The Burn's Hilanders came into town Friday night and surprised the Madras White Buffaloes by eking out a 51-50 win over the No. 3 rated team in the state, according to the latest polls at that time.

After jumping out to a 7-0 lead at the start of what appeared might be a one-sided game, all of a sudden the lid closed on the Buff basket and it looked like they couldn't even buy a basket. When the first quarter ended, Burns edged up trailing by one point, 7-6.

In the second quarter the Hilanders out-scored the Buffs and went into the locker room at intermission, leading by one point, 25-24.

In the third quarter the Hilanders kept the heat on the Buffs and out-scored them 9-3. Going into the fourth and final period the Buffs made a game effort to overtake the Hilanders but the ball would not fall through the hoop as the final buzzer sounded giving the Hilanders and one point victory over the Buffs.
