Greenhouse program to start May 12

Oregon Native American Business Entrepreneur Network (ONABEN), in partnership with the BIA, Small Business Association and the Warm Springs Small Business Center, will be starting a new 14-week Greenhouse Small Business Workshop. The workshop is directed toward individuals interested in starting and operating their own individual businesses. The workshop classes are taught by a lead instructor who will bring in local business experts (bankers, lawyers, accountants, etc.) to address all the business areas needed to successfully start and operate a small business. Topics in the workshop will include:

- ◆ How to get started in business.
- ◆ Marketing and promoting your business.
- ◆ Pricing your products or services.
- ◆ Loans, money management and budgeting.

- ◆ Bookkeeping and business taxes.

The workshop, to be held in the Education Center in training room #2, will begin Wednesday, May 12 and continued through the middle of August. Classes will be held from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Cost is $150.

For more information or sign-up, call the Small Business Center at 553-3593.

Tribal artists invited to submit work for show

The Museum at Warm Springs is pleased to invite all tribal member Artists & Craftspeople to submit slides of their work for our first "Tribal Member Art Show". The opening date is scheduled for September 24, 1993 and will run through January 1994.

In respect to our local artisans from our three tribes; we will have an anonymous juried art show with special award recognitions, based on selected categories from the array of work and media we receive. (Anonymous means the outside juror will not know the name of the artists that submit their work).

To assist tribal member artisans with this art show and their artistic endeavors we will be offering a "Market Your Art" workshop, with Sue Bennett in the Museum conference area room on May 13, 1993 - 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (at no cost to tribal members). This seminar will cover, how to put together your own resume and art statement, how to enter juried competitions, how to package a painting once its selected, record keeping, goals for your art growth and a special introduction about photographing your own art work. Those interested in attending this workshop please call Roxanne Casey at 553-3331 by May 10th to sign up; materials and space will be limited.

This Art Show will give Tribal Artists & Craftspeople the opportunity to have their work viewed by a vast audience that visits our museum daily for approximately four months. It will also help to educate the public about the artists from our reservation and the different types of "Arts & Crafts" we have to offer.

Application guidelines:

1. Applicant must be a tribal member of The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs Indian Reservation.
2. Submit no more than five slides of your work.
3. All work submitted must be available for the entire duration of this show.

4. Slides must be numbered and labeled (correct side up) with the artists name the title, media and size or dimensions of the work.
5. Artist Statement (a brief explanation about your work and background).
6. Application deadline will be July 29th, 1993. (Any slides received after this date will be disqualified due to the amount of works we're anticipating receiving and the jurors' time limit to select the works and awards).
7. Please submit slides only, no hand carried objects or photographs will be accepted.
8. You may pick up an application entry form at the Museum office or call and we'll be glad to send you one. Please don't hesitate to call Roxanne Casey if you have any questions or concerns, at 553-3331. Good luck to all our Tribal Artists & Craftspeople.
