"Spilyay Speaks"

Does everyone have similar problems as Spilyay Tymoo around here? One of the biggest problems is trying to get through to other departments. Communication seems to be one of the biggest downfalls and people don't want to get into the act.

There have been several meetings with all department heads and it appears that everyone is willing to do his "Thing." Well, that's as long as the chairman has the gavel in hand. But just as soon as the meeting is over and everyone leaves they fall back into the same old rut or settle back in his shell once again and things continue as they were before.

People are afraid to speak up. Some look as though they are afraid of their own shadows. They are afraid they might say the wrong thing. There are several projects going on around here that the tribal members might be interested in, seeing what's happening and what's going on in this organization.

Several calls are made trying to get information on various projects or other incidents that take place but it seems that when they find out it's Spilyay Tymoo they find all the reasons to avoid talking or giving any information. They usually tell the secretary that they are tied up at the moment and will call back as soon as they are free... Ha! Does the phone ring on this end?... You guessed it—Nope. But if anything goes wrong and Spilyay Tymoo is on the "Hot Seat," the supervisors come back and say, "All they had to do was give us a call!"

The run-around or passing the buck, that seems like it's the way to go. If there was a contest on passing the buck around here it would be a tough job for the judges. Well, maybe I should just worry about the little things, like what's happening in Iran, East and West Berlin 'n stuff like that and let everyone else worry about what's taking place here. "NIGH or MISH UN-CHA."

Braves play undefeated — league champions

With good hard work on and off the practice and game field, they played a fantastic season, winning the 8-10 year old division. By winning 12 games and losing 0, going undefeated.

Being number 1 in any sport activity knowing you did it, is a great feeling. Some kids never get the chance till later on. We're grateful to the parents for their support. That makes the job that much easier with no interference. For to all parents, grand parents, aunts, uncles, etc. their little athletes are considered great little players, or superstars.

I've seen the past 20 years of working and coaching youth programs. Problems some coaches go through when they've got no control, meaning sideline family interference. It makes their jobs that much tougher teaching the kids the game. When you try pleasing everyone you end up no where, I've learned that in the past years of coaching. "Now I've got my set rules."

The only ones that get hurt are the kids, especially when they're willing to learn, and want to play the game. "People have to remember most coaches, are volunteers, and are not getting paid, and should at least be given the consideration for being there," if someone feels they can do a better job, inform the Community Center and start coaching.

In behalf of the team and my great assistant coach, my wife Mercedes Suppah, I had an Honor song-sung by Blacklodge, dedicated to them through KWSO, they well deserved it. I have enjoyed working with them and all the kids these past 15 years. They're our future and the most important resource of the reservation.

To all the parents who have given me their support and the opportunity to work and coach their kids. God Bless You all, and may He above watch over and guide you and yours always, your fantastic. The latest addition to our roster from last issue was Bruce "Bambi" Howtopat. He did a great job in his short season.

People made rodeo successful

The Warm Springs Rodeo Association thanks all the businesses and individuals for helping to make the 1990 Pi-Ume-Sha Rodeo a big success. They have assisted with financial support, donated an item, service or labor, provided moral support, or positively helped in some way. If we have left out anyone, it is unintentional; we will acknowledge you in a future issue. Without assistance, the rodeo would not have been possible.

Thanks to the following: Action Radiator, Ahern's Keith and Pat Baker, Anson and CR Begay, Bel-Air Colonial Funeral Home, Big R of Redmond, Brunoe Construction, Wayne Bullcalf, Albert Bryant, Sr., DMJ Automotive, Erickson's SENTRY Market, Dana Harding and daughter, Herb Graybael, Green Spot Welders, Agnus Green, Errol, Phyllis and Lia, Jake Grossmiller, Hatfield's, Grandma Holly's, Vesta Hudson, Butch and Anna Hurtado (Judging, timing), Intertribal Sports, Shawna Jackson, Zane Jackson, Jefferson County Fairgrounds, JJ's Auto Supply, Kah-Nee-Ta Lodge and Resort, Reta Kalama, KWSI Radio Station, Les Schwab Fire Center, Lumbermens Finance & Insurance Company, Bryan Lund, Doug McClelland, Madras Auto Supply, Madras Marine, Marceau, Karnopp, Petersen, Noteboom & Hubel, master Host Motor Inn, Middleton Septic Service, Sid Miller, Mr. D's Radio Shack of Redmond, Olson's Saddle Shop, Papa Brothers, Inc., Evaline Patt, Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company, Pietro's Pizza, Buddy Pinz (Stock Contractor), Pioneer Energy Company, Colleen Poor Bear, Monica Sampson, SAS Construction, Deanna and Carol Shadley, Jim Sizemore, Ted Skinner (Judging), Alfred Smith Jr., Buck Smith (for wild horses), Ginger Smith, Ken Smith, Sonny's Motel and Restaurant, Spilyay Tymoo, Jim Spitz, Earl and Rita Squiemphen (cows, calves, tractor, disk, concession items), Sammie Squiemphen, Valerie Squiemphen, The Stag Restaurant, Tenino Energy Company, Edison and Priscilla Yazzie, Warm Springs Confederated Tribes Tribal Council, Warm Springs Fire & Safety Department, Warm Springs Forest Products Industries, Warm Springs Police Department, Warm Springs Print Shop, Warm Springs Rodeo Association members, Western States Indian Rodeo Association contestants, Ray and Irene Wells and family.

As is demonstrated by the above partial list, the Association is gaining the support of folks in the Warm Springs community and surrounding towns. Remember, the Association welcomes any and all, old as well as new members. You don't have to be a tribal member to join—all you need is sincere interest and dedication in promotion of the sport of rodeo! Again, thanks for your support and enthusiasm.

Guests enjoyed Pi-Ume-Sha

To the editor,

To the people of Warm Springs, My daughter and I were guests at your Treaty Days Pi-Ume-Sha. I would like to thank all of you for such friendship extended towards us. The breakfasts at the Longhouse were great, hot & plenty of it. Eight Ball did a great job as M.C. and he didn't humiliate us too badly in the "Wanna B" dances! Thank You. I look forward to the 22nd Pi-Ume-Sha Celebration.

Bottle sweet bottle

We drank for relaxation and got the shakes.
We drank for bravery and became afraid.
We drank for confidence and became doubtful.
We drank to make conversation easier and slurred our speech.
We drank to feel heavenly and ended up feeling like hell.
We drank to forget and were forever haunted.
We drank for strength and felt weak.
We drank for sleep and awakened without rest.
We drank "medicinally" and acquired medical problems.
We drank for happiness and became miserable.
We drank for sociability and became argumentative.
We drank for sophistication and became obnoxious.
We drank for friendship and made enemies.
We drank for freedom and became slaves.
We drank to erase problems and saw them multiply.
We drank to cope with life and invited death...

Green still monument salesperson

To the editor,

I am still the salesperson for Madras Evergreen Chapel. I have all needed information for headstones and monuments. We have various sizes, colors, rock or marble and prices. We can duplicate other stones or get whatever you wish. Only extra price that you will have to pay will be for a picture, so the price that we give you will be the only price that you will get. Put your loved ones to complete rest with a headstone or monument. I feel it is quite a bit easier if one of your own people came into your home to help you select a stone for your departed. Feel free to call me and set up a time at your convenience.

Thank you
