Olympia Hawks win Little Britches tourney

by Tony "Big Rat" Suppah
Olympia, Washington Hawks placed first at the Simnasho Roadrunners Lil Britches, Say No To Drugs Tourney.

Regardless of the outcome, they were all winners this weekend. Just to take the effort to get involved, is a fete in itself. It's the sense of belonging to some group or activity that seems to be important to our children. Getting the support from the parent really helps out, knowing you're there makes them try harder at whatever they're trying to accomplish or competing in.

I was amazed on the competitive aspects of the teams. The competition was tough and a lot of fun. The turnout Saturday and Sunday was great for the kids. Even though Lincoln's Powwow was going on the people who were able to attend enjoyed the tournament. The kids all had a good time and that was the important thing on having this tournament: giving them something to look forward to each year.

All teams came in through, ready to play. But Olympia Hawks had a very outstanding team with a lot of hustle, with both tough offense and defensive play in the tournament.

With two outstanding girls, Chewey McCloud who made "All-star," and Jill McCloud who made "All-star" and "MVP" of the tournement. They also had Stephen Sutterliet, "All-star" and Kevin Qube who got "Mr. Hustle" of the tournament. Simnasho We Baad, had to come through the back door by defeating Eagle Point 29-23, squeezing by Chiloquin 19-18 in the last seven seconds, for Chiloquin beat them in the first round; then going down in the finals against Olympia 32-27.

Both teams played hard, not letting up on each other once, with Olympia coming out on top victorious, as champions of the tournament. I'd like to say thanks a lot to those sponsors who were able to donate toward the awards, especially being near tax time. Without you there couldn't have been a successful tournament. God bless you all. It's people like you that make this possible. The same goes to all the Madras businesses who donated prizes for the half-court shots. Thanks for caring, the kids and parents all are grateful.

The response of the teams was great for the first annual tournament. We're looking for more teams at next years second annual.

Olympia Hawks roster consisted of: Kevin Qube, Steven Sutterliet, Daniel Blackateer, Jill McCloud, Chewey McCloud, Robin Lanoir, Joey Wallace, Ryan Sinclair and coach Ben Sutterliet. Congratulations to this fantastic team. Wish them the best of luck in the remaining and future seasons for it take a lot of time and work to run or coach a team. The same goes for all the participating teams.

God bless all those individuals who take the time to work with the kids in whatever activity they get involved in. I'm thankful to the parents of our teams for their support. An Honor Song was sung on behalf of our most important resource of the reservation, the kids in this world of ours. Also to the elders for all their knowledge being passed on.

The "Simnasho We Baad" roster consisted of: Lil Bull Owl Suppah, Israel Scott, Felix George, Shelton Kentura, Jonathan Klos, Jonas Miller, Glendon Smith, Clarence Bryant, Nathan Williams, Corey Phifer, and coach Big Rat Suppah.

The Simnasho Roadrunners host team consisted of: Tyrone Lewis, Julia Rowland, Julio Colazo, Alonzo Colazo, Ty Eaglespeaker, Melissa James, Jessie Gilbert, Lei Calica, Clavin Herrera, Phillip Squiemphen, and coach Obedt Suppah.

A special thanks to all our referees, bookkeepers, clock operators. You were great, couldn't of done it without you!

16 and under tournament—

Running Rebels and Renegades champs

"Sports Talk" by Sid Miller

In the Sixteen-Year-Old and Younger Basketball Tournament which was held in the Community Center March 9, 10 and 11, the Running Lady Rebels topped the Fort Hall C & T's in the championship.

The Running Rebels jumped right out into a fast start and never looked back. They were in no trouble all throughout the game.

Team members were Captain Laura Sahme, Shirley Allen, Becky Dodson, Michelle Simmelink, Kelli Kronberger, Dian Haslip and Kamie Wahneeta.

The winners received satin jackets and the all-stars received T-shirts. Other teams participating in the tourney were: Warm Springs Recreation; Oregon Traveler; Fort Hall C & T's; Roadrunners of White Swan, Washington; Toppish, Washington; and the Warm Springs Beus.

Renegades 83 Sidwalter Scouts 82

The championship game turned out to be a real barn-burner as both teams battled right down to the final buzzer with the Renegades clinging onto a one point win over the determined Sidwalter Scouts team.

Kanim Smith and Ryan Sam sure did a good job on pushing their team to the championship for the 16-Year-Old and Under Tournament. Both teams gave it all they had which turned out to be a real crowd please right down to the end. The official results were not available at press time, just that the Renegades were the winners over the tough Sidwalter Scout team and held on for the championship.

Road Runners run to second place

by Tony "Big Rat" Suppah

The Simnasho Roadrunners placed as runner-up in the Lacey-Olympia, Washington Youth Tournament.

Our gratitude as a team goes out to Mr. Sid Miller and staff of the Spilyay Tymoo for their support and sponsorship to this tournament. May He above watch over and guide you always. This tournament was held at Seuavin Island, February 23 to 25, 1990 near Olympia, Washington.

The upcoming talent was very tough. Teams who made it to the finals earned their way through some tough competition. Except for one incident, this was a great tournament. Everyone enjoyed themselves, and made some new acquaintances. Looking forward to seeing each other again in the upcoming tournaments for some cases, a rematch.

There were teams I never heard of who made a very good showing of themselves. We were fortunate to get a team together, being notified the day before the tourney started up. We're grateful to the tourney director, Mr. Benny Sutterliet, for inviting us, and we're looking forward to next year's tourney. We started out playing the host team, the Olympia Hawks. Both teams gave all they had and we were fortunate to come out on top with a 31-12 win. Our second game was a very physical and tough game in the first half, until we settled down and started playing ball.

They, the team, was being kidded around because there were girls, which gave them incentive to try harder. We played tough defense and managed another win 22-15 over the Yakima nation Cougars.

Our third game against the Flaming Bulls of White Swan, Washington, we were not match for. They were very tough offensively and defensively. We tried everything and were defeated 32-18, sending us through the back door in the loser's bracket.

We met up again with the Yakima Nation Cougars. They came out burning, prepared for us. This game Cougars. They went down to the wire, with anyone the victor. The game was very intense, physically, with some tempers flaring, but the team hung in there to the end with a 30-27 victory in this semi-final game.

Sending us back into the championship, against White Swan again, we gave it all we had but was not strong enough. Going down in defeat 37-20 gave us runner-up in the tourney.

The team roster consisted of Lil Bull Owl Suppah, Little Fawn Suppah, Jake Suppah, Roberta Calica, Raymond Scott, Makali Lamar, Katern Lamar, Trish Hurley, bookkeepers and managers Leif-Obedt Suppah.

I felt our team made a very good showing of themselves, being that the majority of the team consisted of girls. Every game was tough, for physically they were no match, but with good teamwork defensively, offensively, with some strong rebounding, got them to the finals. They have nothing to feel bad about. They did a fantastic job.

Flaming Bulls of White Swan took the champion trophy; Roadrunners placed as runner-up; Yakima Nation Cougars placed third; and, Chinooks of Warm Springs came in fourth.

The sportsmanship award went to Squaxin #2 of Squaxin Island, Washington. Most Valuable Player was Ryan Adams of the Flaming Bulls.

All-stars included: Jolene Peters, Squaxin Island #2, Jessie Kalama,

Local bowler leads singles in Eagles Tourney

Ray Shike Jr. rolled a 299 game this past weekend in the Eagles Bowling Tournament which was held in Toledo, Oregon, March 17 and 18.

It was a near perfect game. In his last shot one pin wouldn't fall. This is the highest game ever bowled in the Eagles tournament. Shike Jr., ended up with a 766 series and at present time is leading the singles.
