Professional boxer, Joe Hipp, to train in Warm Springs

The number-two ranked heavyweight boxer in the world, Joe Hipp, has established his training camp at Indian Head Gaming Center in Warm Springs, Oregon as he prepares for an August 19th challenge of the World Boxing Association's Heavyweight Championship.

Joe Hipp has already achieved a significant first—the Native American to be ranked a "top-ten" contender for the Heavyweight Championship of the World.

He is presently ranked #2 by the World Boxing Association. He expects to achieve even more important firsts—to be the first Native American to be the Heavyweight Champion of the World.

Hipp's manager, Roland Jankelson, said that Eugene businessman Ritch Danner is responsible for Hipp locating his training camp in Oregon. "We had opportunities to set up training in a number of locations including Australia, Ritch conveniently

Runners Club holds annual Pi-Ume-Sha Run; results noted

An enthusiastic, but small, group of runners turned out for the annual Pi-Ume-Sha Run at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday, June 24. The run was launched from the Warm Springs Community Center. Thirty-five runners challenged the course that was described in the flyer as "flat". After one runner finished the race, he commented, "What do you mean, it's flat! It didn't feel flat!" Participants were treated to warm, sunny weather, friendly people, an impromptu wet T-shirt contest, as well as great awards and ribbons for top finishers.

This run has been sponsored annually by the Warm Springs Reservation Runners. Many thanks to all those who helped with this year's event. Special thanks to Val Squimphen for her great organizing and motivating abilities, and those incredible tank tops. John Anderson deserves a pat on the back for all his work getting awards and ribbons ready for the run, ensuring the proper run starting time, and helping with the awards ceremony. Thanks to Barbara Poncho for all those oranges and watermelon for the thirsty and hungry finishers. And thanks to Cal Poncho who helped before the run and cheered everybody on even though he was unable to be there

Runners of all ages participated in this year's Pi-Ume-Sha Run.

Saturday.

So many people to thank, they include: Ron Jaramillo, Laura Cailloux, Andy Leonard, Gladys Squimphen, Normandie Phelps, Oliver Kirk, Brandon, Charlie and Shellie, Millie Frazier, and Vicki Poncho. Thanks to everyone who brought raffle donations. Thanks also to anybody we missed—we don't mean to overlook your contribution
