Moses extends "Aloha" from his new home in Pacific Paradise

Aloha Family and Friends,

Just to let everyone know I am doing fine in Honolulu, Hawaii. I am currently working with the International Archaeological Research Institute on a down town project of Honolulu. This is only a temporary job, but I am continually searching for a full-time job. There are several good prospects of employment on the full-time basis in the fields of Social Service, Residential Manager, or Alcohol/Drug Prevention. Whatever job becomes available soon after my current job ends I do hope to continue my stay in paradise.

There are plenty of jobs available on this island of Oahu, but with the high cost of living most of these jobs pay the minimum wage of about $4.30 an hour. The rent is very outrageous here, most studios, one bedroom or two bedroom apartments average from $350 to $1500 a month. I have lucked out thus far, for I've met some very nice people of the Pearl City area who have opened this home to me at a lesser price. Mr. Charley Burnett is from the state of Oklahoma and his wife Sri (SEE) is from Thailand and they are very supportive to the Indian people on the island. I hope to stay here until I do get another job and establish an apartment of my own.

A little advice to anyone who may decide to move over here and search for employment. I have learned a hard lesson and I hope nobody else has to go through what I have. I thought I had everything planned out carefully, but I had several loose strings dangling.

Hawaii is the perfect place to visit or vacation for it is paradise for the weather is perfect 75 to 85 degrees daily. The people are friendly, nice and helpful, but there are many homeless families, welfare recipients and problems just like any city, town or reservation. If you don't know anyone here then its very tough to try and settle down. You have to go all in search of a job, state offices, employment services, advertisements, new friends everywhere, I say this because for the past three weeks upon my arrival I had done just that all over this city and island. I was bound and determined to find work because I want to stay here. I am getting plenty of walking time but I've also learned that Honolulu has the best bus system here—the company's name is just that "The Bus".

I've met many Indians of the Comanche, Sioux, Zuni, Navajo, Aluet, Athabas Ren, Pomo, Nez Perce, Cree, Creek, Cherokee, Yurok, Colville, Kiowa, Mohawk and I know there are plenty other tribes as well and many Polynesians too. The American Indian Service Corp. has mentioned that they are looking forward to people of Warm Springs to return for their October 11, 12 Annual Powwow. I am meeting many, many interested people everyday.

As far as the family and relatives and friends, I do miss everyone. But no matter where one goes it seems you see a lot of people within other people here. I hope I don't confuse anyone.

If anyone wants to write me, well here is my current temporary address: Mr. William C. Moses
2129 Komo Mai Drive
Pearl City, Hawaii 96782
I want to thank everyone who has supported me throughout my life challenges. Take care, God bless everyone.

"Aloha" with love & friendship always,
William C. Moses

P.S. Congratulations to all the new Tribal Council members. Stand strong, I believe it's God's way. Hang in there!

Penpal wanted

To the Editor,

I'm writing to ask if there are any full-blooded native American Indian ladies on the reservation who would like to be my pen pal and write to me. I respect, admire and honor the American Indians, and am very much interested in learning about your culture, customs, tribes, clans, dances, dress and arts and crafts.

I would appreciate it very much if I could hear from any of you ladies. God bless you all, and I'll be anxiously waiting to receive your letters.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Rita Springer
2139 Adams Road
Cincinnati, Ohio 45231

Return purse, no questions

To the editor,

On Thursday, April 16, my purse was stolen from a vehicle in the parking lot of the Housing office. Along with cash, I lost my checkbook, several cards, drivers license, and other pieces of I.D., of substantial value to me was a scientific calculator used for working with statistical data. I would like very much to have this calculator back, as well as the other items of value to no one, except me. No questions asked. Please mail to 7355 NE 145th Place, Bothell, WA 98011, or call 553-1609, Warm Springs, regarding return.

Thanks.

On Patrol

by Captain Don Courtney

WS Drug Task Force

Members of the WS Drug Task Force along with members of the Parole & Probation department executed a home visit check in the Trailer courts area that resulted in two persons being arrested for narcotics possession.

Along with a Tribal member, a Hispanic was arrested following a routine pat-down that also resulted in his arrest for possession of evidence, trial on both subjects are pending.

In other related activities, the task force has been busy gathering information on the use, sale, transport, and distribution of drugs within our community.

Members of the community are encouraged to call, write, or meet in

Powwow scheduled

Eastern Oregon State Colleges' Speel-Ya Indian Club is having their 22nd annual spring powwow Saturday, May 9, 1992 at the Quinn Coliseum from 7 p.m. to 12 midnight.

person a member of the task force to express your concerns or pass vital information along to assist in the "war on drugs."

Your visit or contact will be confidential.

From the Captains Desk

Did you know across our country that there are more than 3 million burglaries a year? That means that every 10 seconds, a burglary is being committed. Please don't be a statistic, here are more tips:

1) Someone calls you on the telephone that you don't know or calls saying "wrong number." Don't give out information.

2) Look around your house and property; are you leaving things out that someone can see? Someone may want what you left out.

3) Vary your routine when doing daily or weekly tasks that take you out of your home. Even as police work dictates, our officers are required not to follow the same routine everyday.

Do your part...report suspicious activity in your neighborhood.

Special thanks goes out to the officers who help with the school visit Red Ribbon Campaign, and to McGruff the "Crime Dog" who we got out of the dog house to make an appearance at our most recent family Powwow that took place at the Agency Longhouse.

Police and the WS Boy Scouts

In keeping with Carol Wewa's aspirations to keep the Public Safety Branch actively involved in the Warm Springs Boy Scouts program, Sgt.'s Whittenburge & Holliday have been busy keeping up with the activities of our local troop #59.

The latest adventures have included responding to an emergency situation, rendering first aid, and menu planning cooking skills.

The menu the boy scouts came up with include: shishkebabs, potato salad, soup, and peach cobbler. This menu which will be prepared later will have to be prepared over an open fire.

None-For-The-Road

This past week was quite busy for the none-for-the-road committee and the police officers as the Warm Springs Elementary School was visited by officers in the classrooms.

The purpose of the Red Ribbon Card campaign in the school system was to provide kids the opportunity to encourage loved ones not to drink and drive.

Statistics for past years showed that in eight members of our community died in 1990, and that three people died in 1991 as a result of drinking and driving incidents.

1991 also showed that there were 149 motor vehicle crashes and a total 231 people arrested for drunk driving.

The elementary school children were asked to send someone they care about a card with a red ribbon attached.

In another related activity of the committee, the first draft of the None-For-The-Road brochure is progressing well with hopes of establishing another tool to help educate drivers on drinking issues when it comes to driving.

Again remember, to report a drunk driver on the Warm Springs Indian Reservation, dial 911.
