Seniors advise: Stay in school, do your best

Seventeen-year-old Rhonda Raye Ike is a senior at Madras High School. She lives with her aunt Myra Shawaway in Warm Springs. Her grandmother is Dorothy Cassaway of White Salmon, Washington. Ike has three brothers, Toni, age 22, George, age 21 and Marvin, age 9. She also has two sisters, Robin Ike, age 11 and Phyllis Shawaway, age 9.

She is of Warm Springs, Wasco, Paiute, Yakima and Colville descent. Ike was involved with Future Business Leaders of America her junior year and she enjoys being with her friends. She has participated in sports throughout high school, as she played volleyball and basketball her freshman through junior years. She participated in track during her freshman and sophomore years and played in the pep band her freshman year. Her favorite sport was volleyball because it is "fun to play." Her favorite class and teacher in school are math V with Jack Gallagher. She received honor roll awards throughout high school and an IPS award in science her freshman year.

Her outlook of the past school years, as she states, is "I think I could have done better." She feels that this being her last year in high school makes her feel excited, yet scared—it's something she has been working toward for 12 years. She will miss social activities, friends and sports the most when she is out of school.

Her career choice is computer science, and her college choice is Oregon State University. She would like to advise the remaining lower classmen, "Stay in school, have fun and try your hardest." She sees herself involved with computer science five to ten years from now.

Anthony (Tony) Raymond Holliday is 18 years old and makes his home with his grandparents, Milton and Anne Holliday in Warm Springs. His brothers include Larry Holliday, Juan and Joel Coronado, Alfredo, Alonzo, Julio and Magdeleno Colozo and one sister, Maria Colozo.

Holliday is of Warm Springs and Yakima descent. He is involved with the Native American Student Union for his fourth year and he is the 1990-1991 vice president. His hobbies include fishing, hunting, playing basketball and spending time with his friends. He has participated in sports throughout high school, such as football, basketball and track. His favorite sport is basketball, because he enjoys "hearing the crowd go wild." His favorite class and teacher are forestry, with Bill Wysham.

Holliday has received various sports awards, such as Most Valuable Player in football his junior and senior years, MVP in basketball his junior year and second place team at the state playoffs his senior year.

His outlook for the past school years, he states is, "They have been fun years." But he will miss friends that he leaves behind. He feels that this being his last year in high school makes him happy that he is graduating and he is looking forward to the future and going to college. He will miss playing sports and his friends the most about high school. His career choice is fisheries and wildlife, and he is undecided between Mt. Hood Community College or Portland State University.

His comments to the remaining lower classmen are, "Do the best you can and don't give up. Stay in school and say no to drugs." He sees himself five to ten years from now, "living in a nice home, having a family and living happily ever after."

Scholarships available

Since it was first established in 1955, the Central Oregon Community College Foundation has sought private gifts for the overall benefit of the college.

Through the COCC Foundation, scholarships and grants are funded through gifts from individuals, businesses, corporations and service clubs. Nearly 300 awards are offered each year.

Unless otherwise designated, to be eligible for COCC Foundation awards, a student must be a permanent resident in the COCC District, be enrolled full-time (12 credit hours or more), demonstrate financial need, and have a 2.00 GPA or higher.

To apply for any of the scholarships/grants, students must complete the COCC Foundation Scholarship Application. Contact COCC at 385-5505.

Kirk receives award

Warm Springs tribal member Oliver Kirk has been given the Oregon Hunter Education Bronze award by the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife.

Oliver Kirk is one of 900 volunteer instructors throughout Oregon who conducts hunter education classes for young hunters. The classes are required of all hunters under age 18 before they can hunt wildlife in Oregon, and are designed to teach young hunters to be ethical, responsible and safe.

Instructors volunteer time and effort which pays off in reduced hunting accidents and better attitudes about hunting. Instructors receive award points for the classes and students they teach.

Art Fair set

Warm Springs Elementary will be having their fifth Annual Art Fair Wednesday, May 1 from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the school gym.

Parents are asked to bake cakes for a cake walk that will take place during the Art Fair. There will also be lemonade and cookies for sale. Last year $300.00 was raised to buy needed art supplies. Please come and support this event.

The District Art Fair will be held Saturday May 4 at Madras Junior High. There will be art projects from every school in the District, kindergarten through high school on display.

A very important message to parents

On May 21, a very important event will take place. It will effect the education of your child. That is the Levy Election for the 509-J school district.

Please plan to be registered to vote. You must be registered to vote by Tuesday, April 30th. If you need a voter registration form, please stop by the elementary school office to pick one up.

Your child needs your support in this matter!!

Warm Springs Elementary would like to extend a big thank you to Shirley Sanders for all her hard work in collecting Fred Meyer receipts for the community for the Fred Meyer Apples for the Students program.

An order was sent to Fred Meyers with over $57,000 in receipts which may purchase many, many software programs for our students.

It's amazing what a community of caring parents/guardians and teachers can accomplish when we all work together.

The software purchase not only helped enrich the total educational environment of our school, they helped save tax dollars that would have to be used to purchase these expensive, but essential, aids to education.

So, thank you, thank you and again thank you Shirley Sanders, and the community, you are the greatest.

Please make a note on your calendars that Wednesday, May 1st from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m. is Warm Springs Elementary's Art Fair. And, once again we will be having a cake walk, so we will need your support of contributions of cakes for this event.

We know we can count on you to help us make this another memorable event.

Kindergarten Round-Up will be at the Warm Springs Elementary School Thursday, May 23rd from 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Your child needs to be 5 years old by September 1, 1991 to attend kindergarten for the 1991-92 school year.

Please bring an up-to-date immunization record and proof of age (such as birth certificate or baptismal record) with you and your child, to visit the kindergarten classrooms on Thursday, May 23rd from 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Clean-up Week

Clean-up week for the Warm Springs community is set for the week of April 29 through May 3rd. During this week, students at Warm Springs Elementary School will be helping to clean up the school campus areas. They will also help clean up surrounding areas. We will all take pride in making our community a more beautiful place to live in harmony with nature. We urge you to take some time in helping to clean up our community. Get into the swing for a good spring.

Chapter 1 Easter stories

The Mvsterv Egg

by Jamie Tohet & Aaron Langley

This story is about a bunny, an egg, and a boy named Jonathan. The story took place one Easter afternoon in the garden. The problem was that they could not find the egg. The bunny looked in the hole in the ground. Jonathan looked in the bushes for the egg. They both ran to the porch and grabbed the egg. The bunny and Jonathan both found the egg and they shared it. The egg had candy inside.

The Easter Egg by Delores Picard

This story is about an egg, a rabbit, and me. It took place at Kah-Nee-Ta on Easter. The problem was the rabbit took the egg and would not share it. I hunted all over for the egg. The rabbit followed me. I hid from him. Finally I found the egg under some bushes. I took it and shared it with everyone. We ate it all gone and everyone was happy but the rabbit.

Candice's Egg by Candice Curry

The story is about my mom and me. It took place in the barn one morning. The problem was I wanted an Easter egg. My mom told me I couldn't have one. I took it when she wasn't looking and hid it in the barn. I kept it a secret and didn't tell anyone. My mom discovered it was gone and she got very mad! I went and got the egg and put it back. Mom was happy and so was I.

Tribal youth conference set

There will be a United National Indian Tribal Youth Conference this summer, June 28 through July 2, 1991 in Spokane, Washington. American Indian, Alaska Native, and Canadian Indian Youth between the ages of 15 and 24 are eligible.

The theme will be "Mobilizing the Healing Generation." Activities will include get-acquainted fun and games on Friday night, Traditional Feast and Powwow on Saturday night, a variety show on Sunday night and a Banquet and dance on Monday night.

The conference headquarters will be at the West Coast Ridpath Hotel, located at West 515 Sprague, in Spokane, Washington 99204. The main telephone # is (509) 838-2711 for more information.
