Letters to the Editor

Think of what you are doing to your bodies

To the Editor,

I would like to express all of my love and gratitude to the people that have sent me cards and flowers and called to see how I have been doing. To the people that know that I am sick but do not know why or what the reason is or was, I went under a major surgery in July, my voice-box and esophagus were removed and some reconstruction was done in my stomach. I will not be able to speak normally again, but I am now using a speaking machine that helps me to communicate with people. I am still trying to master the art of using it, but with the patience and understanding of my family I know that I am doing okay. I have not been home to Warm Springs as yet to stay, due to the fact that I must stay close to my doctors for treatments and therapy. I do not know when I will be able to move back home, the weather has a lot to do with it also, for the weather is too dry and I cannot breathe without the help of a machine that I only need to use at night while I am in Portland. I miss everyone very much, all the people that I went to see while I was on the job, I feel that I am neglecting you terribly. I miss the people that I work close with, I know that they are carrying my load as well as their own. I have had some very hard days that I went through, and I know that I have many more to look forward to, but I am not going to give up, I pray to our Maker each minute of the day and he gets me through to the next. I might be looking at another surgery date in the future, and I know that I will be in good hands, I have a lot of faith in my doctors and mainly my God. The doctors do not know why I got this Cancer in my throat. The cause is normally due to over excessive drinking of alcohol and smoking. I never was a big user of these, so I will always wonder why I was chosen for this horrible health problem. So I encourage all of you people that use any form of alcohol and drugs, smokes, please, please think of what you are doing to your bodies, there will always be another victim in line. I look forward to all the letters and cards and calls that I get and I thank you all for showing your consideration. I may not be able to talk to you, but I still have ears and eyes. I will give you the address and number of my sister, we welcome everyone to come visit us or call us. I keep all of you in my prayers daily and in my thoughts, I will never forget you.

Love your C.H.R.

Volunteer Aerobic Instructors doing good job

To the Editor,

I would like to show my great appreciation to the volunteer Aerobic Instructors for doing a big part of my job while I am on disability. And that is Dortha Barney, Pinky Beymer, Marcella Courtney and of course to Eva for doing all the work while I am off. I miss very much being in class with everyone. I will be off until the first of the year, but you will still see me attending some exercise classes. This darn ole back of mine does not want to cooperate sometimes, so under the directions of my doctor, I must lay low for awhile, but, watch out, when I come back I will be chomping at the bit. I encourage all people to really use the classes that are being offered for you at different times. These instructors work hard to learn their safety procedures and music, steps, counts, bones, muscles, heart beats. And they are also volunteering their time for you, so appreciate their efforts, but, go for your own benefit. I guarantee you that you will feel and look better.

Thank you, friends for being there

To my relatives and friends,

This letter has taken me a long time to write, and I deeply apologize for not expressing myself earlier. The old traits I have allowed to take up my time the past few months have prevented me from writing this letter of appreciation earlier.

To begin with I would like to sincerely extend from the bottom of my heart, a big thank you for those who were there during the passing away of my last brother, Leonard Jones Teeman.

I appreciated the prayers and words of encouragement, I received from my people, my friends and relatives. Not only during the funeral arrangements, but the funeral services also. Just having you there was a comfort. Thanks for helping me make not only the necessary decisions but praying through the difficult and awkward ones. Through it all, I really felt like I was somebody and therefore the last thing I could do for my brother was to let him rest in peace.

Perhaps someday I will truly understand those blessings in disguise that God gives me, but this will only be made possible through those of you who continue to pray for me, not because you're a relative, but a friend as well. Once again, thanks for the food, clothes, rides and most of all, always making my daughter a part of the family, too!

May you always have peace in your heart

Sincerely,
Lucille

we wrecked I heard that I went through the windshield window of my car and believe it or not but I busted that window with my own head too. I heard that I was in a coma for 9 months and died during that coma for 10 minutes from cardiac arrest too. I used to be in this head-injury brain-damaged rehabilitation center over here called C-net (see-net) 2 years ago and I sure did help me out a lot like getting me out of that wheel-chair that I was in for 2½ years. And hallelujah it even helped me to write with my other hand too so I do know that God's really a miracle. The greatest thing I can say about me and my husband Floyd Frank, Sr.'s accident is that our 2 sons we do have together weren't with us then. And all these other brain-damaged people I've met over here tell me that they can't see how I damaged my brain one bit at all compared to theirs too. But I'm now out of that brain-damaged rehabilitation center and in an adult foster group home now. The one other greatest thing that rehabilitation center has done for me is that when I was here 2 years ago I was put in a newspaper class and everyone in that class voted for me to be editor for that newspaper too. That was a really cool job for me too. If anyone over there has any questions or something to say to me just please write to me or call me okay? at 344-6980. The address is 83412 Lorraine Hwy, Eugene, OR 97405. Hope to hear from some-one soon though okay?

Sincerely,
Evette Frank

Choral group would like opportunity to perform

To the Editor,

Our choral organization, the "Mannergesangverein" Hahnheim, will be touring the Pacific Northwest between August 22nd, and September 4th, 1991, as guests of our partner chorale, the Festival Chorale Oregon.

As their partner we participate in an international, intercultural exchange program. Many of our singers are involved in the production of wine and have participated in many annual wine festivals. More information about Hahnheim and its choir is provided in the leaflet "Hahnheim and its Mannerchor" included in this letter.

We would like to include in our itinerary the opportunity to perform at a wine festival or similar event in your area if it can be arranged. Other festivities or just invitations for concerts would also be welcome to us.

Our program will include international songs as well as many of the German folk songs sung by our ancestors here in the Rhine Valley.

According to the format established by the Festival Chorale on their three international tours we would perform without charge as your guests, arriving one afternoon, performing the second evening and saying "good-bye" after breakfast the next morning. We would look forward to making new friends, learning more about your beautiful country, its customs, culture and industry and perhaps set up more partnerships with similar choral organizations of your country. We would also appreciate very much if you could help us find more hosts for our tour in 1991. Our choral group will be traveling with approximately 50 people (for accommodation: about 20 couples and 10 singles).

As a kind of exchange for your hosting us in 1991 we would offer a similar host program (also for individual travelers) here in Germany.

Bob Henkel, the tour coordinator for the non-profit Festival Chorale has kindly volunteered to help us book our performances and arrange our itinerary. His phone is 503-769-6518; if you are interested in hosting us please call him or write or phone me at my address above.

Looking forward to your answer to this letter.

Yours sincerely,
Josef Zeimentz
Tour Coordinator
