

Annual Pi-Ume-Sha Celebration

Traditional dancer Ken Miller warms up for dances.

Pi-Ume-Sha celebration, drawing hundreds of participants into Warm Springs, began Friday evening with Grand Entry.

Young hoopdancer gives performance between dance contests.

Pi-Ume-Sha dress parade held

Pi-Ume-Sha Traditional Dress Parade results:
Floats: 1st—Russ Alger, IHS, Warm Springs, Oregon; 2nd—Waheneka family, Warm Springs, Oregon; 3rd—Eileen Frank Miss Lincoln's Powwow; 4th—Rhoan family, Warm Springs, Oregon.
Men's Walkers: 1st—Brian George, Goldendale, Washington; 2nd—Gene Harvey, Warm Springs, Oregon.
Women Walkers: 1st—Sophie George, Yakima; 2nd—Mary Smith, Warm Springs, Oregon.
Best Dressed Man: Delvis Heath, Warm Springs, Oregon. Best Dressed Woman: Phyllis Miller, Warm Springs, Oregon.
Boys: 1st—Tony Mitchell, Warm Springs, Oregon; 2nd—Juaquin Dixon; 3rd—Aaron Mitchell, Warm Springs, Oregon.
Girls: 1st—Bernadette Smith, Warm Springs, Oregon; 2nd—Judy Spino, Warm Springs, Oregon; 3rd—Sasha Mitchell, Warm Springs, Oregon.
Horseback (Girls): 1st—Lillian Heath, Warm Springs, Oregon; 2nd—Fawn Begay, Warm Springs, Oregon; 3rd—Evelyn Spino, Louis Tuckta, and Amber Macy, Warm Springs, Oregon.
Horseback (Boys): 1st—Buster Isadore, Warm Springs, Oregon; 2nd—Ramone Greene, Warm Springs, Oregon; 3rd—Gary and Cody Switzler, Warm Springs, Oregon; 4th—Louis Beaver, Yakima.
Most Authentic: Nelson Wallulatum.

Annual Hand Games held

The Pi-Ume-Sha Treaty Days Celebration Hand Game Tournament results are:
 1st—Whitney McKinney, Nevada, 2,000.
 2nd—Annie Cooper, LaPush, Washington, 1,500.
 3rd—Helen McDougall, Brocket, Alta, Canada, 700.
 4th—Alfie Wahtomy, Fort Hall, Idaho, 200.
 A total of 22 teams participated in the 1993 tournament.
 This tournament was started by Clairence and Florence Meanus at Warm Springs. Dennis and Ramona Starr spent 10 years with the Pi-Ume-Sha Stick Game organization.

Kalama family members attended their reunion in Warm Springs and joined in Pi-Ume-Sha activities. They sang the Hawaiian national anthem to Pi-Ume-Sha visitors and participants.

Dorian Tappo helps raise money for the Warm Springs Youth Conservation Corp program at a powwow food concession.