riding event. This year bulls were furnished by the Alps Rodeo Ranch from Madras, Oregon, where there were just a few qualified rides made. Winning the bull riding on Sunday was Wausika Brown, Jr. from Chiloquin, Oregon, who managed to make the required time aboard one of those tough bulls. The sun is getting farther into the west but the temperature is still hot as another He He rodeo closes its doors for another year. Being press time all names of contestants and the place they took will appear later.

On Patrol—

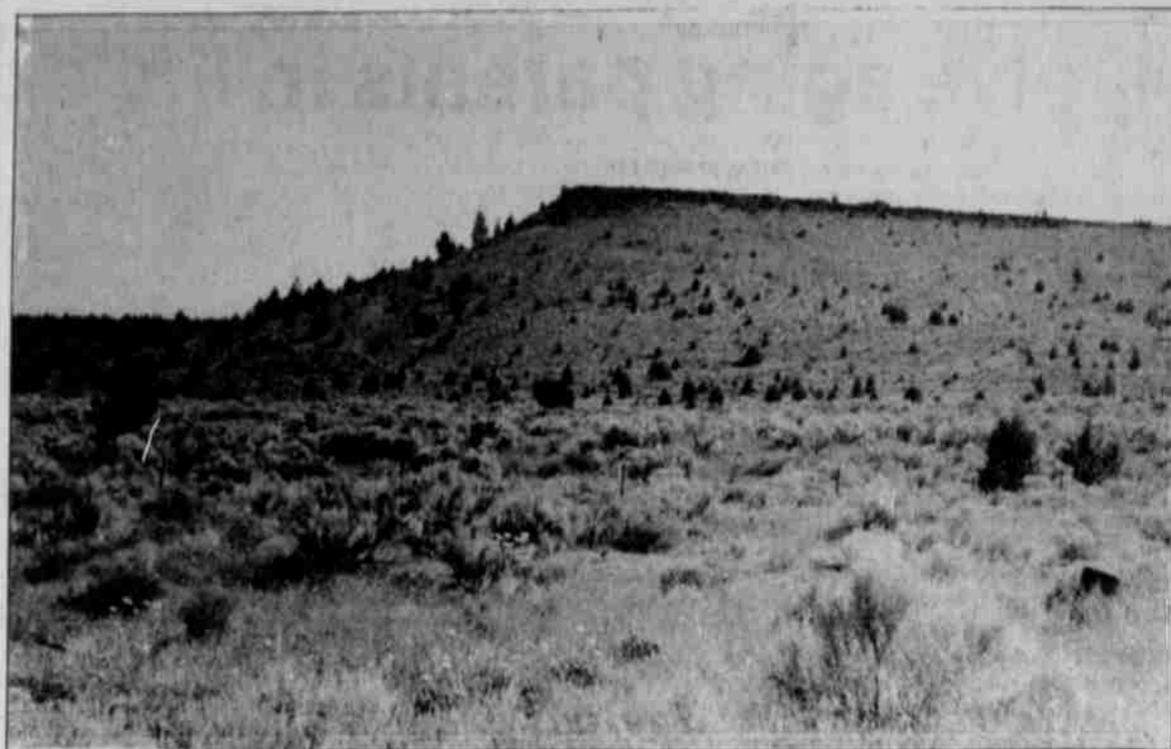

Report unsubstantiated

Warm Springs police investigated the possible sighting of a body floating in Shitike Creek last week. A Warm Springs man, floating in an intertube down the creek, reported to police that he had seen a body along the creek's edge. Police conducted a preliminary search of the area and found nothing. During a thorough search the following day, police could find no sign of a body. However, according to police captain Rick Souers, a deer carcass, salmon and eels, garbage and garbage bags were found. Souers warned of a possible health hazard due to the items left in the area.

Curfew violators to be cited

Warm Springs police will be actively enforcing the tribal curfew law. Those youth under 16 years of age, who are on "public streets, highways or other places open to the public" on the reservation "between the hours of 10 p.m. and 5 a.m. on any night before a school day" will be cited. It is also unlawful for a youth under 16 years of age to be out between the hours of 12 midnight and 5 a.m. on nights not preceding a school day. Youth must be accompanied by a "parent, guardian or other competent adult with permission of the juvenile's parent or guardian" if mittee for three years beginning in 1974 and, in 1976, he was an advisory board member for the Portland State University Indian Social Work project. From 1977 to 1980 and again from 1983 to 1986, Larry was elected to represent the Simnasho District on Tribal Council.

Larry was a member of the Central Oregon Health Planning Council in 1979. During that same year he became a member of the Tribal energy committee, an appointment he still held at the time of his death. He served as a member for Kah-Nee-Ta Resort from 1979 to 1982. He was named a water control board member from 1982 to 1984. In 1986, he became a member of the Oregon Commission on Indian

Services. He was also a member of the Governor's Inter State Indian Council. In —, Larry was selected as one of the Outstanding Young Men in America by Larry graduated from Madras High School in 1964 and attended Haskell Institute the same year. He graduated from Oregon State University with a Bachelor's degree in Social Science in 1969. He attended the University of Oregon graduate school in 1971 and Portland State University graduate school in 1975.

Larry will be missed by all who had the opportunity to know him and to work with him. He will be remembered for many things, no doubt including his quiet nature, wit, wisdom and deep concern for the well-being of his people.

Death investigated

A 65-year-old tribal member woman was dead at the scene of a one-car accident on the old Pelton road. The accident occurred Saturday, August 4 at approximately 8:15 a.m. Jefferson County and Warm Springs police were originally dispatched to Campbell Grade. However, no accident was found during an extensive search of the area. The person who called in the accident then accompanied police to the accident site at the top of the Pelton Dam Road grade. Driver of the vehicle, a 1984 Bronco II, was Dempsey Polk, Jr. and passenger Carol Frank Simtustus, were taken to Mt. View Hospital for treatment. Simtustus was held for observation at the hospital. Polk was released following examination. No details of the accident were released and investigation of the accident continues. The case is pending a grand jury hearing for possible charges, according to Souers. If you have any information concerning the accident, call Warm Springs police or officer Greg Parton at the Jefferson County sheriff's office at 475-2201.

Assistance offered

Warm Springs Fire and Safety personnel and volunteers assisted Bend area firefighters in battling the Awbrey Hall fire over the weekend of August 4. Central Oregon Inter Agency team members Jim Steele, Gary Cooke and Dennis Martinez, all BIA forestry employees, also assisted.

Officers to receive training

Warm Springs police officers, through a drug interdiction program, will learn to identify symptoms and behavior profiles of someone who is trafficking narcotics or who is committing other narcotics violations. The ongoing sessions will begin August 10. According to Souers, Warm Springs hopes to connect with the state regional task force in Portland to coordinate and train Warm Springs officers and officers in other local jurisdictions. With common training, networking will be created.

Suspects being sought

Local residents have reported, over the last several weeks, the theft of artifacts and other valuables. Police in Yakima, Umatilla, Goldendale and Warm Springs have discovered that a four-person ring is allegedly responsible for those thefts and burglaries. The suspects have been identified as William Centre, Clay Anderson, Jr., Daniel Lutton and Ricky Sampson. All are in their early 20s. None are members of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs. Stolen in the thefts have been artifacts, buckskin dresses, stereos, televisions and VCRs. If you have had a similar theft or you are missing items, please contact the Warm Springs police at 553-3272.
