Vehicle Pool policy reviews driver responsibility

Portions of the Vehicle Pool Policy will appear in the Spilyay

3.0 Driver's Responsibility

(a) Oregon License. The driver has the responsibility to obtain a valid Oregon license. Out of state licenses are permitted only under special circumstances. Out of state licenses are valid for 30 days after which an Oregon State License is required.

(b) Specialty Equipment Licenses. When specialty licenses are required by the State of Oregon for certain types of vehicles, then the driver must obtain the appropriate special license in order to operate that vehicle. Example: To drive a bus you need a Class 2 License or Chauffeurs License.

(c) Safe Vehicle Operation. All drivers must operate the vehicle in a safe, defensive, and responsible manner and observe all traffic laws, regulations, and established practices. For safety, seat belts shall be worn by all occupants at all times.

(d) Securing Unattended Vehicles. Drivers must remove the keys, set the parking brake, lock all doors, and close the windows when leaving a vehicle unattended. Tribal vehicles may be parked at the Vehicle Pool during weekends and off duty hours for improved security.

(e) Vehicle Re-fueling. All vehicles must be refueled at the Tribal Vehicle Pool using the Kardloc system. When refueling the vehicle, the driver must perform the following: * Input the current odometer reading; * Check the engine oil; * Check the fluid levels; * Clean windows; * Check service sticker for next service; * Make a walk-around inspection of vehicle; * Report any defects to Vehicle Pool staff.

(f) Flat Tires. Drivers are responsible for knowing how to change a flat tire. Heavy equipment and specialty trucks will be serviced only by trained Vehicle Pool staff.

(g) Vehicle Appearance. Vehicle operators are responsible for washing and cleaning their assigned vehicles bi-weekly. The vehicle pool wash rack is for use in keeping vehicles clean. Soap, hand towels, window cleaner, wash clothes, vacuum cleaner, and car wax is available from the Vehicle Pool Parts Manager. The driver must keep the vehicle free of all trash.

(h) Original Equipment. The cost of any equipment missing from a vehicle is charged to the last assigned department. The driver must account for all vehicle equipment at all times.

(i) Traffic Citations. Drivers will be personally responsible for payment of any traffic citations incurred while operating a tribal vehicle. This policy covers any and all types of tickets.

(j) Seat Belts. Seat belts will be worn by all occupants at all times for their safety.

(k) No Smoking Policy. As stated in Resolution #8007, there is to be no smoking in tribal vehicles. If a driver is alone, then smoking is allowed. If there are other passengers, then only if it is agreed by all occupants is smoking allowed.

(l) Insurance Policy. The insurance policy states that only employees of the Confederated Tribes and their subordinates will be covered while on company business. Giving hitchhikers or non-employees a ride is discouraged.

(m) Driver's Training. All tribal vehicle operators will be required to attend Defensive Driving Classes at least bi-annually.

Bowling tournament very successful

To the editor,

The 16th Annual Indian Holiday Bowling Tournament, held December 27, 28, & 29, 1991, has once again had a successful year. This year's tournament was held in memory of "Doris Ann Wolfe", a long-time bowler in the Warm Springs Leagues. The family of Doris contributed to the success of the tournament by donating four jackets that went to the women's team champions: The Wide Spot Pounders—Joni David, Shirley Sanders, Missy David, and Allee Jackson. The family also donated two Pendleton blankets to the high individual handicap series to Missy David with a 692 and Satch Miller with a 744. Nice Bowling!

Sandra Danzuka, Sandra Greene, Sharon Jones, and Angie Greene for putting on the high game pots.

Thanks to all the ladies who contributed food toward our Sunday feeding of the bowlers. We appreciate all your hard work!

Charlotte Shike, Sandra Danzuka, Joni David, the Greene sisters, It's Video Time, Anna Clements and Norene Greene for donating all prizes that were made available for each raffle drawing. A special thank you to Benson Heath who generously volunteered and $20 Sentry gift certificate toward the raffle.

A very exceptional Thank You to all those who sponsored a jacket for all our first place winners: Pelton Lanes, Howard G. Arnett, Mickey Brunoe, Rainbow Market, George DeJarmet, Erickson's Sentry, Ted Strong, Rialto, Chief Smith, S.A.S. Construction, Randy Boise, Azar Spino, Dan, Fran & Susan Ahern, Lakota West Inc. (who donated two!)

A big, big thank you to you all! All those listed above have all contributed to make our 1991 WSHIBT another success! And our congratulations to all the winners in this year's tournament, and better luck next time to all the other bowlers who participated.

This is the second year now the tournament committee has donated a $100 added purse to the mixed team champions. Next year, we the committee, would like to try for a $100 added purse to all the team events—mixed team, mens team, ladies team, and this would be an added prize fee to all entries collected. Hope to see you all for the 17th Annual Bowling Tournament!

Thank you WSHIBT Committe
