

change, growth, improvements in 1992

Warm Springs' newest Tribal Council was seated in May. Serving the next three years are Bernice Mitchell, Rita Squiemphen, Zane Jackson, Joe Moses, Kathleen Heath, Wilson Wewa, Sr., Raymond Calica and Jacob Frank, Sr.

Arid conditions on the reservation could have led to disaster for local fire fighters. A total of 93 fires burned 433.65 acres of range and timberlands.

The Shitike Creek Park Project proceeded throughout the year, with Phase I coming to a close in November. Phase II will be completed this year.

The Madras High School boys varsity basketball team traveled to state playoffs, but were defeated in the third round of action.

As the sign says, the Museum at Warm Springs will open to the public March 14.

The USDA funds the Breakfast Program, which started this fall, at the Warm Springs Elementary Cafeteria.