Root Feast Rodeo draws top cowboys

It's rodeo season when you hear the voice of Jake Grosmitter echoing across the country side. Grosmitter, a popular rodeo announcer throughout the northwest, was on hand when the Root Feast rodeo got underway in the Warm Springs rodeo arena on April 4, 1992. This kicking off the 92 rodeo season for most contestants.

Contestants from far and near were on hand to try their luck for some of that prize money. Wouldn't you know that the weather was nasty cold on that weekend as temperatures dipped into the low teens. The rodeo went on schedule starting out with the ever increasing popular wildhorse race. The colorful event drew 32 teams and when the whole thing came down to the finals it was the Shane Olney team who were the winners, Donovan Burns team second and Randy Guess team third.

The Warm Springs Rodeo Association worked hard to put on a fine rodeo. All the Rodeo Committee members are contestants and former contestants in the rodeo game. The stock was furnished by the Alps Rodeo Stock Contractors of Madras, Oregon.

Most of the contestants names who were entered here will be heard all season long as the rodeo season is under way once again.

The following are the results of the two day Root Feast Rodeo:

Lummi Wolves win the We B.A.A.D. tourney

"It was fortunate to have a tourney due to a funeral, two rodeos, and two men's tournaments over the weekend. To all who participated your all considered champions. Just to take the time to practice and travel to tournaments is a feat in itself," said Tony Suppah, Tournament Director.

He went on to say, "Hats off to all the coaches who take the time to work with these kids, giving them something to look forward to on weekends. Giving up their free time is a great sacrifice, God Bless you all and may He Above watch over you and yours."

Thanks to all the teams who participated and to the sponsors of the annual event, the kids had a successful tournament. Hoping that next years will be better.

The tournament was competitive but the Lummi Wolves prevailed again. Their a well disciplined & coached team. They're the team to beat this year in tournaments. Defeating We B.A.A.A.D. 62-50 to take the championship.
