Buff girls brace for league play

Things have been on the up and down tempo for the Buff girls as the basketball season is underway. So far they have a -- win and -- loss record. There are times when things really look good for them and they play real well and again they look like they never saw a basketball before.

Since these games are pre-league, maybe it's a good thing they are finding out their weak points and their better points and as league play rolls around they will be a different ball club. They have a great potential of being a top team in their league if they just stick to the basics and play ball. Up to this point, they have had some pretty good competition and showed well despite losing the game. Crook County has had the upper hand on the Buffs two times, but in the last game, Crook County didn't make half as many points as they usually do on their opponents. The Buff defense shut them down pretty well. Crook County is a top contender in the 4A Inter Mountain league along with the Bend Lava Bears and the Hermiston Bulldogs. Anyone of the three can win that league. Madras has given Crook County a run for their money. Crook County did lose to Henley but later on handled Henley pretty easy on their home court.

Henley was the winner of the girls holiday tournament, beating the host Buff team 61-48 in the final round. It was in the first quarter that Henley built their big lead jumping out to a 24-4 mark at the end of the first quarter. But as the game progressed, the Buff girls settled down and started to outscore Henley. During the second quarter, Henley scored 17 points and Madras got 14. In the third quarter, Madras outscored Henley 12-10 and 18-12 in the final quarter. But Henley had such a big lead it was hard for Madras to overcome. Henley went on to win the title for this year.

Scoring for Madras was Becky Dodson 14, Kris King 12, Heather Clowers 8, Michele Simmelink 6, Shirley Allen 4, Carol Miller 2, Luanne Foltz 2, Laura Sahme, Becky Soliz and Margie Durette.

Henley: Kim Claybaugh 21, Radford 10, Lahoda 11, Angie Salerno 9, Walsh 4, Cowen 2, Hilyard and Knoll.

Henley is regarded as one of the top prospects for state contention this year in the 3-A class.

BASKETBALL—Buff boys win two, lose one

A fired up Grant Union Prospector team played Madras pretty close on their home court. The Buffs, in one of their cold spells, were held to a 13-13 tie at the end of one period. Grant Union jumped out to a 32-27 halftime lead over the Buffs. Finally, in the third quarter, the Buffs started to put things together and outscored Grant Union 18-4. Again in the final quarter the Buffs went on the rampage to outscore Grant Union 23-11 and win the non-league game 68-57.

Scott Moses led the way scoring 18 points, Ryan Boyle had 15, Tony Holiday 11, Jeremy Symons 11, Eric Peterson 9, Jake Coochise 2, Leif Suppah 2 and Mark Harris.

Grant Union: Jeff Grahm 17, Taylor 13, Gibson 10, Labhent 7, Kerbery 4, Malnai 2, Nichodemus 2, Woods and Lesy.

The Prospectors played a pretty good game to wake up the Buffs and during the second half pulled out the win.

Buffs crush Hood River

Eric Peterson and Scott Moses led the attack against the Hood River Eagles on their home court and handed them a 66-36 defeat. The Buffs were never in any trouble during the game, outscoring the host team in each period of the game. At the end of the first quarter the score was 13-4, they outscored their opponents in each of the four periods. In the second period 16-12, in the third 18-6 and in the final period 19-14.

The Dalles Indians come to town

The Dalles Indians came to town and spoiled the Buffs' winning streak and they escaped with a 73-70 win. With just seconds on the clock, Madras got the ball at mid-court and missed a three-point try by Eric Peterson for a tie and an overtime period. But his shot missed its mark and The Dalles held on for the slim win.

Cheney popped in a total of 35 points to lead all scorers for the game. Chavez collected six three-point shots. There were 16 three-point shots made during the game of which Cheney had 6, Smith 3, Eric Peterson 3, Scott Moses and Tony Holiday each had 2.

Scoring for The Dalles Cheney 36, Knowland 17, Smith 15, Anderson 4, Hayes 2, Caudill 2 and Hanson.

Scoring for Madras Peterson 30, Tony Holiday 13, Scott Moses 12, Jeremy Symons 9, Ryan Boyle 6 and Mark Harris.
