Foltz plans for Beijing trip

TJ Foltz, son of Patches Marchand, was chosen to go to Beijing, China this summer. He will be attending the same sports activity as Jake Suppah. TJ's family is having a raffle to help fund his trip. So far items in the raffle include a beaded salt and pepper shaker set from Aunt Emily Wahenka; a park of moccasins from Uncle Grant Wahenka; a woolen blanket from JoAnn Smith; a beaded buckle and watchband from sister Carol Crag; a sweatshirt from Loretta James; T-Shirts from The Museum at Warm Springs and KWSO; and beer signs from the Rialto Tavern and Lorraine Reeder. Also donating items are Hatfield's and Myra Shawaway. The family is seeking help from community members to add to the list of raffle items since his notification of participation was on such short notice. If anyone has items they would like to contribute to the raffle, contact Patches at the Administration building front desk. This is a once-in-a-lifetime trip for TJ and his is looking forward to going. The family needs all the help they can get to get him to Beijing.

Macy's win championship title at seventh annual tournament

The action was fast and furious during the championship game between Macy's and Black Wolf. Here shows a Black Wolf player bringing the ball down floor at a fast pace.

Buff softball team blasts past Nyssa

A report of a Buffalo stampede in Eastern Oregon as the Madras White Buffalo girls softball team rambled past the Nyssa Bulldogs taking both ends of a double header by the scores of 12-1 in the first game and the second game by the score of 36-1, on Saturday, April 23, 1994. Jesse Esquiro, has been coming on strong lately and once referred to as vacuum on third base as she scooped everything that came her way in games in the past. Esquiro was four for four at the plate. RBI's of five runs batted in. Luther picked up the win in the first game in the 12-1 win over the Bulldogs. In the second game Nyra the winning pitcher who also clubbed out a home run during the game and Mellissa Cavender had two triples in the game. This puts the Buffs at the record of 9-1 in league play and 10-5 over all for the year. It was quite a night mare for the Nyssa Bulldogs, and the best thing that could happen for them is to end the game as soon as possible.

Oregon Travelers take Rufus Memorial tourney

The Oregon Travelers participated in the Rufus, Oregon Tournament April 15 and 16. The following is an account of tournament action by Tony "Big Rat" Suppah. The teams were tough physically. It was good competition from start to finish. It was a reunion for most competing in the First Annual Mike Green Memorial, Men's 30-over Tourney, April 15 and 16, 1994 in Rufus. Mike Green was a friend, fellow-team mate and played on the following teams: Nez Perce Nation, Taholah Skins and the Oregon Travelers. Our first game was against the Wapato Headbands, who was quick but lacked in rebounding, giving us the edge. Our second was tough to the end with the Satus Cowboys, both physically and talent the teams were matched up. In the semi we played the Taholah Skins, who gave us a go for the first half, then we broke the game open in the third quarter, moving us into the championship against Satus Cowboys again, who came in better prepared defeating us 110-102, putting us into another game with one loss each. Conditioning and a bench paid off for us, giving us the championship, with both teams cramping us. Our roster consisted of Captain Ron Jones, Jack McCormack, Kub Ellenwood, Bob Main, Rich Ramsey, Rick Gallegos, Bill Herrera, Darryl Taylor, Hood McCormack, Arnold Barney and Big Rat Suppah.
