Other events during the rodeo and powwow are on August 25, a barbecue from 4 to 6 p.m.; Miss Klamath pageant at 7 p.m. and a warm-up powwow starting at 8 p.m.

On August 27, a cowboy breakfast will be held at 8 a.m. Church services will begin at 10 a.m. Another barbecue will be held from 4 to 6 p.m. and a competitive powwow will start at 6:30 p.m. Concessions and arts and crafts will also be on hand.

Awards for the rodeo events will include for the All-Around Champion a jacket and spurs. All event winners will receive buckles and the special event winners will receive jackets. The Klamath Tribe invites everyone to this annual event.

The action was hot and heavy during the men's tournament last weekend. The Reservation Suns were victorious in their bid for the championship.

Visiting teams take tournaments

The annual slow-pitch softball tournament held in conjunction with Pi-Ume-Sha Treaty Days was held June 23 to 25. There was both a womens and a mens bracket.

The champion of the womens division were the Northwest Swingers. Second place went to the Yellow Jackets, third to the Bravettes, while Lapwai received fourth place. Sportsmanship went to the Pendleton Smokers. All stars for the Warm Springs players include June and Julian Smith of the Bravettes and Anita Bryant from Guerin Logging.

In the men's division, the Reservation Suns took the championship. The Pendleton Minute Men placed second. Lapwai was third, while fourth was awarded to Taholah. Sportsmanship went to the White Swan Buckskins. No all stars were given to Warm Springs players.

National baseball tourney set

The first annual All-Indian, 13-year-old and under national baseball tournament will be held August 4, 5 and 6, 1989 on the Wapato, Washington fields. All coaches and managers are urged to sign up.

This will be a true double elimination tournament. The only rule is that pitchers must be changed after 12 innings. Seven teams are needed as soon as possible for the tourney. Call and leave phone number and name of team.

The awards will include 15 championship jackets. Second place winners will receive polo shirts. Third and fourth place winners will receive T-shirts. There will be 15 sportsmanship trophies and T-shirts awarded. There will be 10 all-star jackets (lined) awarded. One MVP jacket, one jacket for the most home runs and one lined jacket for the best catcher will also be awarded.

The entry fee is $150 per team. Deadline is July 31, 1989. Organizers urge teams to get their fee in as soon as possible to pay for awards. Money orders only. Make money orders payable to Mark J. Timentwa, PO Box 77, Mallott, Washington 98829. For more information call (509) 826-4100 during the day or (509) 826-2561 after 6 p.m.

Easter Seals softball marathon set

by Elizabeth Cartney

On Saturday, August 5 beginning at noon, the sixth annual Softball Marathon will be held to raise money for Easter Seals. All games will be at Skylane Park in Bend.

Every team will be given three hours of playing softball against other teams. Everyone will receive free baseball visors, and if your team can make $600 or more, team members all win jerseys too. And for teams that can raise $1,250 or more, windbreakers and jerseys will be awarded. Members of the team that raise the most money will go on a rafting trip down the Deschutes. The rafting trip is sponsored by Rapid River Rafters.

Total registration is $200, $50 of which is a deposit to assure a playing slot. Teams are open to being co-ed, men, women, and even league. Registration deadline is July 21.

For more information, call the Easter Seals office at 389-8998.

Cascade Cycling Classic due

The tenth annual Cascade Cycling Classic, sponsored by Central Oregon Community College, provides spectators with the opportunity to view some of the best professional and amateur cyclists in the world today.

Volunteers play an important part in the success of each Cascade Cycling Classic. This year race organizers need volunteer course marshals. Those who can provide housing for riders during the five-day event are also needed.

A meeting for volunteers will be held Wednesday, July 5 at 7 p.m. in the Grandview Cafeteria on the COCC campus. If you can help or need more information about volunteering, please call Sandy Green at 388-0064.

Endurance Race results told

The annual Endurance Race was held Saturday, June 24. Following are the results of that gruelling race.

In the senior division, Joyce Suppah crossed the finish line first. Coming in second was Jerry Ford, Delvis Health came in third while Eydie Switzer and Whitney Miller came in fourth and fifth respectively.

Flint Scott was first to cross the line in the junior division of the race. Second was Marty Spino, third was Charlyne Spino, Evans Spino, Jr. was fourth while Ryan Florendo was fifth.

The Tribal Council office, organizers of the race, are already looking forward to next year's run. They are tentatively planning a "stick horse" race. In addition, the Gordon Scott family has already donated a yearling colt for the first place winner in the senior division.
