An unidentified player of the Starlits makes it to third base safely during a game played in Madras. The Starlits coached by Janell Smith and Sandra Danzuka, went on to win the game.

Braves have perfect no-loss season

Tony "Big Rat" Suppah

I'd like to say "Thanks, to those individuals for their assistance," on transporting the players, on their away games. We couldn't have done it without you. Also I appreciate the parents for giving me the opportunity to work and coach the young ball players.

For no one is born an athlete, they must all learn how to be one. For whatever sport takes to their interest. Just to take time to participate is a feat in itself. To belong and get involved. Once they start, never quitting, regardless. For that is a bad habit to break, once you start, always giving excuses, why?

I try teaching them team work, discipline, responsibility and good sportsmanship. That practice doesn't end on the field, to do so at home. To improve on their weak points, for themselves, with their parents assistance. "Knowing the support is there, always seems to make the young player try harder." Never to make fun of an individual because their lack of ability. They were taught winning isn't everything but its better than being second best. Being on top in any sport, is an accomplishment. Knowing that they did it themselves. All I do, is show them the fundamentals and the rules of the sport, but they play the games.

I believe in my own way of making the young athletes tough both mentally and physically, preparing them for life, for we won't be here forever to do things for them. To be able to react and make decisions on their own. To Support each other on and off the field, as friends, teammates. For they have to rely on each other during the games. "Noone likes being a loser." That's what this world is about, competition.

Memorial Endurance Race set

The annual Memorial Endurance horse race is set for June 23, 1990. This will be in memory of Linton Winishut, past Tribal Council member; Melvin Bull Wewa, past Tribal Council member; and, Jewell Van Pelt, past Tribal Council secretary.

Each year the race is getting bigger and better and is divided into two categories, the Junior and Senior divisions. The Jr. division is open to all kids 14 years old and under. In the past there have been some good times turned in by the Juniors. The Sr. division is open to anyone over the Jr. age limit either man or woman. The Jr. race is approximately 5 miles partly on a good surfaced road and the remainder on rough terrain where they come down a small hill just before making their home stretch run.

The Sr. division race leads farther into the country up the Shitike creek for about three miles and leads up Wilford canyon for another 3 or 4 miles than over into Tommy Canyon and cross to the ridge above the Tenino valley where they head east again to the top of the hill west of the Agency where they make their descend from the top down the steep hillside into the creek bottom and cross the creek for the final home stretch run. Its not really a difficult race but a rider must know how to control his mount and set its pace to last the entire route. In the past there have been riders and horses from as far away as northern Washington who have taken home the winning trophies and glory. There are a lot of local riders gearing up for this gruelling event.

The entries close at 7:50 a.m. sharp and the race will get underway at 8:00 a.m. sharp. No Indian time. The entry fee is $75.00 for the adults and $25.00 for the juniors. The winner of the Jr. race will receive 50% of the jack-pot and a buckle and T-shirt. Second place will receive 30% of the Jack-pot and a T-shirt. Third place will receive 20% of the Jack-pot and T-shirt, 5th and 6th will receive T-shirts.

In the senior division the winner will receive 50% of the Jack-pot, a beaded headstall and breast collar. Also a trophy buckle, Satan jacket and a yearling colt put up by the Gordon Scott family. Second place will receive 30% of the Jack-pot and a Satan jacket. Third place will receive 20% of the jack-pot and a Satan Jacket. Fourth and fifth place finishers will receive a Satan jacket.

This all takes place near the Shaker Church west of the agency near the Shitike Creek, Saturday morning at 8:00 a.m. Get there early to get a good seat and cheer on your favorite rider.

Bravettes win championship

The Warm Springs Bravettes and coach Ramona Tanewasha traveled to Oakville, Washington May 26-28 to take part in a women's slo-pitch tournament.

The teams consisted of Bravettes, Li'l Boston, Taholah, Skokomish, Nisqually, and Queets.

The champions were Warm Springs Bravettes who defeated Queets, Nisqually, Washington took third place. Taholah placed fourth. Skokomish was fifth overall. Li'l Boston trailed sixth.

The Bravettes defeated Taholah 12-2 in their opening game. Queets was their second victim who they defeated 7-6 in 11 innings. The third game was against Nisqually and the Bravettes were victorious 8-2. The final game championship was against Queets again and the Bravettes took the title with a 5-2 score.

Lana Adams was named Most Valuable Player. Lynn Tanewasha and Missy David were selected all-star from the Bravettes.

Smith to manage USA Goodwill boxing team

Gerald Smith has been selected as a team manager of one of two boxing teams representing the United States at the 1990 Goodwill Games in Seattle. Smith was contacted by the USA Amateur Boxing Federation National office May 14 notifying him of the appointment.

Each team will consist of 12 boxers, from 106 pounds to super heavyweight. Each team will have two coaches and a manager.

The Goodwill Games Boxing Challenge, held in Las Vegas June 8 and 9, determined team members. Smith said four Northwest area boxers, who competed in various Warm Springs tournaments over the last 10 years, may be contenders in the Goodwill Games, depending on the outcome of the Challenge.
