Apologies extended

I, Tim J. Wainawit, am writing this letter of apology to the people of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, the Warm Springs Tribal Police department and to the victims of my outburst on the night/early morning of the 3rd day of December 1994.

First of all, to the WSPD, sorry for resisting arrest on that early morning. I don't know what suddenly came over me because I usually go along peacefully with Warm Springs finest (police officers).

Also, to my sister Jessica Tufi and homeboy Taylor Arthur. I severely damaged my sister's Toyota pickup by busting out her taillights.

Taylor, sorry for the misunderstanding that we had. I know that I was highly intoxicated and if you all didn't take me to the jail to be detoxed, I would have froze out there on the road.

Finally, to the community, sorry for my actions that early morning and I hope that you accept my utmost apology because I am truly sorry for my behavior.

With all due respect,
Tim J. Wainawit

To the community,

I apologize to Warm Springs community for Driving Under the Influence of Intoxicants.

SSI (over)payment debts may be erased

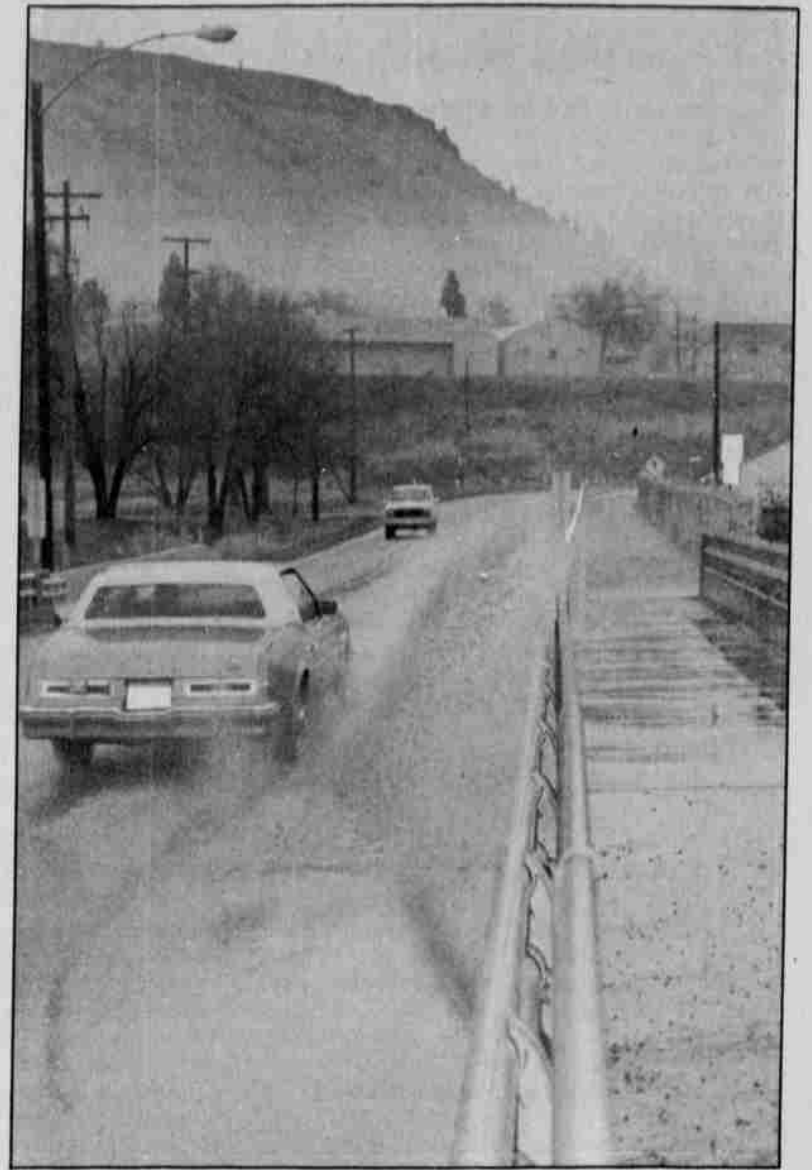

Have you or a family member had problems with SSI overpayments or loss of benefits caused by lease income from your Indian Trust Lands?

If so, you may be entitled to have your debt erased or maybe even maybe get some money back.

Please read this notice and call Evergreen Legal Services at 1-800-631-1323. If you have questions or need free advice.

If you or your spouse or your child received lease money from your Indian trust lands anytime between March 31, 1987 and January 1, 1994, which caused an SSI overpayment, and you were not living in the State of Washington at the time, you may not have to repay all or part of the overpayment, or you may be able to get a refund of money that has been collected from your SSI checks.

The possible refund or reduction of your SSI overpayment is the result of a settlement of Barney vs. Shalala, a class action filed on behalf of elderly and disabled Native Americans in Washington State. Federal law has also changed and beginning January 1994, up to $2,000 per year of lease
