

First annual powwow honors veterans

Respect and pride were evident at the Agency Longhouse, November 9 and 10 as veterans were honored for their dedication to our country.

Warm Springs police officer Jack McClelland was honored by Neda Wesley for his help in saving the life of her grandchild.

Grand Entry at the First Annual Veteran's Day Powwow held at the Agency Longhouse honored all service men and women.

Friday night events focused on children.

Powwow results—

Girls 8 and under
1. Orié Made; 2. April Scott; 3. Toni Tail

Boys 8 and under
1. Preston Smith; 2. James Walsey; 3. Alexis Smith

Teen Girls
Traditional—
1. Arlisa Rhoan; 2. Tilda Walsey; 3. Alisa Spotted Eagle

Fancy—
1. Cary Windyboy; 2. Charmaine Watts; 3. April One Penny

Jingle—
1. Lida Rhoan; 2. Thea Moran; 3. Cheryl Telakish

Teen Boys
Traditional—
1. Merle Windspeaker; 2. Mathis McConville; 3. Elvis Sampson

Fancy—
T. Charles Lamb

Grass—
1. Randy George; 2. Quintin Teeman; 3. Timothy Kalama

Womens
Shawl—
1. Sancha Windyboy; 2. Eliza Greene; 3. Sarah Ike

Jingle—
1. Virgilina White; 2. Bridgette Scott; 3. Renee George

Traditional—
1. Janet George; 2. Delilah Begay; 3. Arlita Rhoan

Mens
Grass—
1. Todd George; 2. Clifford George; 3. Chris Arthur
Fancy—

1. Rodney Totus; 2. Darrel George; 3. James Teeman

Traditional—
1. Matt Clements; 2. Bill Johnson; 3. Carlos Calica

Host Drum—Blackstone Singers from Sweetgrass, Saskatchewan, Canada. Other drums included: Iron Water Singers of Arizona, The Boys Singers, Northend Singers, Shitike Singers, Four Directions Singers and Wasco Nation Singers all of Warm Springs, Indian Nation Singers and Eagle Spirit Singers from Yakima, Eagle Valley Singers of Portland and the Spirit Mountain Singers of Grand Rhonde.

Young traditional dancer makes way across the floor.