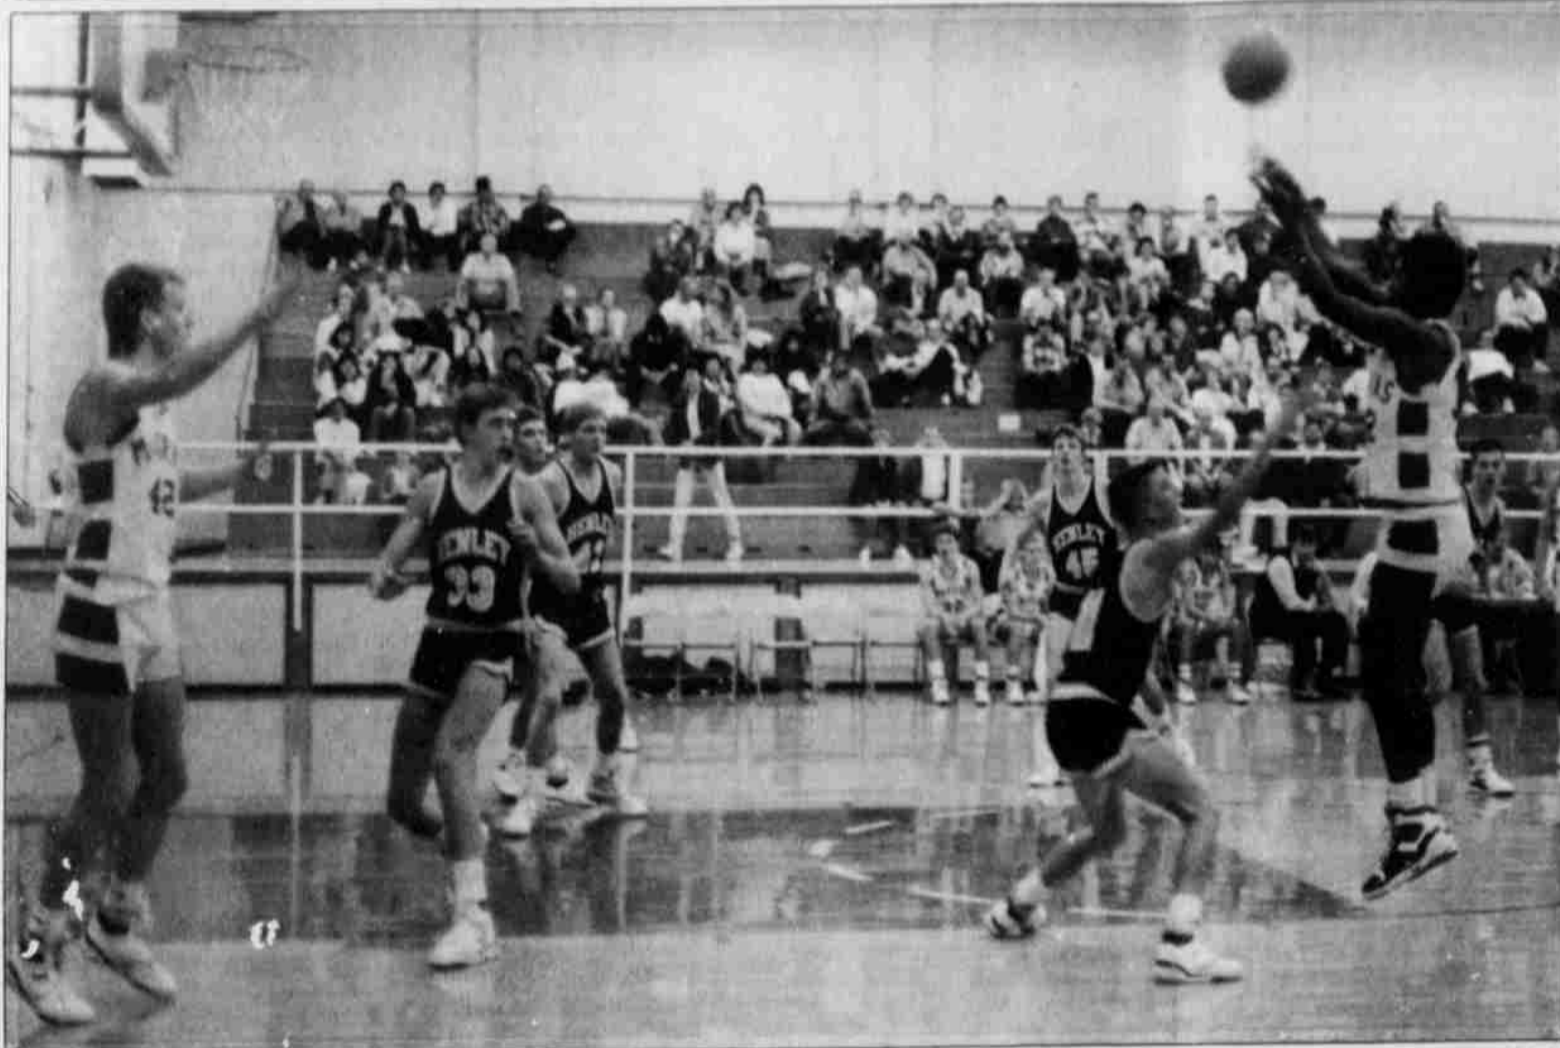

In the championship game between the Madras White Buffaloes and the Crook County Cowboys, saw the Buffaloes jump out to an early in the first quarter and led through out the game for the big win.

Jeff Cordill, had a whale of a game to top all scorers with 29 points. Schnider added 10, Eric Peterson 10, Paul Williams 14, Jason Harris 6, Remo Smith 2 to round out the scoring for the Buffs.

Doug Hild led the Cowboy attack with 24 points, Channess 20, Roberts 10, Hayes 9, Wilberg 4, and Hayden 2. The game turned out to be exciting and fast. The score was 39-37 at the half. The Buffs got back on track to out score the Cowboys 24-12 in the third quarter to build back a good lead. The Cowboys made a run at the Buffaloes in the final quarter out scoring Madras 21-16, but fell short under the pressure of the Buffs as they held on to get the win and the championship.

After the tourney there were all stars selected for outstanding play during the tournament. First selected was Jeff Cordill, from the Buffs, Doug Hild from Crook County, Paul Williams from Madras, and Chad Wilder from Henley and Eric Peterson from Madras.

This was a preview for the Madras fans to see the Buffs in action.

Running club to be formed

The Warm Springs Reservation Runners Club has been formed. Officers are: Oliver Kirk, Chairman; Francis Miller, Co-Chairman; Sandra Greene, Secretary; and Howard Patt, Treasurer.

The club is open to the public and is presently seeking new members. There is no age limit and it is not limited to just runners! Annual membership fees are $5.00 per person or $10.00 per family. Forms can be picked up from any of the club officers. Fees are to be paid to Howie Patt. Members are entitled to receive discounts on major runs sponsored by "W.S.R.R.," and they will receive entry forms and flyers on upcoming events and races. T-shirts with the club logo are in the making and will be sold only to club members. Sure to be a good one as it is designed by our own talented Oliver Kirk.

The Pi-Ume-Sha run in June is the first major project by the club. Any comments, etc. are welcome.

Beginning in January, the club will be sponsoring a run once a month as an incentive to any and everyone who has a desire to keep fit, or start a fitness program. At the end of the year, the club will be giving out awards. Possibilities are: "Most Improved," "Most runs entered," and "Last but not least," awards.

The first run is scheduled for January 7, 1989 at 11 a.m. starting at the Administration Building. The courses will be two miles and five miles. Entry fee is $3 per person. Entry forms can be picked up from club officers and should be paid to Sandra Greene.

The next meeting is scheduled for January 5, 1989, at 5:30 p.m., in conference room 3 of the Tribal Administration Building. Come and join us. We will be discussing the by-laws and the run on January 7th...see you there!
