it in the bus barn until Juniper Recyclers comes for it. day morning SMILE students collect the recyclable paper and store "It's important for the kids to know about recycling," says MJH science teacher and SMILE advisor David Vick. "They have to decide," whether or not to recycle. Smile student Nathan Dexter points out that the bare spots in the forested areas of the Cascade Mountains might be half as many if people recycled. He also says that spotted owls and other animals could be saved with lessening use of the nation's resources. He, like other SMILE students, feel recycling can help.

Energy assistance flash

Rumors have been floating around the reservation, saying the Low Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP) is running out of money and will soon end. This is untrue. LIEAP still has money to help eligible applicants pay their heating bill, on a one-time basis. Please call Jeff Cohen, Coordinator of Low Income Services, at 553-3422, to see if you are eligible and to make an appointment.
