

Thank you!

To the editor,
This is a very, very late thank you to the JOM Committee, who were so kind in sponsoring Albert at the Special Olympics last May. It was a very enjoyable time for the whole family. Also, it is a rewarding experience to watch the special people compete, they put all that they have into their events and lose gracefully. We would like to encourage all families who have a relative who participates in Special Olympics, to come out and cheer them on. This makes them so happy, to know someone out there loves them and they do their very best. Thanks again, JOM, for giving us the opportunity to go to Eugene this year.

Respectfully,
Eva Stahi & family

Where did the money go?

To the people of Warm Springs:
I'm writing this letter to let the people know that when they raised money for Woody and Iris Smith down at the Pi-Ume-Sha grounds, which was $1,500 I believe, that Woody and Iris never got any of that money or the other things that the stands donated.

Where the money went and the other things, I guess we'll never know.

Iris told me that some of the people had asked her if she had got the money and the other things, she told them no, but she thanked them anyway. She told me that if they needed the money and the other things more than them, that it was alright with her, but do you and I believe that the committee could use that much money overnight, maybe, but think about it people, just what is going on!

I don't want the committee to be angry at Woody and Iris for my writing this letter, for they know nothing of this.

For I don't think it's right for the committee to have the people believe that they helped, when they did not.

Sincerely,
Wimpy Winishut

Thanks for help during birth

To the editor,
Special thanks and prayers go out to the emergency staff that was on duty. From the receptionist to the maternity ward staff who did a fantastic job through the whole ordeal. Especially on keeping me calmed down. To Peggy Kemper, Carolyn Phillips, Jan Monroe and Janet Mender for their assistance to my wife and our son.

To Dr. Nakamura and Dr. Lieuallen for the delivery. May He guide and watch over your footsteps always.

Respectfully,
a parent and father, Tony "Big Rat" Suppah

Frank extends apology for illegal actions

To the editor,
I, Charles E. Frank, would like to take this time to say an apology to the people of Warm Springs. For the danger I made toward my people of the community of Warm Springs with my dangerous drugs. I was pushing them off to them for a quick buck for a quick fix.

I just would like to say that I am very sorry for my ways of making money. And I would like to say there's a better way of making a living than dealing drugs to my people. I just got impatient for a job and felt I was going to make it one way or the other if I couldn't find a job and I guess my way was very wrong. It was the cheap way out to make my living and the community had to pay for my poor way of making a living.

And the only way I can say I am truly sorry is to write this letter to you all. Whether I am court ordered to write this letter or not. It's the way I feel. Drugs are bad. So please forgive me please.

Yours sincerely,
Charles E. Frank

Many help with powwow

To the editor:
Thanks to those that helped in making the HeHe Powwow another successful event.

First of all, thanks and acknowledgement goes to the Kah-Nee-Ta Resort for their indirect support of the HeHe activities. The numerous dancers and singers that participated in the dance performances and salmon bakes at Kah-Nee-Ta. The elders of Simnasho Longhouse for their mini-raffle sales donations. Other acknowledgements are: $75 was donated by Captain Moody for the Boys Traditional 7-12 Division. Charlotte Herkshan's $100 pledge from last year sponsored part of drum pay. Viola Kalama donated $20 and Fred Wallulatum family $50.

Pop sales during the powwow cleared $128 towards 1993 powwow. Other donations were: $20 from Nathan Jim, Jr.; undetermined pledge from Rosalie Slimjohn on behalf of Willard Suppah, Jr. and Mr. & Mrs. Warner Jim donated a cedar basket for raffle.

The amounts paid as prizes and drumming, etc. depends on the money raised during the year. All help is greatly appreciated.

Wild horse race shows success

To the editor:

The Memorial Wildhorse Race turned out very good. The total number of teams that entered was 18. Out of the 18 teams they were divided into four sectioned events throughout the Treaty Days Rodeo, June 27 & 28th. Out of the four sections the top two teams were taken and put into the final round which was eight teams going for 1st, 2nd, and third place.

First place was in memory of Vernon "Jughead" Suppah, which did wild horse racing in his days. Franklin Suppah family came up with $500 added fee, would like to thank Shirley Heath for donating the three ribbon shirts that was given to the third place team. Wanda VanPelt did a good job of coming up with the 4 high quality and very beautiful beaded buckles, which were made by Nadine Herkshan, Delsie Scott, and two by herself.

The first team was: Ray Roba, Buck Smith and Troy Smith.

First place team received the beaded buckles and 50% of entry and the $500 added money, which came out to be $2050.

Second place was in memory of Dennis Starr, who also did wildhorse racing in his days. The Ramona Starr family came up with very nice looking turquoise coats with lettering.

The second place team was: Donavan Burns, Claude Smith, Jr. and Maurice Smith. As second place winners, the team received the jacks and 30 percent of the entry and $500 added money, which came out to be $1,230.

Third place was in memory of Devereil Winishut, who was also involved in wildhorse racing.

The third place team was: Spud Smith, Hobo Patt and Rodney Smith. The third place team received ribbon shirts and 20 percent of the entry and $500 added money, totalling $820.

We would also like to thank Enie Herkshan, Jacob Frank, Sr. and Ned Hurtado for doing a very good job of the judging of the event.

Sincerely,
Lorraine Suppah

members along with federal representatives will meet again to continue water negotiation discussions. Planning for both the future of the Tribe and the future of the State takes insight and understanding. Although negotiations seem painstakingly slow, the thoroughness of the agreement must be assured.

Tribal members are encouraged to ask questions about water negotiations. District representatives can answer some questions. A video is available through the Warm Springs Natural Resources Department free of charge which provides much information.

Good wishes from Rep. Clarno

To the editor,

To my dear friends of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs. I missed seeing you and being with you during the Pi-Ume-Sha Treat Days. As a member of the Revenue Committee I was called to attend the hearing on the Governor's tax proposal. I truly hope you had a wonderful celebration and was also very sorry to miss the opening of the Early Education Center. My heart and good wishes were with you for both events.
