Focus of May 22 meeting to center on juvenile detention

To the Editor,

All community members are invited to a meeting to discuss juvenile concerns. The meeting will be held Wednesday, May 22 at noon at the Senior Citizen Building.

I wish to discuss the issue of locking our children in jail for longer periods than necessary. Let me explain that children can be charged with status offenses such as run away, not attending school or curfew violation (if they're under 16 years of age). Children can also be charged with delinquent acts, which means your child has committed an act that would be a crime if committed by an adult. Theft, DUII, juvenile in possession/consumption, breaking and entering, assault and assault and battery are considered delinquent acts.

Let's get on with the problem of jailing children under the age of 18 years. There are instances when a child can be detained for one of the above reasons. According to the law, we cannot detain juveniles longer than 24 hours without a judge's order. Even then, there should be another alternative to jailing a child. Many times, children are detained because a responsible parent, aunt, uncle, grandparent or some other reliable relative cannot be found to pick the child up.

The problem with placing a child with a relative is liability. If your child is hurt, injured, raped or runs away and gets into trouble again after being released to a responsible adult, who would be liable?

This is an important issue—to jail or not to jail your child, grandchild, nephew, niece, cousin. Please attend this meeting. Bring your sack lunch and share your concerns and ideas.

Remember, there needs to be a better, safe, alternative. Speak up and let your feelings be heard.

Juvenile Coordinator

Coach strives to teach basics of game

To the Editor,

My name is Tamera Hoptowitz A.K.A. "Tammy." I'm coaching the "Stingers" T-ball team this year. Monday-Thursday, 3:30 to about or around 4:45.

I have helped Laura Fuentes and also assisted my husband Dondi in the past four seasons. I play in slow-pitch softball tournaments with our family's "Red Zone" coed team and so I am attempting to teach the fundamentals - batting throwing, fielding, running and learning the rules that go along with the game (like running to first base and not to the pitchers mound or touching second base first...)

A high goal of mine is to plant the desire in each player to go onto next year...wanting to learn more and play the sport I too enjoy.

Our roster has nineteen players as follows: Alfred Estimo, Marsha Givens, Eliza Kalama, Christine LaneBear, Krysta Rhoan, Marcos Saligan, Jr., Neda Sam, Colleen Sandoval, Jerritt Smith, Amelia Spino, Cheri Spino, Jess Stevens,

III, Donnie Winishut, and Cassandra Wolfe. Our players age range from 6, 7 and 8 (9 if there's a need to learn the basics) we have five returning players from last year and only half of our listed players paid their fees at the Community Center. So, parents: if you haven't yet-please get in to pay as soon as possible. This fee covers insurance, uniform (cap and shirt for T-ball).

The weather has been windy and cold at times, so I'd like to see everyone to have a "light coat" or sweatshirt or even layered clothes but not bulky heavy winter coats. Bulky coats don't allow enough "moving room" for my players. Everyone will be able to bat and play that shows up for a game. But it is up to the parents to get the children to practice and games. I'll be busying our equipment and my own children).

I hope everyone has fun and learn's from this season—our first game is here in Warm Springs against Culver, so come on out and cheer on the "Stingers."

Help during loss appreciated

To the Editor,

In Loving Memory: Husband and Father

Cherishing our loving memories

Has been our strongest support

...our rock

Realizing now, all the love we share

I s forever and together, as one family

Saying "farewell" was the hardest for us, but together we'll all be again

This is to everyone who shared their love, support and caring in our time of need, at the loss of my husband and the children's father.

If it weren't for the family and community, I'm sure we would still be lost. Thanking our many relatives for being here with love and support, as our many friends and co-workers for the same and more.

Thank you for the individual donations at the church for "travel funds" for traveling families to return home. A very special thanks to those who opened their home to the traveling families.

There are so many wonderful people to thank for just being there; sending cards and flowers that we can't list everyone...but they know, and more importantly, we know who you are.

All we can say is we love Chris for who he was and what he stood for—and we love you all for standing with us.

Sending our love:
The Chris Jack family:
Relda (Mouse), Chris III,
Vangie, Cam, Gabe, Freddie,
and Grey Sun,
and all "our" families from Oregon, Washington and Canada

DON'T MISS IT!

Emilio is half Apache Indian and half Spanish. He lived a very rough lifestyle until giving his life to Christ eight years ago. An ex-convict and drug and alcohol abuser, his life was turned completely around by Christ. Emilio tells of his experiences and shows, from a practical, Biblical viewpoint, how other people's lives can be changed for the better!
