For Dondi J. Hoptowitz
A "heart felt" Valentine wish without the bliss Through all the times that have been good we've shared being blessed with six children, your job, our home and more Through all the pain, sorrow, and dark times that's suppose to strengthen us-I pray we shall always remain man and wife so don't screw this up, say that you'll be my valentine, or I'll punch your lights out!
My love always, Tammy

Valentine
"Secret One"

Donald "Rocky" who's our first born makes us proud with his unselfish ways and always willing to learn something (after being told over and over again) Our eldest daughter Shirley Jay whom I named after Auntie-with a lot of responsibilities upon her young shoulders-you still shine bright with your young girlish ways Next is Dawn Jacquelyn who's very special and silly- always fun- and acting the wise guy you bring laughter and a ray of hope Willem Jay is in kindergarten and he's always trying to take part (his smile would warm your heart) and he's always ready to be the helpful "hand" our both sides of the family!
Then comes Darlene Hazel Dovel who's named after almost everybodyon and could entertain you if you dare to listen!
Now sixth but not last is Katherine Susan, she's well on her way into her third year soon, she jabs her nonstop, her giggles are sweet but her temper & shrecks are something else There's no doubt you are all a BIG PART of Daddy & I's life but it's always "Bice" to ask "Will you be my valentine?"

Valentines
Author: Margaret Freer

Between your heart and my heart
There is a bond unbroken;
Though time and miles divide us
And words remain unspoken.

Thus, on a special day like this,
When true hearts with love entwine, I know that we will always be Each other's valentine.

Hearts like ours do not forget,
This bond we cannot sever...
Within your heart and my heart
We'll be valentines forever.
