We had much compliments from the crowd on putting on an event for our young children that does not cost anything to participate and get paid for being a part of the cowdeo. This is the first year having a lot of cowboys and cowgirls. Entered contestants and exhibitions each day averaged 100+ participants per day. Since 1988 I have watched our local youth start from beginners to the Sr. age group. I have watched them take their licking from peewe calves to Jr. to Sr. and cows. There are a few who get a taste of dirt but most of them can ride with class and style.

Within a five year period from now our younger youth will be ready to advance to other competition other than our annual Huck Cowdeo. I have witnessed one five year generation Continued on page 8
