Eight members of the Health and Wellness Center staff joined the American Diabetes Association's Walktoberfest in Bend on October 1. The purpose of the 8-mile walk was to raise money through pledges. The Warm Springs team raised a total of $661!

The money raised by the Walktoberfest goes toward diabetes care and research, such as the study on diabetic retinopathy conducted by the Oregon Health Sciences University (OHSU). Other projects funded by the money raised from the walk include the Oregon Commission for the Blind program to assist newly blinded people learn adaptive diabetes management skills, and the St. Charles Medical Center's program to provide community education about diabetes.

It was a beautiful walk with a great purpose! A big thanks to the staff members who participated: Karen, Erica Foster, Susan Mathew, Candace Reich, Sara Thomas, Coleen Greene, Joy Harvey and Onte Lumpmouth. Many thanks also to the Health and Wellness Center staff and other community members who made pledges to the walkers!
