The Madras White Buffalo girls varsity softball team have a five win, one loss record over Hermiston and Estacada and splitting with the Pendleton Bucks on their field. This weekend the Buffs travel to Gladstone for a double header.

Madras JV softball up-date

The junior varsity softball team of Madras Senior High School traveled to Pendleton to take on the Bucks, Saturday, March 25. The Buffs and pitchers Saphronia Coochise and Kristi Miller took the double header loss to the Pendleton Bucks. In the first game the score was 3 to 13 and the second game score was 6 to 20. Juanita Kalama received a hit in the first inning which got her a single. In the second inning Cory Spofford had a double as Rachel Cooke made a single hit in the fourth inning.

They then hosted Estacada Saturday April 1 in a double header. The Buffs and pitcher Saphronia Coochise were victorious in both. The Buffs held a lead of 14 to 3. The first hit came in the opening inning, as sixth batter Coochise hit a double and collected three RBIs. Four batters ahead of her were walked on and loaded the bases and scored one run prior to her hit. Juanita Kalama also had a double with one out in the second inning as she and the following batters scored making the score 8 to 1 at the completion of 2 innings. Six runs were then completed in the third inning, making it 14 to the one from Estacada. In the fifth inning they then scored two, making the final 14 to 3. The pitcher had three strike outs, one base on balls and five hits.

They also won the second game 5 to 3. The Buffs were put out 1 through 3 into the first two innings as they also did to their opponents in the first three. The Buffs scored a run in the third making it 1 to 0. In the fourth inning, Estacada came out with two runs as the Buffs completed another making it 2 to 2 at the completion of four innings. In the fifth, Estacada remained scoreless as the Buffs added three more to their score making it 5 to 2. In the sixth the Rangers tried to make a comeback but only rallied one run which wasn't enough to catch the Buffs. Coochise totaled four strike outs, four bases on balls and five hits.

WS hosts 2nd Annual Warrior's Tourney

The second annual Warriors Challenge Boys Basketball Tournament took place March 25 and 26 at the Warm Springs Community Center. This year's tournament was dedicated as a tribute to the grandmothers of our players. Three of the grandmothers, Margaret Suppah, Marena Miller and Kathleen Moses, were each presented a rose and a Warriors Fan Club Bag.

This year's participants were Lapwai Jr. Wildcats, Yakima Jets, Chiloquin Eagles, Simnasho Roadrunners, Columbia River Chinooks, Warm Springs Recreation and the two host teams, the Warriors and Warriors Pt. 2 "The Sequel".

Sam Wolfe of the Roadrunners was voted by the tournament rules committee to be "Mr. Inspiration." Lapwai's David Cunningham earned the "Most Valuable Player" award. The "Mr. Hotshot" sweatshirt went to Steve Watah of Chiloquin.

All-Star sweatshirts were presented to: Aaron Gould, Lapwai; Obedt Suppah, Brian Boltz, Simnasho; Chet Van Pelt, Lamar Jackson, Warriors; Derrick Hatcher, Chiloquin; Silas Poitra, "The Sequel"; D. Wahsise, Yakima; Jason Thomas, WS Rec.; Rueben Henry, Chinooks.

The "Atta-Boy" awards went to Claude Smith, III, Warriors; Shane Henry, Chinooks; David Morrell, W.S. Rec.; Chips Kalama, "The Sequel"; Cory Stwyer, Yakima.

The Marine team consisted of Marlan "Mean Man" Miller, "The Sequel"; Ricky Cunningham, Lapwai; Macklin Kalama, Chinooks; William "Schnozz" Nappier, W.S. Rec.; Keegan Riddle, Chiloquin.

The Sportsmanship award and T-Shirts were presented to the Columbia River Chinooks.

Lapwai beat Simnasho for the championship sweatshirts while the Warriors took third and Chiloquin finished in fourth place. Sweatshirts were presented to Jay Suppah, Joyce Suppah and Whitney Miller from the host teams. The game ball was presented to the Warriors' coach, Enos Herkshan.

Planning has begun for the third annual Warriors Challenge which will be a 14 and under tournament held in the spring of 1990.

WS Reservation Runners plan May 12 Say No run

The Warm Springs Reservation Runners are currently planning, with Warm Springs Elementary and the Alcohol/Drug Program, the "Just Say No Run" on May 12. There will be a spaghetti feed on April 11 at the Warm Springs Elementary cafeteria, beginning at 5 p.m. or so. Cost will be $3.50 per adult plate and $1.50 per child plate. Proceeds will go to the Warm Springs Elementary School kids' kite making and T-shirt making projects in preparation for the Just Say No run.

We are still selling raffle tickets for Stan Kneeland's trip to the Boston Marathon. He will be leaving April 13. The drawing will be held on April 11 during the Spaghetti feed.

The club is also planning the Pi-Ume-Sha run on June 24. T-shirts are in the making for the run, divisions have been decided and awards will be given. Duties will be assigned later. We hope that we can get input from people on what can be done to make the run a success. Call or write to any of the club officers with your suggestions and comments.

The club is still seeking members. Contact any of the club officers for applications. Officers are Oliver Kirk, Francelia Miller, Val Squiempfen, Sandra Greene and Normandie Phelps.

Northwest Road Runners national champs—6' and under

The National Championship N.I.A.A. sixfoot and under basketball tournament was held here in Warm Springs, March 29, 30, 31 and April 1, 1989, where the Roadrunners emerged the champions.

The Roadrunners got the jump on the Yakima Bucks right from the start and led throughout the game and in the fourth quarter they coasted to a 142-112 victory and the National Title.

The end of the first quarter NWRR went ahead 26-21, as Chuck Freemont popped in three two-pointers and one three-point shot for nine points, Seymour Rueben added 8, Bob Main 4, Ryan "Smitty" Smith 3, and Jack McCormick 2. Jim Wabonsee scored 9 points for the Bucks as he also had a 3-point basket. Bud Herrera got 7, Erwin ScabbyRobe 3, and Gary Pierce 2. In the second quarter Dion Smith cut lose on a 14 point scoring spree, Chuck Freemont added 8 points before fouling out in the second quarter, Main 7, Smitty 6, McCormick 5, Reuben 4, as the NWRR team scored 44 points and led 70-52 at half time. D. Smith and J. McCormick led the NWRR scoring in the 3rd quarter with 8 points apiece, Smitty 5, Larry Scott 4, Main and Chaz Mitchell each 2 apiece as they racked up 29 points. The Bucks were led by Whitefoot with 11, Wabonsee 9, Shawn Van Pelt 2.

In the fourth and final quarter Seymour Rueben scored 17, Scott 8, Main 6, Mitchell 5, Smitty 3, Big Rat 2 and J. McCormick 1, as they burned the nets for 43 points in the 4th quarter. Bud Herrera poured in 18, Wabonsee 7, Pierce 4, E. ScabbyRobe 2, Chief Sanchez 2, J. Scabby Robe 2 for the Bucks who scored 38 points in the final quarter but that was far below what they needed to overtake the NWRR team.

There were no lead changes or ties during the game as the Roadrunners were never in any serious trouble during the game. For the Buck fans it was a long night, but for the Roadrunner fans it was bright and colorful. This is Big Rat's second National Championship team. His first one came in Oklahoma City, a couple of years ago.

This was a good tournament where the competition was good in the final stages of the tournament. There were some no-shows that could have made the tourney more interesting if they had showed up.

During every tournament there are the coaches who select a tournament team of players who show outstanding performances during the tournament. This year the tourney all star team consisted of: (1) Tim Henry, Stone Child College; (2) Russell Edwards, LaConnor, Wa.; (3) Shawn Shaw, Owyhee, Nev.; (4) Clayton Highwolf, Pine Ridge, S.D.; (5) Chuck Freemont, NW Roadrunners; (6) Max Mitchell, WS Magpies; (7) Jay Keyes, LaConnor; (8) Jay Hawk, Stone Child College; (9) Jim Wabonsee, Yakima Bucks; (10) Bud Herrera, Yakima Bucks; (11) Jamie Henry WS Magpies; (12) Dion Smith, NWRR. Seymour Rueben was voted the Most Valuable player of the tourney; Gary Pierce was awarded Mr Hustle; and the sportsmanship trophy went to Rocky Boy, Montana.

The final standings were NWRR 1st; Yakima Bucks 2nd; WS Magpies 3rd; Stonechild College 4th; Belcourt, S.D. 4th; and LaConnor, Wa. 5th.
