

As in years past, the annual Pi-Ume-Sha Celebration drew many visitors from throughout the United States and Canada. This year, the Disney Channel sent representatives to record the event. The piece was shown on the Disney Channel this fall.

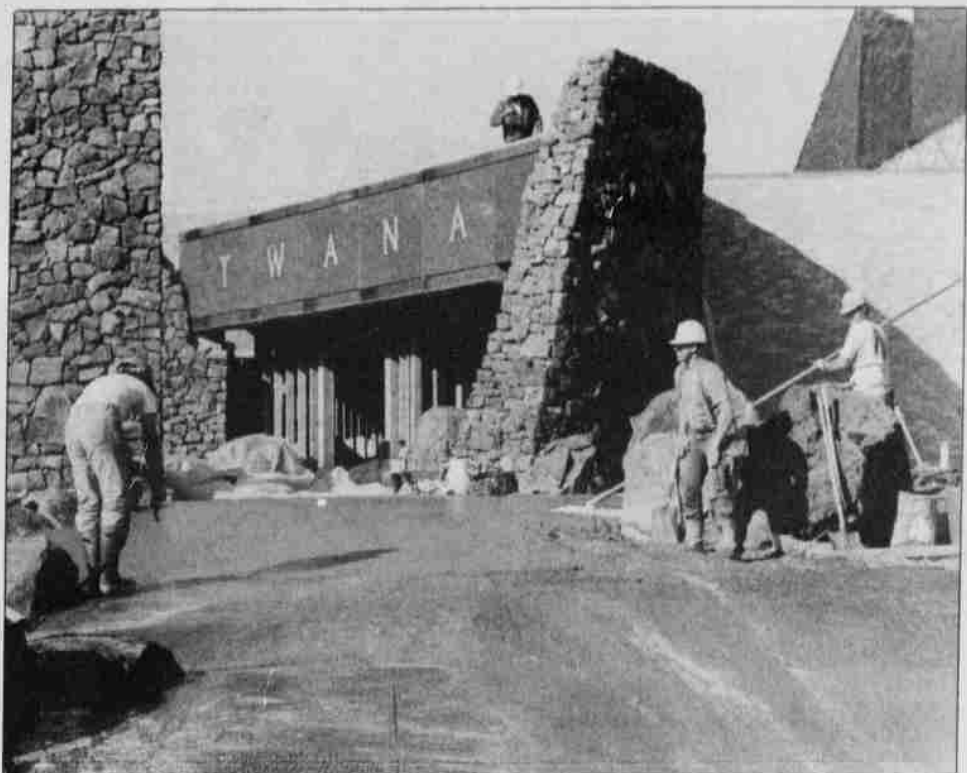

Wasco County and Warm Springs searchers had the gruesome chore of combing reservation woodlands following the discovery of four bodies in October near the W-300 road off Highway 26 at milepost 85. The suspect, Douglas Wright, has not yet been charged with any of the alleged murders.

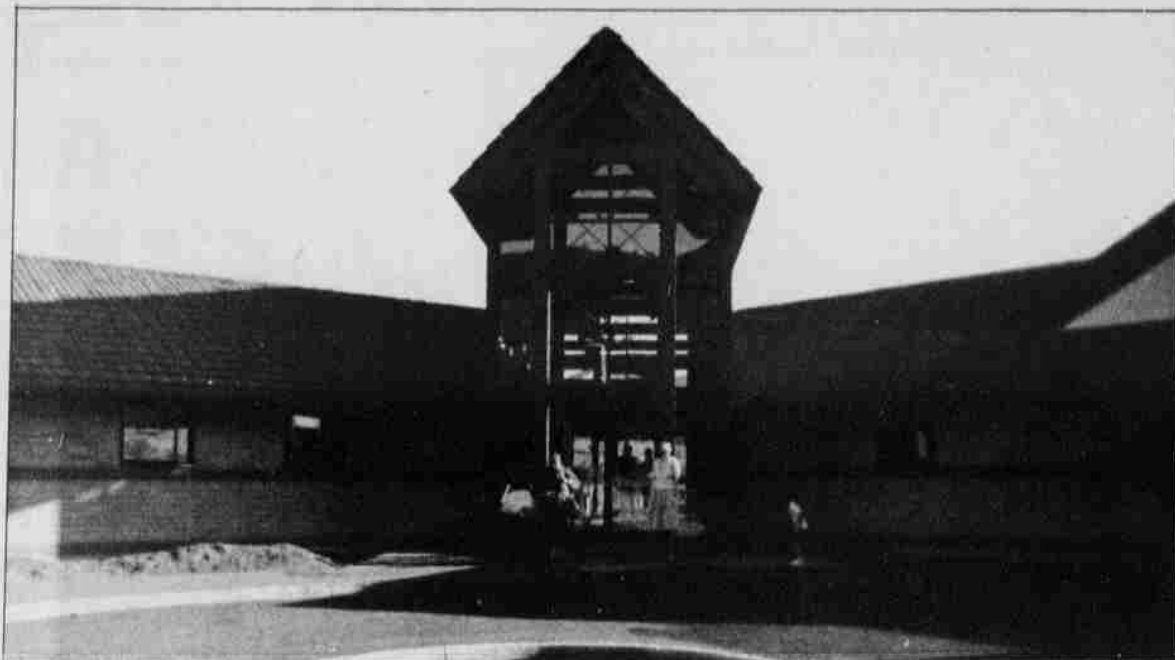

Ed Manion, Delbert Frank, Sr. and Steve Anderson signed the contract that began construction of the Warm Springs Museum. Completion date is expected to be in early 1993.

Archeologists discovered an Indian encampment bordering U.S. Highway 26 near Warm Springs during preliminary construction survey.

The new museum is taking shape following months of construction. Natural rock, iron work and unusual architecture style make the building unique.

Warm Springs Power Enterprises held open house ceremonies in its new building during the early part of 1991.

The Madras High School boys varsity basketball team earned its way to the State playoffs in Eugene in March. Madras lost a close championship game to the Cottage Grove Lions and placed second in the tournament.