

to the people, culture of Warm Springs

As veterans, Art Mitchell, right, and Grant Waheneka carry Eagle staffs during flag raising ceremonies at grand opening.

George Clements watches over elk and venison cooking on open grill. Hundreds enjoyed a meal of wild meats, salmon, fry bread and salads following dedication ceremonies.

Paiute dancers, Arlene Wewa, Rosie Tom and Lauraine Hintsala (left to right), demonstrate winnowing during exhibition at opening.

Armina, Tamera and Charlene Pearl Tilly Moody ward off the cold by snuggling together in a blanket during opening ceremonies.

A copy of the Treaty of 1855 is on display at the Museum. By simply turning a wheel the copy rolls forward so actual wording and signatures can be viewed.

Pierson Mitchell explains to Museum visitors the method in which a hand drum is made.

Spilyay Tymoo
photos
by Donna Behrend and Selena Boise