

Photos offer glimpse of not-so-distant past

Educational Resource specialist Sharon teaches language instructional methods as Indian language is introduced in Head Start classrooms.

Ken Smith (right) was appointed chief executive officer January 25. Larry Calica worked closely with Smith during the transition.

Huckleberries were abundant at the annual Huckleberry Feast held at HeHe.

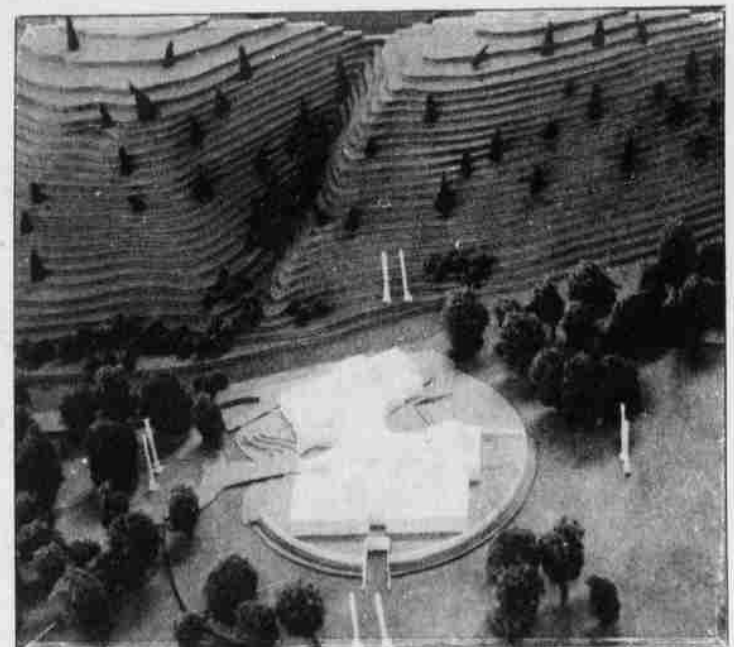

The Full Gospel Church closed its doors after the building was condemned.

Stan Kneeland qualified for the Boston Marathon in April. He placed 901 out of 7,000 runners.

Spilyay Tymoo file photos

MOIHS board of directors approved the plans for the new tribal museum.

Olney Patt, Sr. was presented a status coat for his 30 years of service on Tribal Council.

Members of Tribal Council and WSFPI management broke the ground April 28 for the new small log mill.