Montana cowboy all-around champ

Spike Gardipee, of Cutbank, Montana, won the 18th Annual Treaty Days All-Around title, here in Warm Springs, June 27, 28, 1992. The two day affair was a Western States, Rocky Mountain and Arizona Indian Rodeo Cowboys Association Sanctioned rodeo.

Gardipee won the Team Roping, the Steer Wrestling and placed second in the Calf Roping to pile up enough points to take the title. His nearest competitor was Preston Williams but he was far short to be a threat to Gardipee.

Stacy Colliflower was the top girls competitor winning both the Breakaway roping and the Senior Barrel Race. There were no other girls close to her as far as points were concerned in the two girls events.

The stock contractor was the Prinz Rodeo Co. of Terrebonne, Oregon, the announcer for the rodeo was the popular Jake Grossmiller of The Dalles, judges were Butch Hurtado and Fritz Roanhorse. Rodeo secretary Ginger Smith, timers were Evaline Patt and Irene Wells.

The Warm Springs Rodeo Association worked very hard to get a fine show together. The following are the results of the rodeo:

Thomas takes first in annual Endurance Race

The annual endurance horse race went well with several entries in the senior division. The winner of that event was Norman Thomas of Owyhee, Nevada, who was riding a horse owned by Kathy Heath. Thomas covered the 14 mile course in 46 minutes and 3 seconds. Allen Gilbert, Jr. was a close second his time 48:02, with Jay Suppah third with 49:38. Joe Scott fourth his time of 70:18, and fifth place was Lucinda Heath her time of 98:26.

The final mile in the endurance race is almost like a suicide race as the path is almost straight down, on the steep hillside just west of the campus area. No matter which way they go down it's steep.

In the Jr. Division for kids 15 and under, Flint Scott won the race as he covered the five mile course in rapid time. Second place went to Evans Spino, Jr., third place was Smokey Wewa, fourth place went to Charlene Spino and one was disqualified because of age.

The annual event sponsored by the Tribes is always fun to watch especially if the race is close as they come down the hill at a rapid pace. The judges were Mr. Topash, Allen Elston and Jim Noteboom. These fine men work there each year.

Norman Thomas crossing the finish line of the 14.5 mile endurance horse race on Saturday morning, under the watchful eye of race judge Bernard Topash. Thomas made the route in record time, finishing just ahead of Allen Gilbert, Jr.

The Fry Bread tourney finished their weekend, Sunday, June 28, as the last group approached the 18th green.

Recreation sponsors fun run

The Recreation Department will be sponsoring the Annual Fun Run in conjunction with the Jefferson County Fair on Saturday, July 25 beginning at 8:30 a.m. at Sahalee Park in Madras. The event will be a 4.75 mile competitive run as well as a 1.0 mile fun run/walk. Entry fee will be $3 per entry, and each entry will receive a visor, and raffle ticket for a drawing of various prizes donated by local merchants. Day of the race registration will begin at 8 a.m. Pre-registration will be at the Recreation office Monday through Friday 8-5.
