

Students attend Northwest Indian Youth Conference

Six Madras High School and Alternative Education students attended the Fifteenth Annual Northwest Youth Conference, April

1-4, in Spokane, Washington. Students attended workshops centered on the conference theme, "We challenge our youth to become warriors, nurturers, scholars and community activists."

Alyssa Macy, Becky Soliz, Lorene Wainanwit, Leslie Cochran and Gerald Sampson from MHS and Alternative Education student Frank Kalama participated in the conference along with 500 other students from the Northwest. Seminars included: Health Careers; Self-esteem; Medicine Wheel; Recovery for Native American Youth; Spirituality, Indian Songs and Indian Dancing; and, Indian Youth Can Make a Difference.

Students were particularly impressed with keynote speakers Andy Chelsea from Alkalai Lake, British Columbia and motivational speaker Howard Rainer, says faculty advisor Rob Hastings who attended the conference with the youth. Roberta Danzuka, chairperson for Title V, Part A Parent Committee accompanied the students as chaperone. The students were funded by the Committee.

One activity of the conference which resulted in the students bringing home a third place trophy was designing a banner to represent the group of students. Conference participants with the assistance of MHS student Masami Danzuka, who attended the conference last year, constructed a banner with an Indian motif.

Hastings notes, too, that Becky Soliz and Alyssa Macy participated on a Lapwai, Idaho basketball team during the conference. The team finished second in the tournament.

Festival brings cultures together

The 1990 census will confirm that the face of this nation is changing. More and more, our neighbors, schoolmates, and co-workers will share different cultures.

The Festival of Color in Central Oregon is a celebration of the many world cultures that build and strengthen America. From April 30 through May 5, 1990 the Second Annual Festival of Color presents a full week of activity. Films, lectures, storytelling, music and dance, arts and crafts, and foods from around the globe are featured to promote social awareness in Central Oregon.

"It's a way for us to come together and learn to enjoy the benefits of other cultures right here in Central Oregon," says Albert Arguello, a recreation manager for the Deschutes National Forest and one of the founders of the Festival of Color. The Forest Service Central Oregon Community College, COCC students, and the Bend Downtowners are the primary sponsors of the Festival of Color. Bend LaPine Schools and the Central Oregon Dance Club also provide key support for the festival.

Lectures, films, and music are scheduled through the week beginning Monday with a slide/lecture presentation on Nepal by Naomi Sherpa. Friday, May 4 is family night festival of stories and music at the Pilot Butte Junior High School Auditorium. Storyteller Susan Strauss and the Carmen Marimba Band are featured in an evening presentation that starts at 7:30 p.m.

May 5, the festival on Minnesota street begins at noon with music, food, and crafts throughout the day. The evening festival party opens at 8:00 p.m. in the Bend Elks lodge. The dance concert opens with the Lora Chiorah-Dye and the Sukatai Marimba Dance Ensemble. The steel pan sounds of the Caribbean Superstars complete the evening celebration. Tickets for this event are $10 general admission. There will be a no-host bar.

For more information call 385-5505.

Minorities wanted for social work

Employment opportunities are available for social workers in Region 2, Dept. of Social & Health Services Division of Economic & Medical Field Services. Ethnic minorities and people with bilingual skills in English and Spanish are encouraged to apply.

Annual salary range for Social Worker 2 is $24,120-$30,504. Minimum Qualifications are a B.A. in social work or related field plus four years' social service experience or 18 months as a Social Worker I (in Washington State).

WSE Art Fair set

The Warm Springs Elementary will hold their 3rd Annual Art Fair May 10th from 1:00 to 6:00 in the school gym.

There will be lemonade and cookies for sale.

Also planned is a cake walk, costing 25¢ a chance, to raise money for supplies for special art activities. Parents are being asked to donate a cake on May 9th or 10th. Please bring them to the school office.

COCC students display work

In May, an entire year of work and creativity comes together in the annual Central Oregon Community College Student Art Exhibit.

The best painting, drawing, sculpture, jewelry, ceramics, and photography from COCC student artists will be on display in the Pinckney Center Art Gallery from May 8 through June 3. Dozens of student works will be selected from hundreds of entries this year.

The gala opening of the exhibit and the student awards for this juried show will be held from noon until 1:00 May 8. Music and refreshments will be available in the Gallery.

Portland watercolorist Paul Bennett, John Simpkins of Camp Sherman and Bend potter/sculptress Pam Donaldson are the jurors for this year's show. For more information about the Student Art Exhibit at COCC, call The Fine Arts office at 385-5511.

Volunteer tutors needed

Wanted: Volunteer Tutors to teach adults how to become better readers.

Nearly one out of five Americans lack the reading skills and knowledge needed for coping successfully with day-to-day living. You can help by becoming a literacy volunteer in Warm Springs.

Two free training sessions will be offered for volunteer tutors from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on May 11 and 18 at the Community Center Social Hall. Learn effective ways to teach reading skills to others, and find out how you can begin volunteering your time as a reading tutor. For more information about being an adult literacy volunteer, call the COCC Center at 553-1428, or Kim Durglo at the Headstart office program, 553-3241.

Auction set for May 5

The Cowden Memorial Auction, set for Saturday, May 5, 1990 beginning at 11:00 a.m. will feature live music, a classic car display and a beer garden.

The auction begins at 1:30 p.m. at Sahalee Park (7th and "B" streets, Madras, Oregon).

Food booths with salmon, Indian fry bread, deli specialties, Mexican cuisine and burgers will be available. Tickets are available at the Jefferson County Chamber of Commerce, Oscar's Sporting Goods and Madras Gun & Tackle for a gun raffle.

All proceeds from the auction will go to benefit the Cowden Memorial and Jefferson County Fire District #1.
