WSFPI seeks trainee

Warm Springs Forest Products is seeking a Tribal Member that is willing to train in the forest products business from the ground up.

Training areas will focus on Forestry, Manufacturing, Sales, Marketing, Accounting/Finance, Human Resources, Public Relations, Strategic Planning and Management. This position is a four year training position, but will depend upon the trainee's progress.

This is a "roll-your-sleeves-up" environment for an aggressive individual which demonstrates self initiative and motivation.

Qualification: A four year Bachelor of Science degree in Forestry or Business is desired; but may be negotiated depending upon applicant's education and work experience. A qualified enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs shall be given first preference.

Salary: will depend on experience and will be on a prorated scale throughout the training process.

Submit resumes to WSPFI's Personnel Office. If you have any questions call 553-2100 between 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday

Various services offered

Warm Springs Family Planning Clinic wants to remind everyone that we are still situated in the basement of the Vern Jackson home. The clinic is open every Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 4:30 p.m. and services are available to Tribal members and non-Tribal residents.

We continue to offer a wide variety of services, including Family Planning exams, STD exams for men and women, birth control dispensing and counseling, Emergency contraception and anonymous or confidential HIV/AIDS testing.

This is a cooperative effort between the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs and Jefferson County Health Department, but all services are completely confidential. Please call 475-4456 for an appointment.

Museum at Warm Springs conducting membership drive

The Museum At Warm Springs is conducting a membership drive to bolster support for the award winning facility that houses many of the treasures of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs.

"The local community is one of the audiences we have targeted to encourage becoming members of The Museum," said Dora Goudy, Museum Development Officer. The benefits are many, including discounts in The Museum's Gift Shop and invitations to special exhibits, classes, performances and hosted receptions for artists and scholars, she said.

"Baby Carriers of the Plateau", is our newest changing exhibit where there are beautiful pieces of work displayed," she said.

The Museum offers educational programs throughout the year including the Living Traditions program during the summer months. Currently Antoinette Queahpama is teaching a Cedar Root Basket Making Class that has had tremendous interest and response.

On November 17, 1995, the Portland Opera will give two performances of "An American Magic Flute", an event with a Native American theme geared especially for children.

"The Museum offers a broad array of events for you to select from throughout the year," Goudy continued. "It is a way for you to become involved and to appreciate and support the arts of the community."

"The Museum was once only a dream for the people of Warm Springs and now it is a dream come true," Goudy said. She added there are many treasures stored at The Museum and each has stories that go with it. "It offers a rare and educational opportunity for people of all ages to learn form the tribal perspective, its history, traditions and culture.

"A goal of The Museum is to make it the finest cultural institution in the world and we invite your support to become a member and join our quest to achieve that goal," Goudy said.

Memberships start at $25 for senior citizens and students; $35 for individuals; $45 for families, along with other membership options.

For more information contact Goudy at 553-3331 or forward a membership application to The Museum.

Petitioner
vs.
Jesse Yallup
Respondent
Summons For Publication
Case No. JV187;188;189-94

To Yvette Picard & Jesse Yallup:

You are hereby notified that a petition for Modification has been filed with the Warm Springs Tribal Court.

By this notice you are summoned to appear in this matter at a hearing scheduled for 9:00 p.m. on the 21st day of November, 1995, at the Warm Springs Tribal Court. All of the facts of the case will be heard at this hearing, including evidence you wish to present.

You must appear to present your argument or the other side will automatically win. The Petitioner, Yvette Picard, may then be given all that is asked for in the petition for Modification.

The Petitioner will be present at the hearing. If you desire to personally argue your side of the case, you may have a legal aide, spokesperson or attorney appear on your behalf at your expense.

If you have any questions, you should seek legal advice immediately.

Dated at Warm Springs, Oregon, this 19th day of October, 1995.

Judge, Warm Springs Tribal Court

Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs
Reservation of Oregon
Petitioner
vs.
Reggie Medina
Respondent
Case No. CV109-95

To: Reggie Medina

You are hereby notified: That the above cited case(s), as filed in the Warm Springs Tribal Court, has been scheduled for trial/hearing at 9:00 a.m. on the 20th day of November, 1995.

You are hereby ordered: To be and appear at the Warm Springs Tribal Court at the time and date shown to defend against the charge(s). You may be represented by yourself, by an attorney, or by a spokesman, at your own expense. You may bring any documents you believe are relevant to this cause, and you may bring witnesses to testify on your behalf. You may request the Court to subpoena your witnesses, however, you must submit your list of witnesses no later than two weeks prior to trial; failure to do so will not be considered sufficient reason to postpone the trial. If you have any questions, you should seek legal advice immediately.

If you fail to appear as so ordered, the tribal court may enter a complaint for contempt of court and issue a warrant for your arrest.

Dated at Warm Springs, on this 16th day of October, 1995.

Matilda Mitchell

Eighty-nine year old Matilda Mitchell of Simnasho, Oregon passed away October 17, 1995 at the home of her daughter in Portland due to natural causes. She was born July 4, 1906 in Simnasho to Frank and Ski-eampt (Swan) Queahpama, Sr.

She married Louis Mitchell on December 11, 1925.

Matilda was a lifetime member of the Simnasho community. She was an elder and a highly respected woman in the Pacific Northwest. She was very knowledgeable in traditional Indian ways including crafts, medicines, folklore, rituals and food. She is the daughter of Chief Queahpama and as such assumed many responsibilities of a daughter of a chief. She officiated at many traditional Longhouse rituals. She appeared in many posters and brochures to promote her heritage. She was an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs and served on many of their committees.

Survivors include her children; Pierson Mitchell, Patrick Mitchell, Jameson Mitchell, Freda Wallulatum, Roma Jean Joe all of Warm Springs and Darlene Foster of Milwaukie. Sisters; Nettie Shawaway and Sylvia Wallulatum of Warm Springs. She has numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Louis, daughters; June and Violet Mitchell. Also preceding her were sisters; May Bruno John and Catherine Queahpama, brothers; Oscar Queahpama and Clayton Queahpama.

An all denominational Prayer Service was held Wednesday, October 18, at Bel-Air Colonial Funeral Home Chapel. Dressing Ceremonies were held Thursday, October 19, at 4 p.m. at the Simnasho Longhouse with overnight services following.

Burial was held Friday morning, October 20, at sunrise at the Simnasho Cemetery.

The family suggests Memorial Contributions be made to the American Cancer Society, 0330 SW Curry Street, Portland, Oregon 97201 or VFW Aux #4217.

New additions join Boots & Braids

Boots & Braids would like to announce that Desi Hurtado will take appointments Monday through Friday 4 to 8 p.m. Also on Saturday mornings by appointments only.

Linda Miller will be doing gel nails and fiber glass nails. For more information call 553-6434.

Apology given

I apologize to the community and to Shari Macy for Driving drunk and endangering her life.
