White Buffalo boys basketball up-date given

Bufs clobber Riverside

Madras High School basketball, "As I See's Um." The Madras White Buffalo boys varsity basketball team trampled the Riverside Pirates by the score of 81-57. The score could have been a lot greater but Coach Joe Blincoe pulled his regulars and used the bench players as the reserves put in plenty of playing time during the game.

Eric Peterson topped all scorers with a total of 22 points, before leaving the game in the second half and Scott Moses added 16, Tony Holiday 6, Ryan Boyle 8, Jeremy Symons the only starter not to score but was real good on the backboards getting his share of rebounds on both ends of the court. Mark Harris was 7 of 9 at the free throw line and a goal to give him 9 points, while Lief Suppah added three baskets of which one was a 3 pointer to give him 7 points. Jake Coochise had 3 field goals and he was 1 of 2 at the free throw line for a total of 7 points. Ryan Grote 4, and Spencer Gerke 2. The Bufs were never in any kind of trouble during the game.

Bufs ransack Grant Union Prospectors

The Prospectors of Grant Union couldn't find any gold round these here parts as the White Buffaloes ran at will to produce a lopsided score before turning the bench loose on them. Yep! the pickings were pretty slim as the Prospectors trailed 19-11 at the end of the first quarter with Eric Peterson doing plenty of damage. From there on the Bufs controlled the game with the reserves doing a lot of the playing.

Eric Peterson led the scoring with 19 points. The Prospectors made a couple of mistakes by backing away from Tony Holiday and with clear view of the basket he calmly popped in a couple of three pointers as he contributed 14 points for the night. Scott Moses was great under the basket getting rebounds and had several assists along with 10 points. Ryan Boyle added 8 points to the cause while Jeremy Symons also contributed 8 points, Jake Coochise 8, Mark Harris 2, Ryan Grote 7, Lief Suppah 10. In the final quarter both teams went to the bench as the game was well wrapped up for the Bufs. Lief Suppah and Ryan Grote's efforts in the fourth quarter for the Buff bench was outstanding as they combined for 17 points in the final quarter.

Jeff Graham kept the Grant Union in the light with some spectacular shooting along with Rob Gubser and Jake Taylor as the trio done most of the scoring for the Prospectors. Kooks like the Prospectors will have to stake claims in other places as there was no gold here in these here hills.

Bufs win on road

On January 18, the Buffaloes traveled to Baker and handed them a 60-49 beating on their home court behind the scoring of Tony Holiday and Eric Peterson as they both scored 16 points apiece for the Bufs. They jumped out to a 15-13 first quarter lead and extended that to a 33-26 half time score. The Bufs out scored Baker in every quarter as they crept away from the Bulldogs. Scott Moses added 12 points for the winners, Jeremy Symons 11, Ryan Boyle 5, Jake Coochise saw action but didn't score. Scoring for Baker was Baxter with 13, Davison 7, Copley 6, Bo Uttenruther 4, Bi Uttenruther 10, Albrecht 4 and Chapman.

This week the Bufs host the Ontario Tigers Friday night January 25, who are contenders for the GOL title. Should be a good game with JV action starting at 5:45 and the Varsity game at 7:30 in the Buff Dome.

Scott Moses, 32, scores two points against Riverside.

Baker City stops Bufs

In a sluggish third and fourth quarter Baker managed to pull away from the White Buff girls to win 57-41, on a road trip for the Bufs. The Bufs held a two point lead at the half time but in the third and fourth quarters it appeared as though the switch was turned off where the Bufs could only score 4 points to 19 for Baker and final quarter was not much better for the Bufs as they scored 9 points while Baker came up with 12 to ice the game.

Shirley Allen and Michelle Simmelink led the scoring for the Bufs both 9 points apiece, Becky Dodson 7, Heather Clowere 6, Laura Sahme 4, Kirsch 2, Carol Miller 2, Kris King 1, Margie Durette and Arlinda Duff.

Christine Webb scored 18 points for Baker, Wood 12, Schaan 10, Turner 8, Bloomer 6, L. Porter 2, J. Porter 1. This was the second league game for the Bufs and next face Riverside and Mac Hi.

Bufs sail past Pirates

On January 18, the Madras White Buffalo girls were host to the Riverside Pirates and they handed them a whopping 85-58 shalacking as the whole team saw plenty of action. Right from the start the Bufs pretty well had their way with the game as they out scored their opponents in every quarter. Top scorer for the Bufs was Michelle Simmelink with 13, Heather Clowere 12, Shirley Allen 11, Laura Sahme 8, Kris Kirch 8, Carol Miller 8, Becky Dodson 10, Kris King 5, Becky Soliz and Arlinda Duff, Foltz 6. Shirley Allen had one three pointer and Laura Sahme had two. Luanne Foltz and Heather Clowers fouled out of the game.

Buff gals crush Mac Hi

On Saturday night the Mac Hi Pioneers came to town and ran into a buzz saw as the Madras girls ran at will against the Pioneers riddling them to shreds by the score of 70-23, with the reserves doing most of the playing in the second half as the entire team saw plenty of action. The Bufs jumped out to a 16-11 first quarter lead and led 47-26 at the intermission and coasted on to a 70-23 victory. Laura Sahme led the scoring for the Bufs with 12 points which two baskets were three pointers, a couple of other baskets were just misses as her toe touched the perimeter line. Just an inch or two she could have had a couple more three pointers. Michelle Simmelink added 11, Kirch 10, King 8, Soliz 7, Durette 5, Dodson 4, Clowers 3, Allen and Duff.

Scoring for the Mac Hi team was Thunnell 10, Schubert 9, Roloff 2, Jennings 2, Dougherty, Knopf, Wishand, Parks, Womm, Letter, Garcia.

This week the Buff girls travel east to meet the league leading Ontario Tigers on Friday night and the Nyssa Bulldogs on Saturday night.

Holiday Bowling tourney results

The 15th Annual All-Indian Holiday Bowling Tournament was a great tournament this year. This year's tournament (December 28, 29, 30, 1991) was held in memory of Lester Tanewasha who for years was a member of our local bowling league. The Tanewasha family provided some very nice wool/leather jackets for our first place men's team division. Those jackets were won by the Deschutes Crossing team consisting of Alley David, Ray Calica, Phillip David, and Butch David. One additional jacket was won by Lonnie Ogilvie of Madras in the Masters event. To the family went an honorable mention for their participation in the tournament mixed team event.

We were pleased to be able to host bowlers coming from Carson City, Nevada and Susanville, California. And further, we had some fantastic bowling that weekend, John Wright took top honors with rolling a perfect 300 game! We had two century games bowled (100+ pins over average), Marie Macy and Butch Miller. We had an all-spare game bowled by Helen Uribe (Carson City) and a triPLICATE series by Austin Greene. Congratulations go out to those bowlers.

Through the help and generosity of various bowlers we were able to feed the bowlers on Sunday afternoon. We would like to thank all those ladies for their assistance—Charlotte Shike, Helena Jones, Shirley Sanders, Joni David, Pat Tanewasha family, Teeny Tappo. If we did not include your name please accept our apologies and our thanks and appreciation for your contributions.

We would also like to thank those sponsors of our jackets for the tournament...Tiger Mart, W.S.F.P.I., Deschutes Crossing,

W.S.A.A., Rialto Tavern, Tom's Woodstove Inspections, Tenino Fuel, Pelton Lanes, Dan/Fran/Susan Ahern, 3N Livestock, S.A.S. Construction.

Tufti shy about recent bowling feat

Alex Tufti, sorta shy when asked about his fantastic series rolled during Jr. league action in the Pelton Lanes, Sunday night.

He chuckled and said his series was 769, with his first game a whopping 287, followed with his second game of 265, but then he really dropped in his third game to a low 217...Man, some people can't even get a couple games at 217. He said he had a pretty good night. When asked if he thought of turning Pro, he said, "That's a lot of tournaments," but never indicated one way or the other.

"We Baaad" winners of Little Britches Tourney

A basketball tournament for kids 12 years old and under was held in the Community Center, January 12-13, 1991. The team from Simnasho called, "We Baaad," were the champions as they topped the Hawks, from Olympia who were the defending champions.

The theme for the tournament was the battle against alcohol and drugs. The kids really played well according to coach and tournament director Big Rat. All the teams enjoyed themselves during the two day affair as they saw plenty of action. The Eagles from Chiloquin, Oregon took third place defeating the Young Guns, of Warm Springs.

The Medicine Creek, Washington, team was presented the sportsmanship trophy, and Squaxin, Island, Washington team won the award, "We Tried," and the Inspirational Team award went to the Warriors, of Warm Springs. Mr. Hustle award went to Nige Webb, of Olympia Hawks, and the MVP award went to Ryan Swearingen of the champions, "We Baaad." The Most Three Points Made award went to Spag Godfriedsen, of Medicine Creek. The High scorer went to Lil Bull Owl of "We Baaad," he had 24 points in a single game and 62 points overall.

There were twelve All-stars selected for the tournament and they are: 1. Eric Williams, Warriors; 2. Lydia Olga, Squaxin Island; 3. Charmain Watts, Roadrunners; 4. Phillip Tewee, Chinooks; 5. Spag Godfriedsen, Medicine Creek; 6. Brad Parrish, Chiloquin; 7. Charles Hasscott, Chiloquin; 8. Isreal Scott, Young Guns; 9. Steven Sutterliet, Olympia; 10. Lil Bull Owl Suppah, We Baaad; 11. Kevin Quebe, Olympia; 12. Travis Starr, We Baaad.

Madras wrestlers place second in seven-team tournament

At the Columbia Gorge Invitational Wrestling tournament which was held in Stevenson, Washington, January 19, Justin Chester was voted the outstanding wrestler of the meet. Chester won the 129 lb. class by a pin a technical fall and a decision.

There were three Madras wrestlers placed first and one taking second place. Besides Chester, Bryan Hopps won the 122 lb. class and Jerrod Sampson won the 135 lb. class, who were the other winners for the White Buffaloes, while Chad Duff placed second in the 190 lb. class. The whole team done very well as the White Buffaloes placed second teamwise, behind the winner who was Camas, Washington. The results of the meet are as follows:

Team scores: Camas, Wash., 222; Madras 162; Prairie, Wash., 132; Washougal, Wash., 129; Hood River Valley 85; Wahtonka 84; Stevenson, Wash., 67.
