Aussies awesome on court

The Madras White Buffalo basketball teams hosted a boys and girls teams from Australia, Mon. Jan. 2, 1995, where the visitors topped the Buffaloes in both games.

The non-league encounter gave the coaches a chance to see what all the kids on the team can do in game situations as all the players had a chance to get into the game.

The boys game, Ringwood was pretty much in control of the game right from the start. Nathan Welsh was the high scorer to lead his team to a 71-50, win over the host Buffalo team. The Aussies were pretty physical and put a tight defense on the Buffs who at times had problems getting the ball down court.

Ringwood was ahead at the half way mark by the score of 35-26, and were never in any trouble at any time during the game.

T. J. Foltz was able to get 10 points to lead the Buff scoring game. The non Counting game gave the Buffs a good work out for future league games which will be pretty tough this season.

The Ringwood girls powered their way to a 46-28, win over the Madras girls. The girls too were an aggressive team that gave the Buffs plenty trouble throughout the game. One consolation was that this gave the coach a chance to play all the girls under pressure and see what they could do.

Buff girls beat Indians

The Madras White Buffalo girls basketball team using a pressure defense set the pace early in the game to beat The Dalles Indians by the score of 58-36 in league action Tuesday night Jan. 3, 1995.

Carrie Hawes scored 21 points and Erika Christensen 20 to lead the Buff girls attack. Christensen was 7 of 8 from the charity stripe and Hawes was 5 of 7, which goes to show that free shots are very important in a game. While on the other hand Amy Schulten was 0-10 from the free throw line and many of them were one and one which could have added up more if she made them all. In total The Dalles was 3 of 16 at the free throw line. Madras was called for 16 fouls and The Dalles Indians was whistled for 13 fouls during the game.

The Buffs led 14-12, at the end of the first quarter 31-18 at the half time mark, 44-31 at the end of three and the final score 58-36.

The win puts the Buffs up to 2-0 mark in league play so far this season. Un-official scoring for the game: Carrie Hawes 21, Erika Christensen 20, Shawna McConnel 7, Betsy Cordill 4, Katie Cristensen 2, Melissa Cavender 2, and Abby Nyara 2.

Scoring for The Dalles, Amy Schulten 12, Kelly Morris 8, Jennifer Schulten 5, Lena Goudy 4, Stacy Sawyer 3, Sara Coles 2, Jamie Caddy 2.
