

"Cowboys and Indians" was the theme of fun-filled Honor Seniors Day

Local King and Queen are Earl Miller and Nettie Shawaway, and visiting King and Queen, are Mary Kay Heller, and Lance Loizeer.

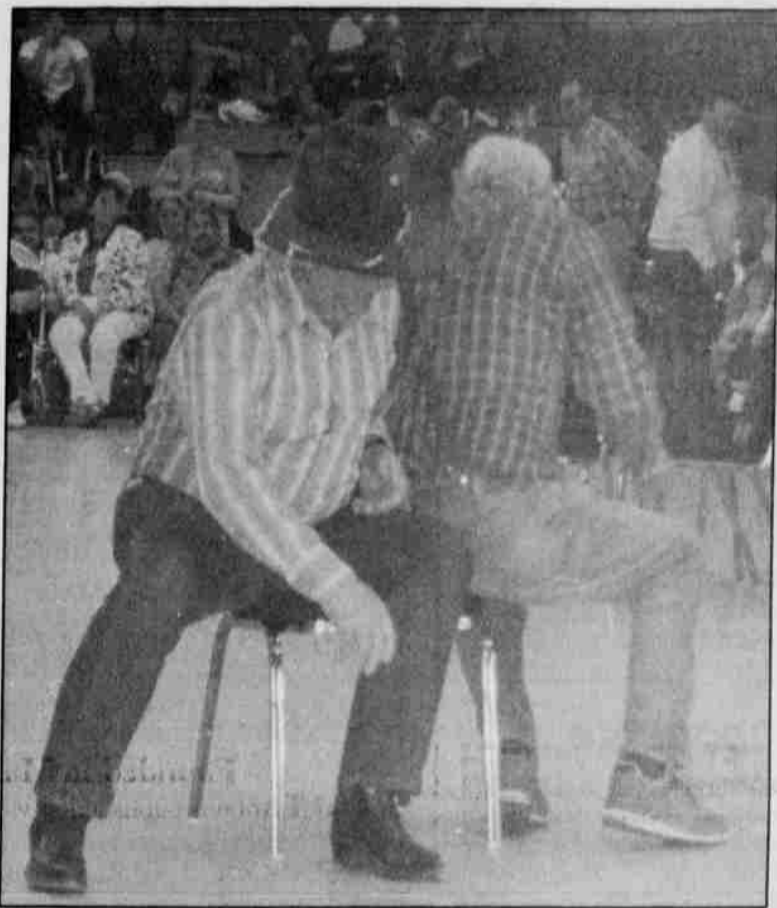

Add an orange and you have a fun owl dance.

More than 700 Senior Citizens visited Warm Springs for the 1995 Honor Seniors Day held March 17, 1995 at the Agency Longhouse.

This was a special day for Senior Citizens to gather together and have fun and visit with each other. They were honored with a powwow by ECE children, fun and games with each other, dancing, horse and carriage rides, gymnastics performance and dinner. The theme for 1995 Honor Seniors Day was "Cowboys and Indians."

C. Gray rounded up pre-registered guests.

"Get off my chair, I'm the winner."

Going . . .

going . . .

gone . . .

Senior citizens from various neighboring states traveled to Warm Springs for this fun-filled event.

Married couples remembered their younger days of dancing to soft music.

Eight ball was the M.C., he stopped his horse long enough for a photo.

Photos by Selena T. Boise and Bob Medina