White Buffalo girls stampede over Hilanders

"As I See 'Um." This was the night where the Buffaloes Roamed and played and every girl on the team was able to score a point. The Madras girls romped over the Hilander girls 74-43, to bring their standing to five wins and two losses behind Ontario and Baker. The race is getting tighter as the season end nears.

The Madras girls basketball team totally controlled the game Saturday night February 2, 1991, trimming the Burns Hilanders, who just came off of a win over the Ontario Tigers on their floor just recently. What more can you say when the entire team is able to score points as the Buffs had a good night. Heather Clowers had 16 points for high, Michelle Simmelink 14, Kris King 8, Becky Dodson 8, Laura Sahme 6, Luanne Foltz 5, Carol Miller 4, Shirley Allen 4, Allison Kirsch 3, Becky Soliz 2, Margie Durette 2, Arlinda Duff 2. Danielle Sheen and Vanessa Dick were high scorers for the Hilanders as each got 8 points apiece. Diane Bates 7, Holly Boyles 7, Heather Glerup 4, Cami Knudson 3, Noelle Thomas 3, Desi Hull 2, Jennifer Glerup 1, Angie Foster, Janian Arnall and Cheri Evans.

A foul filled game where Madras was whistled for 26 fouls to 32 on the Hilanders. There were no three points made from either team as the points came pretty easy for the Buffs. The Hilanders made several attempts but the ball missed its mark. The Buff girls have five games left which three are on the road and two on the home floor. Their next game they will host the Ontario Tigers on Friday night and on Saturday night they will travel to Milton-Freewater to meet the Mac Hi Pioneers. The following week they go to Riverside, and on the 22 of February Baker comes to town, then the following week the final game on the schedule they travel to meet the Burns Hilanders on their home court, and they are always tough at home.

Laura Sahme goes down the lane in two of her points against the Burns Hilanders in basketball action. Buffs won 74-43.

Buffs top Hilanders

At this point the Madras White Buffalo boys basketball team are sitting at the top of the league with a 6-0 record, followed by Ontario who has a 5-1 record.

In their last outing they traveled to Burns to meet the Hilanders on their court and came home victorious beating them 47-37. The Hilanders tried to slow down the tempos and use a different approach on the hard running Buffalo team. At the half time period the score was 27-13 in favor of the Buffs.

Scott Moses led the scoring for the Buffs with a total of 20, Eric Peterson had 13, Tony Holiday 5, Ryan Boyle 5, Jeremy Symons 4, Jake Coochise, Mark Harris, Ryan Grote and Gerke.

Graham was the high scorer for Burns with 11, Uriarte 9, Taylor 6, G. Adair 4, Presley 3, T. Adair 2, Dieter 2, Lemos, Johnson, Weil and Swann.

The next game for the Buffaloes, they will be on the road to meet the Riverside Pirates of Boardman, Oregon, this Friday night. On February 15, Mac Hi will be here and on the 22, 23, they make their eastern Oregon swing to take on Nyssa on Friday and Ontario on Saturday. On March 1, 2, they wind up their season with home games first meeting Baker and finally the Burns Hilanders.

Up until now this has been a pretty successful season for the boys, and if this keeps up there should be a ticket to the state tournament in March.

Pelton Lanes team leads

The Pelton Lanes team is leading with a 25-11, standing with Mid Columbia Box and the Renegades tied for second place each having 23-13 records. The Central Oregon Insurance is third with a 20-16, Country Tires 17-19, Madras Body and Glass 16-20, Sportsworld 15-21, Aherns 13-22 and Brightwood 12-24.

At press time the Mid Columbia Box and Renegades were battling it out for second place but at this time there are no results of the outcome of the two teams. The Mid Columbia Box team members consist of Chuck Patterson, Cass Hunt, Tim Ogilvie, Rick Otter, Brent Holmes, Steve Bradham and Bob Branson.

The Renegades team consists of Don Winishut, Owen Danzuka, Lawrence Shike, Sid Miller, Ray Shike, Jr. and Rod Adams. Donnie Winishut a constant bowler who has an average of 178, improving right along, Owen Danzuka another bowler on the rise sports an average of 162 for his first year with the Renegades, Lawrence Shike a well established bowler who has an average of 199, keeps the team on the ball, Rod Adams another newcomer to the team who does a lot of filling in when a team member is absent, he is sporting an average of 169. Ray Shike, Jr., who is the Chief or the Captain of the Renegades is a constant bowler with an average of 201. He comes through when the ice is thin and keeps the team afloat. The final member of the Renegades team Sid Miller who has an average of 146, a sandbagger, said he has a slump each year and that's between September until May. After that things go better for him.

The Renegades have made the roll-offs in the first third and now right in the thick of things as the second third is closing.

State basketball playoffs just around the corner

The basketball season is rapidly coming down to its final stages with the state play-offs just around the corner. First there will be the boys 4-A, and the Girls 3-A tournaments held. The boys will be playing in the Memorial Coliseum while the girls will be playing in the Armory in Salem.

There are four categories of schools in the state, starting with the 4-A, which has an enrollment of 1,000 kids or more, then the 3-A with 600 or more kids and the 2-A, and 1-A which are the smallest schools.

The Madras White Buffaloes are in the 3-A class which consists of 8 different districts.

In District 1, the COWAPA league has seven schools which include the Astoria Fishermen, Clatskanie Tigers, Rainier Columbians, St. Helens Lions, Scappoose Indians, Seaside Seaside Seagulls and the Tillamook Cheesemakers.

District 2, the Tri-Valley league has eight schools which are the Banks Braves, Estacada Rangers, Gladstone Gladiators, Hood River Valley Eagles, LaSalle Falcons, St. Mary of the Valley, Sherwood Bowmen and The Dalles Indians.

District 3, is the Far West, which has eight schools who are the Bandon Tigers, Brookings-Harbor Bruins, Coquille Red Devils, Douglas Trojans, Myrtle Point Bobcats, Reedsport Braves and Siuslaw Vikings.

District 4 is the VAL-CO league which has seven schools who are Central Panthers, Newport Cubs, Philomath Warriors, Taft Tigers, Toledo Boomers, Waldport Irish, Yamhill-Carlton Tigers.

District 5 is the SKY-EM, which has eight schools who are Cottage Grove Lions, Creswell Bulldogs, Elmira Falcons, Glide Wildcats, Junction City Tigers, Marist Spartans, Pleasant Hill Billies, Sutherland Bulldogs.

District 6, the SKYLINE has eight schools which include Henley Hornets, Hidden Valley Mustangs, Illinois Valley Cougars, Lakeview Honkers, North Valley Knights, Phoenix Pirates, Rogue River Chieftains, South Umpqua Lan-cers.

District 7, Greater Oregon League has, seven schools who are the Baker Bulldogs, Burns Hilanders, Madras White Buffaloes, McLoughlin Pioneers, Nyssa Bulldogs, Ontario Tigers, Riverside Pirates.

District 8, Capital, has eight schools who are, Cascade Cougars, Dallas Dragons, Mollala Indians, North Marion Huskies, Silverton Foxes, Stayton Eagles, Sweet Home Huskies, Woodburn Bulldogs.

In the class 3-A the state tournament is held on the Mac Arthur Court on the University of Oregon Campus, in Eugene, Oregon. The top two finishers of each district qualify for the state play-offs with the No. 1 seed from each district will meet the No. 2 seed of another district. The race is getting tight in several of the leagues where a play-off may determine the representatives to the state tournament. This applies for both the boys and girls teams.

So far the Madras White Buffaloes have a fairly good chance on representing the Greater Oregon League in the boys division, but at the present time its touch and go for the girls division as Ontario and Baker lead the league at the present

Freshman team loses to Bend January 29

The Madras High School Freshman basketball team played host to Bend High school at the Warm Springs Community Center, Tuesday January 29, 1991. The Buffs fell short in the first quarter as they scored 8 points against the 12 points from Bend. At the end of the half, the Buffs still fell short 17-27. They then made a comeback in the third outscoring their opponent, and making the score 44-37. They again trailed behind and lost the ball game 53-57.

Coach Bob McKenzie felt they played very well in the third quarter but lost their momentum. He feels the teams' skill level is improving and the loss record is not of importance.

The following list of names are the participants of Madras' Freshman basketball team: Todd Vibbert, Jason Thomas, Rafe Wysham, Isaak Esquiro, Ben Christensen, John Boyle, Wade Simmons, Jode Goudy, William Sup-
