SPORTS

The Warm Springs Braves play in minor league game against Ron McDonald's Chevrolet team of Madras on their field. Lead-off batter Jonas Miller is pictured. The Braves went on to win the game 13-8.

Baseball is in full swing now and if you want to see some action go down to the ball fields behind the community Center in the evenings. That's where it's all happening.

Slow-Pitch tourney June 23-25

The Warm Springs Athletic Association is sponsoring a Pi-Ume-Sha slow pitch softball tournament here starting June 23 and continuing until June 25, 1989. The place is at the Community Center fields.

This will be a 16-team, men's and a 16team women's team double elimination turney. Deadline for entry is June 16. Your cooperation will be appreciated, so that brackets can be made in advance. The first 16 teams for both men and women to pay entry will be entered. Awards: first place, windbreakers; second place, sweatshirts; third through fifth, t-shirts. There will be 12 all-stars selected as well as a most valuable player, best infielder, best outfielder and sportsmanship.

The entry fee is $150 per team. Make checks and/or money orders payable to: Warm Springs Athletic Association. Tournament director is Satch Miller, PO Box 445, Warm Springs, Oregon 97761. There are rules set available upon arrival.

Pi-Ume-Sha Rodeo June 24-25

The Pi-Ume-Sha Days 1989 open rodeo is set for Saturday and Sunday, June 24 and 25 at the Warm Springs Rodeo arena.

Featured will be the six major rodeo events; the bareback, saddle bronc, bull riding, calf roping, team roping and the senior barrel race with all entry fees of $40 and a purse of $200. Added attractions will be the wild horse race with the entry fee of $90 per team with no limit of entries. Also, there will be junior barrel race and calf riding with an entry fee of $10 in each
