Students look toward future as being a bright one, full of challenges, fun

Seventeen year old, Edward Heath of Warm Springs is a senior at Madras High School. His mother is Catherine Watah. He is of the Warm Springs, Wasco, Paiute, and Klamath affiliation. He has only one brother, Jackson Heath who is twenty years old, although he is especially fond of his nephews, Weston and Bradford Heath ages three and two. Heath also has two sisters, Sonia Heath who is 25 and Jolene George who is nine years old.

He enjoys racing horses in the summer, hunting, fishing and drawing. In school he is involved with forestry class. In the sports field at Madras he is a three year letterman in wrestling, one year letterman in cross country, and two year letterman in track. His favorite sport is wrestling, he states, "You must challenge your individual physical and mental abilities and prove to yourself what you are capable of doing." His favorite subjects in school are forestry with Bill Wysham, civics with Matt Henry, and choir with Jim Burge.

Special recognition Heath has received include the letters he earned in each of his sports activities, citizenship awards and placing in forestry skills contests. When asked what his outlook of the past school years has been like, he stated, "It was fun and very educational, while it lasted." Heath also stated his feelings about this being his last year in high school, "I'm glad I made it through."

Heath will miss his friends and the sports activities the most when he leaves Madras. He feels his career choice will be either forestry or a natural resource field or something related. He is undecided about a particular college. Heath comments his feelings to the remaining lower class, "Stay in school and live your educational life to the fullest." In five to ten years from now Heath sees himself either attending school or holding a decent job.

Matthew Earl Smith is seventeen years old and lives in Warm Springs with his mother, Mary Smith. He is of the Warm Springs, Wasco and Paiute tribes. His grandfather is Earl Miller. He has one brother, Rupert age 16, and two sisters, Tammy age 24 and Bernedette age ten.

Smith enjoys hunting, and school sports. He has participated in football, wrestling, and track throughout high school. His favorite sport is football, "Because it is bad!" His favorite class is forestry with Bill Wysham. Smith's outlook of high school, he states, "I got by." He feels proud that this is his last year in high school, although he will miss the sports and strolling the halls. Smith feels being a game warden will be his career, but is uncertain of which college he will attend. He comments to the remaining lower class, "Hang in there, don't be a skin." In five to ten years from now he sees himself healthy and wealthy.

from fire. Approximately 33% of students turned their papers back in, last year only 13% completed the worksheet.

In each grade level there was one male and one female drawn from the bunch to be the 1992 Fire Buster Award winners. Jeff Sanders did the drawing. They were as follows: Kindergarten-Candelaria Rhoan and Austin Smith, Jr. First grade-Don Winishut, Jr. and Kaylie LeClaire.

Project Graduation offers alcohol/drug free celebration

Oregon's Project Graduation began in 1982 and focused on making parents aware of the need for an alternative way for seniors to celebrate graduation—one that didn't include drinking and driving.

For many years we've known that more young men and women die in alcohol related traffic accidents during graduation time than any other youth celebration of the year. Our young people are drinking and driving and killing themselves and their friends.

Therefore, local parents are in the early planning stages of the ninth All Night Drug and Alcohol Free Graduation Party. The work is just beginning. Help from local businesses and the community members in the form of money, prizes, food, and/or time will be greatly appreciated.

The benefits of living in a small, caring community are so apparent in time of need, as generosity in the past years has shown. This generosity has enabled each graduate of Madras High School to take with him/her a night of great memories to cherish for a lifetime.

Business people will be contacted in the near future by a committee member. Thank you.

For more information please call Martie Markgraf at 553-3293.

The sixth grade classes at the Buff Elementary school in Madras have been in the process of working on their project REACH projects that will be displayed at the Culture Fair. Students were encouraged to do research on their own individual cultural backgrounds. Projects cover topics such as history, current culture, foods, music, also arts and crafts. Completed projects are being displayed at the Culture Fair tonight, Thursday, March 5 from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in the Buff Elementary gym.

Study Hall Program

The Warm Springs Elementary School Study Hall program which offers help for any student, grades 6-12, has moved the hours to: 4:30-6:00 p.m. as of 2/18/92, in room #13. The staff offers help in all subjects (even though sometimes it may take all of us to figure out an assignment, as our own high school days are far behind us!) Students are responsible for bringing all materials and assignment sheets if they are available.

Firebuster awarded
Fireman Bob with Warm Springs Fire & Safety, joined with fire departments and school districts throughout the state to bring an important fire safety program to students called "Firebusters".

Instructions and worksheets were provided to the students to be used during the week of February 3-7, 1992, with a series of five topics aired on TV and radio.

Special announcement
Each spring, before school is out, the teachers at each grade levels sit down as a group and assign students to a class group for the upcoming school year. This takes a good amount of time on the part of the teachers, but since they work most closely with these students, they are well qualified to make these assignments. Following this, specialists look at the classes and make additional suggestions. This year, the class groupings will go back to the teachers for further discussions.

At the kindergarten level, the Principal meets with the Head Start/Preschool personnel to make assignments for the upcoming year. Sometimes this may take as many as three meetings to provide for good grouping of students and to meet the needs of individual students. There are times that parents ask to make a request for a specific teacher.

Should you wish to do this, you are asked to make the request, in writing, prior to May 15th. Staff members will try to honor all requests; however, if we are not able to do this you will be notified and asked to conference with us regarding the decision that is made.
